Sour Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda
Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.
For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

3 COAST GRAPPLERS WIN IN TOURNAMENT

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 4.—(AP)—Three Pacific coast entrants in the national Olympic wrestling tryouts, which started here today, moved to the second round in the 123 1/2 pound class while one was eliminated in his first match. Superintendent J. W. Howard, superintendent of the Oregon school for the blind, has been in attendance upon the convention of the American Association of Instructors of the Blind, at Fairbault, Minn., where the Minnesota state school is located. Mr. Howard has evidently been having a good time, as the following paragraph in its report of the convention of the Fairbault Daily News of Tuesday, June 26, will indicate:
"Tomorrow the session will start at 9 with a discussion on extra curricular activities led by Supt. Eleanor Wilson, Kansas City, Kan., and Supt. J. W. Howard, Salem, Ore. At 10:30 departmental meetings dealing with modern methods used in teaching the primary grades will be held while, at the same time a discussion of the proper type of religious education to be taught is scheduled.

A banquet and session will be held at supper time in the Citizens' Aid building, Minneapolis, while afterwards the guests will attend a band concert at Lake Harriet."

Pittsburgh Pirates Win Championship Of China

SHANGHAI, July 4.—(AP)—The National League champions are not the only Pittsburgh Pirates in baseball.
That nickname is also well and favorably known on far eastern diamonds, where the "Pirates" from the cruiser Pittsburgh, flagship of the American Asiatic fleet have proved themselves the class of the naval aggregations and have recently annexed what amounts to an American championship of the China coast by trouncing an all-star civilian nine at Shanghai.
By the victory the "Pirates" became owners of a loving cup offered by the fleet commander, Admiral Mark L. Bristol, who takes an active interest in athletics among the men of his command. The title contest had many of the trimmings of an opening day at Forbes Field or the Polo Grounds with the admiral present and United States Consul-General E. S. Cunningham tossing out the first ball.

AL SMITH IS THE WHOLE PLATFORM

What Is The Use of Written Document, Which Is Worthless Paper?
Editor Statesman:
The writer notes with interest that the papers and prominent representatives of organizations, both secular and social, all over the country are discussing pro and con (mostly con) the written platform adopted by the great Democratic convention at Houston. Why so much concern over this document or fly trap to catch votes? If he is not, then a number of his spokesmen on the rostrum of the great convention hall have grossly misrepresented him, for in their speeches boldly stated to the convention that Smith be nominated would be his own platform. His telegram to the convention after his nomination confirms this statement and is, so far as the writer knows, without precedent in any political party. It was our privilege, through the courtesy of KGW of the Oregonian, to take in the proceedings of this as well as the Kansas City convention. More thoroughly perhaps than hundreds seated in some parts of the great hall, for we had platform privileges, and at intervals two great artists, Graham McNamee and Dave Lawrence, to paint word pictures so vivid and real that we took in the whole show without pass or ticket or thank you, sir.
Now what we want to know is, if the platform is a perambulating affair tucked away under Al's hat and moving around the precincts of Tammany with an occasional trip to Albany, why bother about the written instrument? You may have to go out of your way to get even a glimpse of this last Democratic platform, and it will be hard on some of the boys, for railroad fares cruelly intervene. No magic touch sets them aside, and Republican thievery having gobbled up all the "dough," what is the poor fellow to do? We suggest that Nick Butler form an alliance with Al for the purpose of devising ways and means for getting "the latest" to the faithful as promptly as possible, but pass up the written document as so much worthless paper. Shades of Bryan, protect whatever remains of the faithful.

Banditry Makes Chinese Build Homes Like Forts

FOOCHOW, China, July 4.—(AP)—The scourge of banditry in Fukien province has caused a change in the architecture of the country-side homes of well-to-do Chinese which makes them bear a resemblance to forts.
Houses with no windows and no openings whatever on the ground floor excepting a small and heavily built plated door, and with barred windows on the second floor, are becoming numerous.
Wealth and banditry exist within a short distance of each other, and any time a band of outlaws may sweep down from nearby hills to loot. Watch towers have been erected in some localities, equipped with loopholes for rifles. Every home has its firearms, and a signal from the watchtowers results in the gathering of a considerable fighting force. In one place mounds in a rice field were pointed out to the Associated Press correspondent as graves of bandits who had got the worst of it from the defenders.

Red Cross Praised by Speaker at Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS, July 3.—(AP)—Training for effective citizenship is the chief educational contribution of the Junior Red Cross, H. B. Wilson of Washington, D. C., American director, told the national education association tonight.
Continued effort for establishment of a federal department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet was pledged by the association, which also went on record in favor of increased appropriations for the present bureau of education in the department of the interior.
Dr. Uel W. Lambkin, president of the northwest state teachers college, Maryville, Mo., was assured of the presidency when his name was the only one placed in nomination. H. L. Smith, dean of the school of education, Indiana university, Bloomington, is the only candidate for treasurer, an office he now holds.

Wild Rumors Persist That Amundsen Found

OSLO, Norway, July 3.—(AP)—Despite absence of any confirmation, rumors persisted today that a fishing vessel had found the body of Roald Amundsen. The report first became current yesterday but nothing of it has come to the Norwegian government from any source. However the French consul at Tromsø is making inquiries as the plane in which the noted Norwegian explorer rode when he disappeared was a French naval machine, piloted by Rene Guilbaud.

MEYERS WINS BY K. O. OVER BERCOT

OAKLAND, Cal., July 4.—(AP)—Pete Meyers, 147 1/2, San Francisco, knocked out Don Bercot, 147 1/2, Seattle, in the second round of a scheduled 10 round bout at Oakland auditorium tonight. Meyers floored the Seattle boy three times in the second round with terrific rights to the jaw.
Bercot, however, was not out, but Referee William Brackett ruled that he did not rise within the count of 10. The referee's decision evoked a storm of protest, as most of those around the ring-side figured he was up.

Moving Potsdam Statue Causes Municipal Row

POTSDAM, July 4.—(AP)—What shall we do with "Frederick William?" is the question of the hour.
Frederick William III was the former Kaiser's great-grandfather and his statue stands on the Wilhelmplatz here. There was before the municipal council a scheme to improve this square, but debate on the scheme led to a lively row in the council.
Socialists hotly argued that Frederick William did not deserve a statue, as he had twice broken his royal word.
"Sell him to the highest bidder," shouted one.
"Send him to Doorn," screamed another.
Monarchists countered with shouts of "cads" and "riffians," and then the fight was on. Finally a vote was passed for the improvement scheme, but minus the cost of shifting Frederick William, so anyone wishing to buy a statue probably can have it cheap.

Breton Deputy Wears Picturesque Old Hat

PARIS, July 4.—(AP)—M. Le Peredic's hat is one of the sights of the new chamber of deputies. His colleagues are lost in admiration, if not of his head gear, at least of his courage in clinging to old institutions.
M. Le Peredic is the new deputy from Morbihan, in Brittany, and wears to the house a specimen of the local coiffure, which combines the beauties of the ten gallon brand and the country priest's shovel hat, set off by broad ribbons hanging behind.
The proportions are so generous that it will not go into the locker provided for each individual legislator, and its wearer is obliged to hang it on a peg in the lobby. There is no danger of any fellow deputy taking it by mistake.
