Beck is certain to start the game at Eugene, as Russell has been ill this week. Manager Edwards will take Schenkel along as a relief pitcher.

De Morpurgo and Gaslini, the two who were trimmed in singles today, will play the doubles for Italy against Lott and Hennessey tomorrow it was announced, this decision meaning the shelving of G. de Stefani who is rated on a par with Gaslini in his country's ranking.

PARIS, July 20.—(AP)—Developments in the Tilden case were placed in the background by today's competition but possibilities of Big Bill's restoration to amateur standing in the event the United States reaches the challenge round were discussed in semi-official tennis circles.

The silence of Samuel H. Colom, president of the United States Lawn Tennis association, and Joseph W. Wear, chairman of the Davis Cup committee, gave no foundation for such discussion but it is understood that under-conver moves have been started designed to straighten out the situation and restore Tilden to competition as suddenly as he was removed the day before the inter-zone finals.

A confab of international tennis authorities is expected to take place here tomorrow to decide the next move, assuming the Americans will clinch victory over the Italians.

The reaction over the American veteran's disbarment is strongly in his favor among French tennis followers who are unable to comprehend the action when French tennis players are doing exactly the same newspaper work un molested so far as their amateur standing is concerned.

The popular attitude in Tilden's favor was reflected especially in the spontaneous greeting accorded him on entering the stadium and taking his seat this afternoon.

"I have no addition to make to my statement of yesterday," declared Tilden today.

"Whatever my friends do in their business, I stand in my position. I do not intend to make any move before returning to the United States about the first week in August."

President Colom, when queried with reference to rumors of a new turn in the case, asserted the situation was unchanged but he was ready to act if any new developments warrant.

Mr. Wear said an inquiry by telephone from British officials concerned the status of Tilden because his disputed articles came from Wimbledon.

CHICAGO HI SCHOOL WELCOMES AMELIA

Tribute Paid to Only Woman Who Ever Flew Across Atlantic Ocean

CHICAGO, July 20.—(AP)—Students and alumni of Hyde Park high school today paid tribute to their "most distinguished alumna," Amelia Earhart, the first woman to fly the Atlantic. Their homage was the high point of Chicago's second day of festivities in honor of the crew of the plane "Friendship."

At the close of the day's reception, it was announced that the fliers will tour the east by air.

Miss Earhart, Wilmer Stultz, pilot of the Friendship, Mrs. Stultz, Louis Gordon and his promised bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, the former the backer of the flight, and Major Reed Landis, will hop off at nine o'clock Monday morning for Toledo, Ohio. They will be passengers in a Ford cabin plane carrying mail.

The early evening hours the party devoted to preparations for the wedding of Gordon and Miss Ann Bruce at the Trionan ball room, which was set for late tonight.

Throughout the day Gordon exhibited pronounced nervousness. He was obviously greatly worried by the approach of his marriage. His worry was heightened by the fact that the official program made no provision for an opportunity to see his fiancée.

THE OVERHANGING LIMBS ANNOYING

The Ordinance Calls for Limbs to be Trimmed Eight Feet Above Walks

Addressed to The Statesman and signed by the city park board, by Homer H. Smith, chairman, the following letter was received last evening:

"Considerable complaint has been made to the park board on account of limbs of trees overhanging the sidewalk. This condition is very annoying to pedestrians, particularly when it rains, as the limbs droop still farther."

"The park board would appreciate the co-operation of the public to the extent of having trimmed in front of their property trunks to comply with the city ordinance, which requires a tree to be trimmed eight feet from the sidewalk."

Ought to Be Observed There is no threat in the above, and likely none was intended. Obviously, the members of the park board believe this suggestion will suffice. It should, but it should be generally observed and acted upon.

No property holder who is unselfish ought to want to be the cause of such annoyance. Besides the annoyance to the public, straggling limbs over the sidewalk are unsightly. They detract from the general appearance of what ought to be a beautiful and orderly city.

RASKOB YET BACKS CAMPAIGN BY VETS

Democratic Chief Seeks "Restoration" of Temperate Life in U. S.

NEW YORK, July 20.—(AP)—John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, said at a press conference today that he believed the thinking people of the country should try to work out some scheme "for the restoration of temperate life in America."

He said he had no definite plan in mind and the national committee had no idea of evolving any. "I don't think that's any part of our work in this campaign," he said. "But I sincerely believe that such a plan should be evolved and that it should be adopted only after the most careful consideration so that it would be acceptable and could thus be made workable."

He expressed the opinion that prohibition is one of several rather than the sole vital issue of the campaign, but added that the issues would have to be defined by the candidates and not by the committee.

Legal Fight Looms Up Over Gene's Plane Ride

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Gene Tunney today instructed his New York attorneys to oppose any court move of Tex Rickard to restrain him from flying to the scene of his championship title battle with Tom Heeney next Thursday.

The heavyweight champion is determined to make the flight. "Why," he asked, "should I make a tiresome seven hour railroad trip when I can have a good night's sleep here and then get to New York in two hours by airplane?"

"I have instructed my attorneys to oppose any step Rickard may take in the courts."

The flight plans have been perfected and next Thursday morning, Berni Balchen, expert mechanic and relief pilot on Commander Richard Byrd's trans-Atlantic flight last summer, will fly Tunney to New York.

Balchen will be forced to land and take off from the links of the Hamilton Country club, where the plane that carried Bernard Gimble, James I. Bush, Charles V. Bob and Samuel Pryor, was wrecked on Wednesday. This mishap failed to impress the champion.

It even served to stiffen his determination to fly, though he has been in the air but once, when he flew from Stroudsburg to Philadelphia for his first fight with Jack Dempsey, when he won his title.

SMITH REFUSES TALK FORECAST

PUBLISHED ADVANCE DOPE SAID GUESSWORK

All Major Issues of Campaign to be Discussed, He Tells Newspaper Men

ALBANY, N. Y., July 20.—(AP)—Speculation about what he will emphasize in his forthcoming acceptance speech prompted Governor Smith to declare today that no one except himself knows what he intends to say.

Discrediting published forecasts, the democratic presidential nominee reiterated that he proposed, at the time of his notification next month to discuss all the major issues of the campaign. He also advised newspapermen at his daily conference with them that there was no basis for reports that he intended to subordinate prohibition and farm relief and emphasize in their stead his views for a general reorganization of federal government departments.

"Prohibition and farm relief both will be dealt with extensively," said the governor with a tone of finality. He said he planned to deal "definitely" with all issues, and stated emphatically that nothing that is an issue would be left out.

The nominee already is shaping up his acceptance speech in his mind. He had as an overnight guest at the executive mansion Senator Pittman of Nevada, who was chairman of the committee at the Houston convention and will head the committee

Tunney received the following telegram from Mr. Bob, who is a New York millionaire aviation enthusiast and one of Commander Byrd's financial backers for his coming South Pole expedition: "We will fly to Speculator Wednesday afternoon and fly you back for the flight, leaving Speculator 10 o'clock Thursday morning. We should land at Curtiss Field about 12 o'clock. Will take you direct to your headquarters by motor. Have arranged for two planes in order to take care of any of your associates whom you may wish to fly down at same time. No ill effects to any one from slight accident the other day. We all appreciate the prompt assistance which you gave us and the genuine concern for our welfare."

Rain halted all of Tunney's activities this afternoon. Gene was eager to work out, but a few minutes before he was due in the training ring, decided that it would be too risky to expose himself to the dampness. He recalled that he had suffered lame shoulder shortly before the first Dempsey battle after boxing in the rain.

This interruption forced a change in the champion's plans for the remainder of the training siege. He will work out tomorrow, on Sunday and go through the last one on Monday.

that formally will appraise Smith of his nomination. The visit of the western senator, his second here in a fortnight, afforded Governor Smith and him an opportunity not only to discuss the points emphasized in the democratic platform, but the approaching notification ceremony.

Pittman left at noon for New York and Washington, leaving it to the nominee to determine when the ceremony should take place. Smith said that a date could not be determined until he learned just when a nationwide radio hook-up could be arranged. He indicated that he would reach a decision before the first of the week.

It has been determined to hold the ceremony at night on the east steps of the state capitol. Arrangements are being made to handle a throng in the adjoining park, and Albany officials are predicting a crowd of at least 100,000. In the event of bad weather, it was said today that rather than attempt to postpone the event, Governor Smith might deliver his speech in the relatively small assembly chamber, which would accommodate the notification committee, newspaper correspondents and a limited number of guests only.

The Smith notification is certain to come after that for Herbert Hoover, fixed for August 11 in California.

AMERICANS NOT PLEASED AT CONDITION OF TRACK

AMSTERDAM, July 20.—(AP)—The hopes of the American Olympic track and field team of establishing a new set of Olympic records in this year's games at Amsterdam were dashed to the ground today when Coach Lawson Robertson and his team paid their first visit to the Olympic stadium. The Americans found the stadium track and the runways for the field events in what Robertson termed an "eminently unsatisfactory" condition.

The track built on reclaimed marsh land is soft and spongy and it will be almost impossible to turn in fast performances with such footing.

"Only a miracle can put the track into proper shape for the opening July 29," Coach Robertson told the Associated Press after his first view of it today. "I never have heard of such a situation—Olympic teams arriving daily to find the stadium track in such a hopelessly incomplete condition. It will be a tough job to break any records here."

Robertson visited the stadium this afternoon shortly after the arrival of the President Roosevelt in Amsterdam and spent several hours inspecting the track and conferring with the Dutch officials. The American head coach suggested drastic measures for remedying the condition of the track, one of which was that cement should be mixed with the cinders in an effort to provide a harder surface.

The situation is a result of the natural difficulties encountered by the Dutch engineers in reclaiming marsh land for the site of the Olympic plant. Tens of thousands of piles were sunk in the soft earth and the stadium built on this foundation.
