Thirty-Third Annual Camp Meeting of Church of God in Session

WOODBURN, July 20.—(Special)—Funeral services for William P. Pennebaker were held at the Presbyterian church here Thursday afternoon, Rev. Henry G. Hanson officiating, with interment being made at the Belle Passi cemetery.

Mr. Pennebaker died at his home here early Tuesday evening. He was a native of Jefferson, where he was born October 19, 1860. He came to Woodburn in 1887, seven years later marrying Arnette Belle Broyles, who, with a daughter Willa C. Pennebaker, survives him.

Mr. Pennebaker served two terms as Woodburn postmaster, succeeding the late Walter L. Toose under whom he had worked as assistant. Following his postmastership, Mr. Pennebaker again went into the commission business, which he first entered with Mr. Toose upon coming to Woodburn. He remained in this business several years, then was employed by F. W. Settlemier, in the Woodburn nurseries.

Mr. Pennebaker was a member of the Woodburn camp of the Woodmen of the World. He was a graduate of the University of Oregon.

The thirty-third annual camp meeting of the Church of God opened at the camp grounds here Thursday. Three regular services will be held daily until camp closes July 29. There is to be a children's hour in the morning and a young people's meeting early each evening.

Rev. John T. Myers is in charge of the meetings, which annually attract a large crowd to Woodburn. Not only Oregon but other states of the west are well represented at the camp this year. Total attendance is expected to reach 500.

Dr. Thomas Acheson of Jason Lee Memorial church of Salem will tell of his trip to the general conference at the Sunday evening service of the Woodburn Methodist church. In the morning Dr. A. S. ## SIX IOWA FAMILIES STOP AT AUTO CAMP GROUNDS

The Salem band brought visitors to the city last night. W. R. Davis and family, of Tacoma, who have been on a trip, heard of the Friday night band concert, and drove into the municipal auto camp. There a sign in the office confirmed what they had heard, and they decided to stay.

"We were going to drive on to Portland this evening," said Mr. Davis, "but when we heard of the band concert and the electric fountain, we decided to spend the night." The camp managers reported that large numbers of tourists walk over to the capitol grounds every Tuesday and Friday night for the concerts.

Last night there were six Iowa families in the Salem camp. They were the families of W. M. Clyde and James Tully of Des Moines, J. W. McKinster of Waterloo, C. H. Morrison of Manson and W. A. # FORESTRY WORKERS SHOOT TWO BRUIIS

Mill City Children Examined At Clinic by Demonstration

MILL CITY, July 20.—(Special)—Federal forest service employes working in the vicinity of Detroit have reported all too frequent encounters with members of the bruin families recently. More bears than have been reported about here in some time seem to be roaming about this season, or perhaps it is that the forestry men are seeing the same animals again and again.

The federal employes have recently taken toll of the roamers, and now there are at least two less than before. Mr. Weedie came upon two bears, the mother and cub, as he was traveling through the woods east of Detroit last week. He fired seven shots, and without waiting to investigate the outcome, he hurried to Detroit. Others sought the scene of battle and found a 200-pound bear, which was thought to be the cub.

Roy Elliott, another forest employe, tired of having his camp, located on Little Meadows, 15 miles south west of Detroit, raided by bruins, instigated a battle, with one dead bear the net result.

FRENCH DON'T LIKE NEW TALKING MOVIE

PARIS, July 20.—(AP)—Talking movies have no "artistic destiny" in France. M. Leon Mousinac, one of the foremost French film critics, believes that their importance is "at best, only documentary."

Comedia, principal French newspaper, is making a nation-wide investigation of talking movies. Most of the answers from French critics or technicians are unfavorable. The French think it no more reasonable to add speech to the movies than to sculpture or painting.

"That America has already gone very far in the development of talking-movies is certainly possible, but only so much the worse for American taste," says M. Maurice J. Champel, movie producer of Paris. "I frankly admit that talking-movies have always moved me to laughter, and I hardly think it probable, even after the recent remarks of Mr. Jesse L. Lasky, that this so-called invention is important enough to modify the future of French film production."

K. O. Rue had an accident Wednesday that luckily did not prove as serious as it might have been. He had started cutting grain but seeing some of his pigs in the field he left the binder in gear and taking his whip he started after the pigs. At the sound of the whip the horses started. Frank Egan, hearing the noise, ran to the fence and by shouting turned them so they missed going through the fence. After a long chase they were stopped and while a great deal of damage was done the binder, the gears being stripped, Mr. Rue says he was lucky not to have had the machine spoiled or a horse hurt.
