DONEY BISHOP'S PASTOR, WESLEYAN

Local Minister Greet New Head of Portland Methodist Area

Dr. Carl G. Doney went to Portland Friday to greet Bishop Titus Lowe, recently appointed to the Portland area to succeed Bishop William O. Shepard. Over a score of church officials met Bishop Lowe on Friday and welcomed him to his new field of work. Dr. Doney described him as a pleasant man to meet, and predicts success for his work in the west. But this was not the first time the two men have met. Dr. Doney was his pastor, while he attended Ohio Wesleyan university some 30 years ago, and became well acquainted with him at that time. Bishop Lowe has had a wide experience. He was born in England in 1877 and came to the United States when he was 15 years old. After a time he entered Ohio Wesleyan university and graduated in 1900; two years later he received his master's degree from the same institution. He was ordained for the ministry in 1900, and preached in this country a few years. From 1903 to 1908 he was at Thornburn church in Calcutta, India. Upon returning to this country he held pastorate at several large churches, among them the First Methodist church of Omaha, Nebraska, where he was eminently successful. For the past four years he has been bishop of Malaysia with headquarters at Singapore. Mrs. Lowe and daughter will arrive in Oregon in a few weeks, at which time a reception will be held for them in Portland.
