

Clever Base Running Wins for Senators Against Baker's Pitching

KEBER, BECK STAGE FAST DOUBLE STEAL

All but helpless at bat against the deceptive underhand pitching of Bill Baker, the Salem Senators nevertheless through clever base running, spectacular fielding and Beck's steady work in the box managed to defeat the Eugene ball team at Eugene Sunday, 5 to 2.

The Senators got only five hits and they were scattered, but how they did run bases when they did get a chance. Quinn opened the game by walking and stealing second, going on to third when the ball caromed off Graham's arm. Riddings hit a long sacrifice fly to right field, and Quinn scored. It took no hits at all to get that run.

Then in the third Beck smacked out a three bagger through center field, and this time Quinn was on the job with the sacrifice fly that brought in the run.

The Senators got three hits in the fifth inning, but again base running played a part. Edwards singled and went to second on Beck's single. He scored on the third successive hit, which was a single by Quinn. Quinn went out on Keber's ground ball to Wirth. Beck going to third. Then the two Mt. Angel boys at Edwards' orders engineered as pretty a double steal as has ever been seen over in semi-pro ball.

Keber over in semi-pro ball and Bliss cut darted to second and Bliss cut the ball loose to Graham. There was plenty of time to tag Keber for the third out, which would have spoiled the score; but Keber didn't come in to be tagged, so Graham had to throw home, and he was too late to catch Beck. Speed and a nifty slide also spelled the Senators' last run in the sixth. Sullivan hit a two bagger. After two were out, Gill rapped one down to the first baseman, which he bobbed. The ball bounced over to the shortstop, and he threw to the plate, just too late to catch Sullivan, who had come fearing home from second. Gill rounded second and was caught trying to make it back to that bag.

Eugene scored one in the third when Husband hit a three bagger and came in on Gordon Riddings' two bagger, and got their other run in the fifth when Husband walked, was sacrificed along by Wirth, and came in on another two bagger by Riddings.

Sullivan robbed the home team of a run in the first when with Van Duyn on second, Bliss hit a hot liner down the first base line. It was still rising when it got to Sullivan, but he made a mighty leap and took the ball in the tip of his glove.

Sullivan had pulled another spectacular play in a pinch just before that when he came in on Riddings' bunt, whirled and with

Tunney and Friends All Anticipate Knockout Win

SPECULATOR, N. Y., July 23.—(AP)—Although not over-confident, Gene Tunney believes he has an excellent chance to score a knockout next Thursday night when he defends his heavyweight title against Tom Heenev in the Yankee stadium.

"I feel in better condition for the coming contest than for either of my fights with Jack Dempsey," the champion told the Associated Press today.

"My hands are stronger than they have been in years and this in view of the fact that I am confident that I am punching harder than since I began professional boxing.

"I am not over confident, but I believe I will win and I agree with my many members that if I land a solid punch against the contender—punches such as I have shown in training, that a knockout is likely, I will do my best."

Billy Gibson, the champion's manager, is of the same opinion. "Gene is in the best condition of his entire career," Gibson said. "He is sharp in boxing judgment and he is punching with a viciousness that means business. He does not underestimate the contender as many champions have done, but I will be personally disappointed if Gene does not stop the Britisher."

Tunney today was down to 190 pounds, the weight he will carry into the ring against Heenev. Being right on edge, he spent the day resting up after taking a brief workout on the roads during the morning. His final training session will take place tomorrow afternoon when he goes through his paces before an audience of newspapermen only.

Among the audience were many newspaper experts from Heenev's camp with tales of the Britisher's skill and power. Some of them saw Tunney work out Saturday and they then predicted Heenev had at least an even chance to win.

To a man they reversed their opinions when Tunney showed them the real Tunney. The consensus here tonight is that the champion will successfully retain his title, probably by a knockout during one of the early rounds of the 15 round titlar bout.

Tunney has several reasons to win by a knockout. His personal pride, that he defend the crown as his predecessors—by pounding the challenger senseless. The other reasons are strictly business.

He has signed a contract with Tex Rickard the promoter, for next year which calls for 45 percent of the gate of his next fight and no guarantee. If he fights as though to win the decision he admits that his hold on the public will be weakened and his earning power sharply reduced.

During the day Tunney and every important personage in his entourage were swamped with protests against the champion's plan to fly to New York on the morning of the fight.

Plans to fly the champion to New York on the day of the fight were completed early tonight when Charles V. Bob, New York banker, notified the champion that he would come here Wednesday afternoon in a dual-motored Sikorsky amphibian and land on Lake Pleasant.

The plane will take on Tunney and one other member of his party Thursday morning at 10 o'clock and land them in New York two hours later.

Bill Winston, Curtis field pilot who figured in the plane accident here last week will be at the controls.

The champion said he was positive that no one would interfere with this plan. He wants to fly because it reduced the distance between Speculator and New York from seven to two hours, thereby giving him one last night of sound sleep in congenial surroundings before his battle with Heenev.

CALLAHAN WINS BY KNOCKOUT

CHICAGO, July 23.—(AP)—"Shuffle" Callahan of Chicago won the second fight of his comeback campaign tonight by knocking out Tommy McFarland of Detroit in the first round of their scheduled eight-round bout.

Callahan floored McFarland for the count of nine in the first 30 seconds and ended the go with a left to the jaw when the round was one minute and three seconds old. Callahan weighed 155 pounds, McFarland was three quarters of a pound heavier.

TORONTO, Ont., July 23.—(AP)—Frankie Genaro of New York, successfully defended his national boxing association flyweight crown tonight when he held Steve Rocco, Toronto challenger, to a draw in a fast ten round match.

VANCOUVER ROWERS CARRY OFF HONORS

TOM ALL THROUGH WORKOUT FOR FIGHT

FAIRHAVEN, N. J., July 23.—(AP)—It's all over now but the clouting for Tom Heenev.

The hard rock finished six weeks of training at the Rumson kennel farms today with four rounds of boxing and four rounds of gymnasium work.

After the last glove whizzed through the hot stuffy air of the old barn in which he worked, Heenev considered his training ended. There will be no more boxing. He will not see another glove until he crawls into the ring at the Yankee stadium next Thursday to battle Gene Tunney in quest of the world's heavyweight championship.

Heenev merely breezed through his boxing and did not appear to take it seriously. He worked better than he did yesterday but there was nothing outstanding. He faced James J. Braddock for the first two rounds and then his board of strategy sent Eddie Crozier, a New York 145 pounder, into the ring to speed him up for two rounds.

Crozier appeared timid and afraid that Heenev might accidentally let a punch fly at him. He continually peeked away with long lefts and was always in retreat. Heenev in hot pursuit. Once Heenev nailed him with a left hook, but otherwise he made no serious attempt to cut loose. The New Zealander was in rollicking good humor and laughter at Crozier's desire to keep on going backwards. The crowd roared with the challenger.

Heenev did no road work today. He does not plan to do anything more serious tomorrow than 15 minutes of gymnasium exercise and perhaps a long walk in the cool of the morning. He weighed 200 1/2 pounds before today's workout and will dry out gradually as he brings his weight down to 198 pounds.

Leo P. Flynn, the grey old fox of fistiana, took issue with Jack Dempsey today over Heenev's chances against Tunney. Flynn, who trained Dempsey for his second battle with the champion, unhesitatingly picks Tunney whereas Dempsey yesterday gave Heenev an even chance.

"Tunney will win," Flynn said. "I don't know about him knocking Heenev out."

"Whether you like Tunney or not, you must admit that he is a great fighter, with a good fighting brain. He fights best when he is hurt."

"After seeing this Heenev today, I am convinced that he has all the assets of an honest village blacksmith. He is far inferior to Dempsey as a socker. He is no gamer. Dempsey is twice as fast a hitter."

"If you poke Heenev, he'll take a shot back, leaving himself open for a right under the heart. No matter who you are, if you catch honest punches under the heart, it will slow you up and hurt."

"I rate Tunney as a good right hand hitter. His best blow is a punch under the heart."

If Heenev should defeat Tunney, it would be no surprise to Tom Gibbons, the only man besides Tunney to face Dempsey in a title encounter and to be on his feet at the finish.

Yankee Olympic Stars Do Their Stuff In Earnest

By ALLAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
AMSTERDAM, July 23.—(AP)—Stars of the American track and field brigade flashed their first real return to form since reaching the Olympic battleground in workouts today featured by John Kuck's sensational shot putting, Lloyd Hahn's impressive running and the youthful Wykoff's brilliant spring form.

In a workout on the old stadium turf where the team experienced difficulty in finding suitable training conditions, Kuck beat the world's accepted record with a toss of fifty-one feet, five inches, actual tape measurement, representing one of the best marks the giant Kansan ever has done anywhere. The figure is still several inches short of the best marks turned in by the German, Hirschfeld, but it indicated Kuck is ready to battle all comers.

The other American shot heavers—Herman Brix, Harlow Rothert and Eric Krene, Pacific coast college trio—were not far short of Kuck's performance, all registered at least one putt of between fifty and fifty-one feet in a remarkably consistent team showing.

Hahn, the American 800 and 1500-meter favorite, displayed speed over assorted routes, covering three-quarters of a mile this morning in three minutes, twelve seconds, within striking distance of world's record time, then this afternoon traveling two miles in ten minutes and winding up with a furlong sprint.

The entire American band returned to its floating hotel, the President Roosevelt, tired, hungry and in good spirits after the most strenuous as well as the most satisfactory practice yet experienced. Besides the track and field drill, the marathoners, going, going their own sweat way, suited their individual tastes by romping anywhere from ten to eighteen miles.

The oarsmen indulged in a good workout on the course at Sloten and the divers practiced in the Olympic pool for the first time.

The "Boston Express" told Major-General Douglas MacArthur president of the American Olympic committee, who watched the workout, that he had regained all the weight he lost in the tryouts and two pounds extra and never felt better.

In the sprint workout, Interget centered around the flying Frank Wykoff who practiced starts with Pepe Barrientos, beating the Cuban consistently in quickness and smoothness of getaway.

Wykoff developed a sore leg the first day off the boat but showed not the slightest trace of lameness in today's practice.

Wykoff, Charley Paddock and Charley Borah, California bunk makers, all had been promised a trial on the Olympic stadium track this afternoon, but the workmen were still busy there, forcing a postponement until tomorrow.

Day and night shifts aided by good weather will be necessary to get the oval in shape for the Olympic events opening Sunday.

NO CHANGE APPEARS TO LET TILDEN PLAY

NEW YORK, July 23.—(AP)—United States lawn tennis association officials here today endorsed the action of their president, Samuel H. Colloom, in notifying the French tennis federation that, despite its request that William P. Tilden be allowed to play in the Davis cup challenge round, he will not be reinstated.

The following cablegram signed by the advisory committee of the U. S. L. T. and by its treasurer, Louis J. Carruthers, was sent to the Paris address of President Colloom on receipt of word from him of his action.

"Hearty congratulations on victory over Italian team. Please convey congratulations to individual members our team with expression our full confidence in them. All consulted endorse sentiment and the position expressed in your message to French association that charges against Tilden should stand and agree that he should not be reinstated on team."

Thus apparently the last door was closed on the possibility that Tilden would lead the battle against the French which is to begin next Friday.

PARIS, July 23.—(AP)—Disparagement of Bill Tilden, American eight time tennis champion, continued to be the main subject of conversation for Paris tennis fans as members of the French and United States Davis cup teams practiced for the play to begin Friday.

The French especially are concerned in view of the almost complete collapse of gate receipts for the matches between the United States, without Tilden and Italy, America's action in ruling Tilden out was held to have "taken the life out of the Davis cup challenge round."

George Lott and John Hennessey spent the entire afternoon at Roland Garros stadium practicing as if their very lives depended on the result of the matches. Lott played Vinnie Richards while Hennessey met Tilden. Both of the younger members of the Davis cup team on whose shoulders may rest the entire burden of the challenge round were defeated. "Us professionals must stick together," Richards said jokingly, but this brought no collaborating comment from Tilden.

Francis T. Hunter took a complete rest today after his exhausting match with De Morpurgo yesterday. The Italian baron, settling his hotel bill, remarked: "This is the hardest work I've done in the entire Davis cup matches." This was interpreted to mean that Tilden lost heavily in the inter-zone finals at which the spectators were conspicuous by their absence.
