

"Big Bill" Tilden Returned to Position On American Tennis Team

ANKEE NET STAR TO MEET FRENCH

PARIS, July 25.—(AP)—Big Bill Tilden is going to play against France for the Davis cup for all.

He was reinstated this afternoon just as suddenly as he was asked to a week ago. He was brought back into the fold to ease the French, according to Samuel H. Colloom, president of the United States lawn tennis association, who took personal responsibility for removing the ban which the New York committee imposed.

During the week of banishment, French tennis officials went to United States ambassador Myron Herrick and it was through his importunities that the reinstatement was brought about.

Frenchman Still Peeved

When informed that Tilden was to play, Rene LaCoste, his French rival, said that his decision not to go to the United States to defend his American championship in September would not be affected. LaCoste had announced his decision to default the United States title immediately after the United States lawn tennis association declined to accede to a plea from the French tennis federation that Tilden be allowed to play.

In making his totally unexpected announcement Colloom issued the following statement:

"In response to the most urgent requests of the French lawn tennis federation that we should not deprive French tennis lovers of their opportunity of seeing one of the greatest players in the world in competition, I have decided to assume the responsibility of authorizing Mr. Wear to play Tilden on the Davis cup team."

Tilden Keeps Mumm

Tilden, for his part, would say nothing. Until a late hour to-night he took the position that he had not been officially informed and therefore had nothing to say.

Colloom had more of a smile on his face as he made the announcement than has been observed since his arrival.

People in New York, he said, did not understand the feeling which has arisen in France over Tilden's dishonourment.

Partly this feeling is a sporting one that the French won the Davis cup from the strongest team America could put into the field against them and naturally if they hold it or lose it this week they would like to have it known they again beat or were defeated by the Americans' best, Colloom pointed out.

Money Chief Reason

But there is another aspect of the question, an aspect inseparable from amateur as well as professional sports—money. Especially to care for their first Davis cup crowd the French built a large stadium and without Tilden they certainly would not be able to fill it this year, Colloom said.

The charges formulated against Tilden because of the articles he wrote at Wimbledon, which were the basis of banning him last week, still stand, Colloom said, adding that Tilden will have to answer them when he gets home. Meanwhile, to keep peace in the international family he will be allowed to play.

The lanky American ace went through several hard practice sets this afternoon as did all of the team mates. The four Frenchmen who won the cup also were busy with their racquets on the courts at Auteuil where the challenge round is to start on Friday.

OLD TIME BOXERS GOT SORE FISTS, LITTLE MONEY

DEMPSEY TUNNEY SULLIVAN

Early day boxers fought not only for small sums but they ran the risk of being arrested, for boxing was illegal. Present-day fighters perform under full protection of the law, receiving vast amounts for bouts some of which couldn't have made the preliminary grade in days past. Sullivan, Jeffries, Dempsey and others fought well and earned their money. Champion Tunney will have an opportunity to prove his right to ring glory when he meets Tom Heeny Thursday night.

—Here in brief are the important developments in the case of Bill Tilden who now, in view of the latest turn in events is to play against the French in the challenge round starting Friday.

July 19—Charged with violation amateur-player rule of United States lawn tennis association. In writing about British championship in which he was a competitor, was removed from team by President Samuel H. Colloom following cabled "recommendation" from U. S. L. T. A. officials at home.

July 20—French tennis federation urges U. S. L. T. A. to reinstate Tilden.

Way Out Reserved

July 21—President Colloom understood to have reserved right to nominate Tilden for challenge round on own responsibility as United States winner right to play France by beating Italy straight matches although minus Tilden.

July 23—President Colloom cabled U. S. L. T. A. from London that he had replied to French request that Tilden be allowed to play by saying "Charges must stand." Advisory committee of association cabled endorsement.

July 25—President Colloom announced Tilden will play and says pressure brought to bear by American ambassador to France to bring that about.

ENGLISH SPOILS OPERA

PARIS, July 23.—(AP)—Opera in English is not likely to become popular because Anglo-Saxons resent the romantic phrasing and especially the wearing repetition, says Charles Hackett. "If audiences knew that in the finale of Rigoletto the same words are repeated 28 times," he added, "there might be roars of laughter instead of applause."

Tom Hides Out To Sleep Last Sleep Before Fight

FAIRHAVEN, N. N., July 25.—(AP)—Somewhere in this immediate vicinity, Tom Heeny, confident of victory, piled into bed early tonight for his last sleep before engaging Gene Tunney in his quest of the world's heavyweight championship in the Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

In submitting to the shave, Heeny violated the custom of Jack Dempsey, who used to go into the ring with two or three days growth of whiskers.

EUGENE LAD LEADS QUALIFYING ROUND

PORTLAND, July 25.—(AP)—Dick Near, junior member of the Eugene golf and country club today led a field of more than 100 starters in the qualifying round of the annual Oregon state junior boys' amateur golf tournament, when he traversed the 18 holes of the Tualatin course in 74 strokes. Near shot a 39 going out and cut four strokes off that number on the second nine.

The Portland boys, Tab Boyer and Albert Bohrer, both of Eastmoreland, tied for second medal honors with 77 strokes apiece. Near's low qualifying mark bettered that made in the caddies' division, a section of the tournament introduced today to take care of professional players who had entered unwittingly in the amateur meet.

The low mark in the caddie event was 75. Bruce Beverly of Multnomah making the three-score and 15. Ed Halseth and M. Zimmerman, both of Multnomah, tied for second with 76 strokes. Zimmerman achieved considerable fame a week or so ago when he shattered the Multnomah course record with a brilliant 69.

Charley Paddock Again Protested For Olympics

By ALAN J. GOULD (Associated Press Sports Editor)

AMSTERDAM, July 25.—(AP)—Working out on scattered fronts, the American Olympic forces indulged in one of the most satisfactory sessions yet on a day featured by arrival of some of their foremost rival—the Finn led by peerless Paavo Nurmi—and flattered by unexpected revival of the Charley Paddock case.

The California sprinter who donned his baby blue trunks today at the Hague in a special workout arranged for a small American contingent apparently cannot avoid the spot light. Just when American officials considered his case closed it bobbed up again, this time before an executive group of the international Olympic committee on the initiative of General Kentish, British delegate, and also the Norwegian representative, informally.

It is understood a somewhat heated discussion was aroused over Paddock's status, the latter being defended by the old Yale sprinter, General Charles H. Sherill who is famous as the inventor of the crouching start and is the American member of the committee.

Whatever transpired, however, failed to develop a formal protest or even official consideration of the sprinter's status before the main meeting of the international committee today this body having nothing to do with eligibility affairs, but Kentish nevertheless laid the matter before Edstrom, the Swedish head of the international amateur athletic federation.

Paddock's motion picture activities, which formed the basis of the American probe prior to the team's departure were not the subject of the inquiry by Kentish, who produced clippings from London newspapers dealing with a two-months old radio talk by the sprinter on the 1924 Olympic one hundred meter final.

Misunderstanding over the talk apparently has just been aired in England although it was declared a dead issue by Americans after Paddock flatly denied describing an alleged frame-up on the part of the Yankee finalists to handicap Abrahamson, the British hundred meter winner, with repeated false starts.

Paddock's story is that he discussed on the air how Abrahamson might have been framed, but used it only as an illustration to show the contrast between such methods and the actual sporting start which took place. Jackson Scholes, who was in the same race, finishing second, corroborates Paddock's explanation.

According to Edstrom, the whole matter is somewhat trivial and has not been dignified by being made the subject of a protest and it is unlikely that it will be more than discussed informally by

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia" Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.
