

Lloyd Hahn of U.S. Loses 800 Meter Run to Young British Barrister

DOUGLAS G. A. LOWE LEADS WHOLE FIELD

By ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
OLYMPIC STADIUM, Amsterdam, July 31.—(AP)—Douglas G. A. Lowe, young British barrister, retained the Olympic 800 meter crown this afternoon by outclassing a great field, including the American favorite, Lloyd Hahn, and smashing the Olympic record with the most spectacular performance of the third day of the track and field championships.

What was expected to be the most exciting middle-distance struggle in Olympic history with world's champions and record holders all assembled turned out to be a rout. Lowe came from behind in the last 100 meters to beat his nearest rival, Erik Byleh of Sweden by ten yards, while Hahn after leading almost from the start staggered home fifth, badly whipped.

Hahn Has No Alibi
Hahn, running his own race, had no excuses for writing so badly. The two remaining Americans, Earl Fuller and Ray Watson, were eighth and ninth respectively, bringing up the rear.

Lowe not only dealt another blow to the apparently groggy American runners but his time, 1 minute 51.4 seconds, beat by 1-10 second the former Olympic mark set by Ted Meredith in 1912. The Englishman also shattered precedent by winning the Olympic 800 for the second straight time.

In a day marked altogether by the shattering of three world's records and two Olympic standards, Yankee fortunes again ebbed and flowed. It was not so disastrous as the day before, however, for Hahn's defeat was off-set by a triumph by Ed Hamm in the running broad jump and victory for Little Miss Elizabeth Robinson in the women's 100 meter finals in the world's record time of 12 1-5 seconds.

New Record Set
Hamm wound up the most sensational broad jumping campaign any human kangaroo ever had by adding the world's championship to his national and world record holding honors. His winning leap of 25 feet 4 1/2 inches displayed the Olympic mark set in 1912 by the American A. L. Gutterson and gave the Georgia Tech star possession of all the jumping honors worth mentioning. He out-leaped S. P. Castor, negro rival from Haiti, and his own countryman, Al Bates, who finished third, while the former champion, Dehart Hubbard, failed to reach the finals.

Where the American men sprinters had been falling dismally, Miss Robinson, the only Yankee to reach the women's sprint final, ran a beautiful race to beat two Canadians and one German rival. Bobbed hair flying in the breeze, the Chicago girl sped down the straightaway, flashing a great closing spurt to beat the Canadian favorite Fanny Rosenfeld by two feet.

Polish Girl Wins
It took a world's record dash throw of 39.62 meters by a husky Polish lass, Halina Monopacka, to beat another American feminine star Lillian Copeland who finished second with 37.08 meters.

The 5,000 meter trials, determining 12 competitors for the finals Friday gave two young Boston A. A. stars, Leo Lermond and Macauley Smith, a chance to shine. Lermond uncorking a typical sprint, won the first heat in the day's best time, 15 minutes 2 3-5 seconds. Smith even more spectacularly had the moral satisfaction of leading the great Paavo Nurmi at least for a day.

The American, running third most of the way behind Edwin Wide of Sweden, rushed out in the final lap to win by a big margin. The Scandinavians did not chase him, being satisfied to qualify.

Tanks Lead in Scoring
Although Americans have captured only three of the eight Olympic championships decided thus far, the United States tonight still held a commanding lead in points on the field at Amsterdam, scoring 16 points today under the unofficial scoring system. The United States had rolled up 71 points to 29 for her nearest rival of the moment, Great Britain, who tallied only 10 points today.

Scoring 10 points for first place, five for second, four for third, three for fourth, two for fifth and one for sixth, the standing tonight was:

G. Britain	10	29
Sweden	16	21
Germany	9	18
Canada	10	13
Ireland	10	10
France	4	1
Haiti	0	5
Italy	4	4

American sprinters suffered a set-back in the 200 meter trials when Charley Borah was nosed out for the second qualifying place by Percy Williams, the Canadian youth, on top of his 100 meter triumph yesterday. Helmut Koernig, German ace, captured this heat, equalling the Olympic record of 21 3-5 seconds but it was a real battle. The Canadian just, but he does not choose to walk.

got the width of his chest across the line first.
The other three Americans each came through two heats easily to qualify for the semi-finals tomorrow. Jackson Scholz, the defending champion, and Charley Paddock, won their second trials in similar time of 21 4-5, while Henry Cumming placed second to the German Jacob Schuller in 22 flat in the second heat.

YANK WRESTLERS LOSE 5 TO 1

AMSTERDAM, July 31.—(AP)—Entering the finals of the Olympic wrestling competition with six men surviving, one in every class but the lightweight, the American team emerged tonight with only one title.

The solitary American victory was won by Allie Morrison of the University of Illinois who captured the featherweight championship from Minder of Switzerland in impressive style. Although his opponent put up a desperate battle, Morrison won in two straight bouts, taking the first by decision after an overtime period and the second also by decision.

Morrison whose class limit is 134 pounds entered the final earlier in the day by a decision of Pihlajamaki of Finland.
Tense feeling pervaded the wrestling hall throughout the final bouts and victories over the Americans were immensely popular. Howls of delight greeted every wrestler who gained a hold or a point on the Americans.
When Morrison gained his victory over Minder for the only American title win, an excited

Tex Rickard Lays Plans To Select World Champ

NEW YORK, July 31.—(AP)—Tex Rickard scratched his sparsely thatched pate tonight and tackled the most difficult task he has faced in 25 years of fight promotion—the job of finding a heavyweight champion.

The retirement of Gene Tunney today and selection of the master of Madison Square Garden as one of the trustees with Commissioner William Muldoon of the New York state athletic commission for the new "Muldoon-Tunney" trophy to be awarded the next champion puts the job directly before Tex. A series of heavyweight elimination contests, patterned after the style of the recent series that developed Tom Heeney as Tunney's last challenger, probably will bring out two men the public will be asked to recognize as finalists for the vacant throne.

"Come one, come all, will be the motto," Tex said today, after the retirement of Gene Tunney today and selection of the master of Madison Square Garden as one of the trustees with Commissioner William Muldoon of the New York state athletic commission for the new "Muldoon-Tunney" trophy to be awarded the next champion puts the job directly before Tex. POSTOFFICE ADD 50 FEET SQUARE

According to the plans and specifications now in the hands of Postmaster John J. Farrar, the addition planned for the present postoffice will add approximately 1300 square feet of floor space to the present building. The new structure will be 50 by 50 feet with an 18 foot vestibule and mailing platform and it will extend eastward from the old building. The addition will have six windows on each side and five in the rear and will have three large skylights. These features will make it one of the best lighted buildings in the city and will give the best possible working conditions for the clerks.

SPLIT SEASON FINDS NO FAVOR

LOS ANGELES, July 31.—(AP)—The split season in vogue in the Pacific coast league appears to be an "ill wind that blows no good" or so some of the club owners claim, and there is little doubt but that continuous baseball will be back next year.

Four of the eight clubs in the circuit are opposed to the divided schedule, being tired out this season, and it will not be in effect in 1929. So claims Bill Klepper, owner of the Seattle club, and he openly declares that he is heading the fight to return to the single season.

Klepper reveals that three other northern clubs—Oakland, San Francisco and the Missions—are aligned with him in favor of continuous baseball.

German Gets Formal Invitation to Meeting

BERLIN, July 31.—(AP)—A formal invitation asking foreign Minister Stresemann to attend the signing of the Kellogg outlawry of war pact in Paris was handed to the foreign office yesterday by the French ambassador.

Although the foreign minister is expected to go to Paris, his formal acceptance of the invitation is not likely to be sent to Paris within the next two weeks, when he returns to Berlin after his short holiday.

MORE AIR PILOTS

MEXICO CITY, July 31.—(AP)—Eleven young ladies and more than 500 men have applied for instruction in a proposed school of commercial aviation here. The Mexican Aeronautical association, composed of a group of civilians anxious to encourage commercial flying in Mexico, has announced it will open a school to train pilots as soon as plans can be bought, instructors secured and a field established.
