values at which it is believed such stock would sell if available. CHICAGO GBAIN CHICAGO, July 31 .- (AP) .- Plenty of liveliness but no sensational squeeze in prices marked the wind up today of dealings in July delivery of corn. Owing to sharp differences of opinion between opposing powerful groups of traders, an upswing finish had been looked for, but the visitors in the struggle who were the leaders on the bull side of the market deemed moderation becoming, and kept values from any wild advance. Closing quotations on corn were in regular at 1 1-8c net decline to 4 1-8c gain, wheat 3-8c to 1 7-8c off and butta 1-8@ %c to 6 7-8c down.
