Circus Coming
Highly colored lithographs hang from the store windows, while gay and bright posters adorn the walls, billboards and fences, all proclaiming the coming of Sels-Floto Circus to Salem for afternoon and night exhibitions on Wednesday, Aug. 22. It will be the first big circus of 1928 and it is the only show scheduled for here at present. One of the unusual displays will be Peter Taylor and a mixed group of over 30 African lions and tigers. Taylor's act is said to be the last word in subjugation of jungle-bred beasts. Sels-Floto will show on Athletic Park circus grounds.
