The University of Illinois baseball team, en route to Japan, will arrive in Salem this evening and will play the Salem Senators Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at Oxford Park.

This is expected to be one of the fastest ball games seen in Salem this year and also one of the most interesting due to the fact that the Illinois come from a distant part of the United States and are always among the leaders in the Big Ten conference, although they did not win the championship this year.

Since 1900, when the Western Intercollegiate conference was organized, Illinois has won or tied for 16 baseball championships, obtaining undisputed title 13 times.

The team is coached by Carl Lundgren, former Illinois baseball captain and later pitcher on the Chicago Cubs when they were world champions.

Finn, captain shortstop, is proficient in scholarship as well as athletics, having won the Phi Beta Kappa key and the Illinois conference medal for proficiency in both of these branches of collegiate activity.

AMERICANS WIN WATER EVENTS

Yankee Swimming and Diving Stars Capture Five of Six Firsts

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Climaxing a week of triumph in Amsterdam's spacious pool, aquatic stars of the United States today wonnd up the Olympic water competition with five victories in the final six events on the program.

For the first time since conditions—or lack of them—bit into the supremacy American athletes always have held in the man-to-man phases of the Olympic competition, one section of the Uncle Sam's athletic army lived up to all the nice things that had been said about it before hand. During the week men and women swimmers and divers of the team scored ten first places in sixteen events, piling up a score of 17 1/2 points out of a possible 400.

Worcester Girl Stars
Today it was Johnny Weismuller, fierce-stroking Chicago veteran, and Albina Ostpowich, Worcester girl who is almost a feminine counterpart of the husky midwesterner in action, who shot the stars and stripes highest on the victory flag in the swimming stadium and stamped themselves as the fastest sprinters of their respective sexes.

Weismuller, defending the 100 meter free style championship he won at Paris in 1924, made a show of his field in the final of the sprint classic that was nearly turned into a handicap affair through the titleholder's poor start. The gun for the leapoff caught Johnny unawares and the remainder of the field had a full length start before he could get away.

Terrific Speed Made
Once in the water, Weismuller probably swam the fastest final 75 meters of his career to catch George Kojac, New York schoolboy, at the half way point and forge ahead to an easy victory. In the final surge to the finish line, Barany, the Hungarian, sprinted from the ruck to take second place with Takahashi, of Japan, third.

Kojac, the youngster who set the pace for the first half of the journey, faltered in the last lap and had to be content with fourth place to add to the recordbreaking 100 meter backstroke final he turned in earlier in the week. Walter Lauffer, of Chicago, finished fifth, ahead of Spence, the Canadian and Zorilla, of South America, the newly-crowned 400 meter free style champion.

Olympic Record Tied
Weismuller equalled the Olympic mark he set at 58 5/8 seconds earlier in the competition. It was left to Miss Ostpowich, the powerful New England Miss who swims with the thrashing style of Weismuller, to smash a record, the spring mark for women. Forced to the limit by Eleanor Garatt, of San Rafael, Cal., Miss Ostpowich grabbed the crown by a bare handbreadth at the finish line in one minute, 11 seconds flat.

The new mark clipped a full second and 2/8 from the record Ethel Lettice set in Paris in 1924. Swimming more smoothly and with less effort, Miss Garatt also was under the old record.

Her gallant effort to overhaul the husky winner brought her home in 1:11 1/8.

Detroit Woman Wins
Mrs. Betty Becker Pinkston, of Detroit, beat out her team-mate, Miss Georgia Coleman, of Los Angeles, for the women's high diving championship, with four European rivals trailing several points behind. Mrs. Pinkston scored 23.66 points and Miss Coleman 22.89.

SENATORS WIN FROM BEAVERS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Sacramento defeated Portland again, 3 to 2, making it five straight for the runaway Senators. With two runs needed to tie, the Beavers put on a rally in the ninth which scored one and had runners on second and third with two out, but Whitney struck out in the pinch.

Sacramento 3 8 0
Portland 2 5 1
Virei and Severid; French, Tomlin and Rego.

Angels Take Another
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Los Angeles continued its victorious march against the Hollywood Stars by winning today's free hitting game by the score of 8 to 7, making the fifth straight win for the Angels.

Indians Drop Another
SEATTLE, Aug. 11.—(AP)—An Oakland run in the ninth on Tony Governor's double, Brubaker's punt and Fenton's difficult fly in short right that went for a sacrifice beat Seattle 6 to 5 here today.

Grimes at Best

MANAGER DONIE BUSH has had all kinds of trouble-keeping his Pittsburgh Pirates together this year but his right-hand man, Grimes, the big right-hander, obtained from the Giants in the Vic Aldridge swap, has been consistently at his best for Bush this year. Grimes seems destined to be the first National League hurler to win 30 games this year if he keeps up the pace he has set to date. And his effectiveness seems to be an example for the other players and they're going great now.

GAME AT BEND TODAY CRUCIAL

Willamette Valley League
Bend 4 0 1.000
Salem 2 1 .667
Albany 1 3 .250
Eugene 0 3 .000

Games Today
Salem at Bend.
Eugene at Albany.

Probable lineups today:
Salem: J. Sullivan, 2b; Trummer, ss; Kober, cf; Bentrow, 2b; Ridings, ss; Higbee, cf; W. Sullivan, 1b; Hepthing, 3b; Hank, 3b; Wood, 1b; Olinger, lf; Burdge, lf; Gill, rf; Allen, rf; Edwards, c; Ebanks, c; Beck, p.

Victory in the second half of the Willamette Valley league season will just about be determined today at Bend where the Salem Senators were expected to arrive about midnight last night, having started the trip across the Cascades in automobiles at 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

If Bend wins it can't be robbed of the second half title and although there will be one more game here next Sunday with the Bend Eagles as the Senators' opposition, the only significant games left will be the playoff with Albany for the first half title, and the series in which the winner of that playoff will engage with the Eagles.

Since the Eagles have not been defeated in a league game on their home diamond all season, chances for a Senator victory today are extremely slim. With the lineup shifted to insure greater hitting strength and especially to avoid the presence of too many left handed hitters who would be ineffective against Chinky Covert's portside pitching, the Senators are not expecting an easy day at bat. On the other hand, with a couple of costly experiences behind him, Johnny Beck knows how to pitch in Bend's rarefied atmosphere now, and if he is at his best will not be routed as he was six weeks ago.

The Senators will leave Bend for the return trip shortly after the game ends, so as to get back home and rest a few hours before tackling the fast University of Illinois team here Monday afternoon.

SILVERTON CLUB HAS BIRTHDAY

Celebration of the second anniversary of the establishment of the Silverton Country club today will give members and their friends an interesting round of activity, in which finals in the annual club championship will bring elimination into active contest.

The finalists are Cliff Rue and F. M. Sigmund, who defeated such top-notchers of the club as Jake Werle, Norris Ames, W. L. Cunningham, N. B. Eastman, R. A. Cowden and Dr. Woodmansee. Play will start at 8 o'clock this morning over the first 18, with the last round in the afternoon.

Directors of the club have invited friends of the players and golf fans generally to form the gallery.

Club Two Years Old
Silverton organized its country club two years ago, with M. C. Woodard, H. R. Irish and George W. Hubbs as sponsors. Property totalling 100 acres had been bought in February, 1926, and the course was laid out by Col. A. C. Athbury of Portland. The club was launched with a membership of 25 and construction of the course was started March 1. A committee in charge included H. R. Irish, Dr. R. E. Kleinmorge and George W. Hubbs. First play was in August of the same year.

Irish was the first president and C. A. Reynolds was secretary. The "pioneer" greens committee included Hubbs, P. L. Brown, and A. E. Jans. The first house committee was George W. Steehammer, Dr. Kleinmorge and S. E. Richardson.

Woodard President
M. C. Woodard is president now and greens committee members are A. W. Simmons, H. W. Preston and Floyd Ingram. F. P. Stamey, Dr. C. R. Wilson and Nye O. Bristol are members of the present house committee. In the intervening two years the course has been greatly improved and complete club house facilities have been provided.

Interest in golf has doubled and redoubled at Silverton since organization was completed. Team matches with Woodburn and McMinnville clubs have been halted by Silverton players and Silverton won home and return matches from Forest Hills Country club of Washington county. "Bill" Benham, widely known professional, is charged with the development of several especially clever golfers within the club.

Women's Title at Stake
In connection with the celebration program today the women's championship will be decided between Mrs. W. L. McGinnis and Mrs. Hugh Range, who, as finalists, disqualified such leading players as Mrs. Jack Currie, Mrs. H. W. Preston, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. A. E. Jans, Mrs. A. R. Eastman, Mrs. Roy Pittsgerald and Bettie Kleinmorge. Another interesting round will be played by William McGinnis and Theodore Opsund for the championship of the first flight. Hugh Range will play Joe Dixon for the championship of the second flight.

DISORDER SEEN AT BOXING MEET

Argentina and Argentina Tied for First Place in Olympic Contest

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Amid scenes of wildest disorder the Olympic boxing championship closed tonight with Italy and Argentina tied for the team title.

Italy scored three firsts and one third and Argentina two firsts and two seconds and the Olympic committee declined to award the team championship to either one at the expense of the other. The United States, defending champions, ranked third with two seconds and a third, and Holland was fourth with one first and one third.

In the opinion of ringside experts, Argentina deserved to rank first because of what were termed unfair decisions in two of the final bouts tonight. In the featherweight class, Van Klaveeren, of Holland, was given the decision over Peralta of Argentina, although experts at the ringside considered the Argentine had won decisively. In the finals of the lightweight division, Italy, represented by Orlandi, gained one of its first places although most observers thought Stephen Holalko of Auburn, N. Y., should have been adjudged the winner.

The boxing competition, from the time it started, was marked by wild outbursts of displeasure from fans who disagreed with the verdicts of the judges. The final day of the championships, however, eclipsed all the others in length and vehemence of the protests. At times the referees were unable to make themselves heard. Flat fights ensued on several occasions as rooters of various nationalities championed the cause of their compatriots but Dutch police always were on hand.

Geologists think England is tilting. They say that while the north and west are slowly rising, the south and east are sinking.

Under the new voting bill, which gives equal franchise to men and women of England, the latter will outnumber the men by more than two million.
