Roberti Gets Verdict on Foul CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

15,000 Fans At Brooklyn Ball Field Register Their Disapproval

By EDWARD J. NEIL Associated Press Sports Writer BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 15-(AP) .- One careless left swing to the body, landing deep in foul territory below the broad waist of huge Roberto Roberti, tonight cost rubbery Johnny Risko as many defeats as he gathered in Tex Rickard's entire heavyweight elimination series.

That one punch, landing in the giant Italian's groin after one minute and 39 seconds of fighting in the sixth round of the first of Humbert J. Fugazy's new elimination series, sent Roberti writhing to the floor, unconscious, but victor over the Cleveland giantkiller on a foul.

Risko Far Outweighed "Trouble Roberti," scaling 221 pounds to a meager 187 for the durable Bohemian was the first of the man-mountains that have come along in Risko's career and passed by with their shields, rathmargin in three of the five full

The wildest sort of controversy greeted the verdict. For a full five minutes after Roberti, groaning in pain, was lifted over the ropes and carried to his dressing room, the crowd of more than 15,000 in the National league ball yard stood and registered its disapproval in a storm of boos and hisses that rolled back and forth across the field.

Seems O. K. to Fans To many of the ring siders appeared that Risko, solving the giant Italian's attack to a nicety and shaking him up constantly with sweeping hooks to the head had smashed his left hand full is the pit of Roberti's stomach a the massive fellow bounded in from the ropes. The Italian floundered to the floor, seemingly unconscious, and made no attempt to claim foul until the referee awarded him the victory. Then
