

Green Vegetables Sold At Reasonable Prices In Salem Markets Just Now

Green peas have come back to the market, with large quantities offered at 10 cents a pound retail. There are plenty of local green beans, some large and some smaller, at five cents a pound.

Local green corn, both the yellow and white varieties, is now practically at an end. Portland, however, is still shipping a good quality, although at an advance in price over that for which the local crops have been selling. Price on the Portland is expected to reach $2 a sack of six dozen ears next week.

Artichokes Sold
There is a limited supply of imported artichokes, of medium size and good quality, at $1.40 a dozen.

California sweet potatoes have taken a slump, with an extra fancy grade now being billed at around 10 cents a pound. For the most part these are small potatoes, but are firm and solid.

Yakima is shipping a fine variety of egg plant, at around 10 cents per pound.

Idaho rural spuds are being supplied to many stores, and are said to be of good grade. These are billed at two cents.

The Dalles cucumbers, in peach boxes, are quoted at 30 cents a box. These are the larger sizes, and sell in the stores for five cents apiece.

Tomatoes Plentiful
Yakima and Roseburg tomatoes have replaced all others on the local markets, selling in the stores for three pounds for a quarter. Some are soft, some are too hard, and few of them seem to have a real tomato taste.

Walla Walla onions have taken a sharp advance, now quoted at two cents, with a higher figure in sight.

Local green peppers of exceptionally fine quality, judging from appearance, are quoted at reasonable prices for this season, with $1 for the peach boxes, many of which look too old to make satisfactory pickles, are quite plentiful, with 7, 5, and 3 cents prevailing quotations on the 1, 2, and 3 sizes, respectively. Dill weed bears an 80 cents per dozen label at the wholesale houses. Spinach, good quality, packed in orange boxes, brings $1.40 per box.

California Lettuce
The Washington head lettuce has blown up, with the result that local jobbers are again handling that from the Salinas, Cal. district. Quality of the southern lettuce is good, with firm, solid heads. The heads are good size, and retail at about 10 cents.

Cabbage, small and medium heads but of good quality and solid, are plentiful at 4 cents a pound from the stores.

Seattle and Tacoma cauliflower, is quoted at $2 per crate on the top variety.

The Marblehead squash has been imported to add to the three varieties of local squash now on the market here. Local varieties are Crookneck, Summer and Italian, all of which are the smaller sizes. Squash quotations range from three to four cents per pound.

Tested Recipe August Sherbet Is Easily Made

The following recipe for August sherbet has been carefully tested and will prove a delicious addition to the warm weather menu:

Two cups sugar, two cups water, two oranges, two lemons, one pineapple, two bananas and the whites of two eggs.

Boil sugar and water five minutes; cool; add pulp and juice of oranges, juice of lemons, finely-chopped pineapple and bananas rubbed through a sieve. Freeze to a mush; add egg-whites beaten stiff and continue freezing.

LOCAL MELONS IN MARKET NOW

Cantaloupes, Honeydews and Watermelons Sold At Fair Prices

Local muskmelons have been on the market here for several days now, and have been instrumental in bringing down the price on all cantaloupes, five cents now being sufficient money to buy a fair sized melon of good quality. Wholesale prices are quoted 3 1/2 cents a pound on the locals however many of the stores buy direct from the grower and can sell under this figure.

Yakima is shipping Rocky Ford cantaloupes, jobbers quoting these at from $1.50 to $2.25 per crate, according to size.

There are more casabas than ever on the market, but demand is holding up well, and the same price has been in effect for several weeks now.

Watermelons continue to be offered in large quantities, with the figure of 2 1/2 cents prevailing at several stores. In a place or two, watermelons are commanding as much as a cent higher.

Other melons offered are the Persian and honeydew, both at 6 cents per pound wholesale and similar to each other. The ice cream melon is also still holding its own on the market.

Thesis Written By Educator On School Problem

"A Survey of Woodburn High School" is the title of a thesis just submitted by Superintendent Verne D. Bain of Woodburn, who is a candidate for the master's degree in education at the University of Oregon. Mr. Bain made a thorough study of school conditions in his home city preparatory to writing the thesis. Material collected in this study and others of the same nature, will be used by the education department at Eugene.

Mr. Bain goes to Eugene next Thursday for his final oral and written examinations before receiving the master's degree. He received his B. A. degree from Willamette university in 1923.

Household Suggestions

Frozen Apple Sauce
As a dessert for summer, try frozen apple sauce served with squares of sponge cake.

Storing Metal Slippers
Keep your gilt and silver slippers in black wrapping paper when not in use, and they will not tarnish.

Helps Pie Crust
A teaspoonful of vinegar added to the pie crust as you mix it will make it light and flaky.

To Clean Brass
There is no finer cleaning agent for brass than salt and lemon juice, or salt and vinegar.

Scouring Knives
To scour steel knife blades, use a piece of raw potato. Or use a cork, dipped in scouring powder.

Polishing Aluminum
Steel wool and pure white soap will polish aluminum. Lemon juice will remove dark spots and discolorations.

If Icing Runs
Sprinkle the top of a cake with cornstarch after it is baked and before you spread on the icing. This will prevent the icing from running.

Thin Whipping Cream
Add the unbeaten white of an egg to cream that is too thin to whip, and you will have a thick, creamy consistency in no time.

When Poaching Eggs
If you will add a teaspoonful of vinegar to the water in which you poach eggs, the whites will not spread.

To Sharpen Needles
A blunted needle can be quickly sharpened and made available for service by stitching for a few inches through a piece of fine sandpaper.

Reconditioning Flowers
When the cut flowers will prematurely, put a few drops of vinegar in the water; or a little salt is effective, or an aspirin tablet.

ELSINORE HAS FAMED FOLLIES

Fanchon-Marco "Spangles" Is Exact Duplication of Parisian Show

The Follies Bergere—Paris' most gorgeous stage spectacle and the acme of all stage productions—no longer must one journey to far away Paris to see its wonders. Next week Fanchon and Marco are bringing to the Elsinore theater patrons their "Spangles" idea, a faithful reproduction of the most colorful scene in this year's Follies.

Never before has the Elsinore theater here presented such a gorgeous stage production.

Photographic beauty, as well as feminine beauty of fifty-odd girls and Billy Dove, the screen's most beautiful star, supplements the attractiveness of "The Heart of a Follies Girl" coming next Sunday to the Elsinore theater.

James Hall, Paramount featured player was an all-around athlete at Dallas high school. In "The Fifty-Fifty Girl," he is featured opposite Bebe Daniels at the Oregon theatre, starting Saturday for three days.

Thrills galore are in store for patrons of the Elsinore theater with the showing of "Coney Island" at the Elsinore Saturday.

Hoover Not Put Out of College

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Alan Hoover son of the republican presidential nominee, tonight set at rest all rumors that he was expelled from Stanford, for leaving the university to attend the republican convention to see his father nominated for president. He stated that he took proper steps before leaving school, and that he would be back for the fall quarter starting October 1.
