

Local News Briefs

Hewitts at McMinnville—Dean Roy Hewitt of Willamette university law school was in McMinnville yesterday on business.

Nurse Returns—Miss Margaret McAlpine, nurse at the county health demonstration, has returned from a month's vacation spent in San Francisco.

Brooks Teacher Here—Letta Wallace, who will teach at the Brooks school this year, was a visitor at the county superintendent's office Monday.

Former Student Visits—The Rev. Cecil Pook of Monmouth and pastor at Donald called at Kimball School of Theology yesterday. He attended Kimball college last year.

Returns From Outing—Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bean returned Monday from a two weeks' vacation spent at Mid-way springs, in Umatilla county about 60 miles south of Pendleton.

Week-End at Cascadia—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohrnstedt and daughter Miss Alberta and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bohrnstedt of Long Beach, Calif., and Earl Pemberton spent Sunday at Cascadia.

Returns to South—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bohrnstedt, who have been here for about a month visiting at the home of his brother, A. C. Bohrnstedt, started Monday on the return trip to their home in Long Beach, California.

Minor Operation—Mrs. Henry Isherwood who resides on Laurel avenue and mother of S. H. Isherwood, member of the Parish Junior high faculty, submitted to a minor operation at a local hospital Monday morning.

New "Y" Worker—Kernan Markuson, newly appointed physical director at the Salem Y. M. C. A. took up his work yesterday. Mr. Markuson succeeds Robert R. Boardman, who leaves this week for Portland.

Eikers at Coast—P. A. Eiker, of the Eiker auto company, and Mrs. Eiker and daughter Vivian are spending several days at Hall's cottages, Cutler City. Eiker hopes to catch at least one good salmon before he returns to Salem.

Has "Flu" Attack—James Ellis, "makeup" man on the New Oregon Statesman, is confined to his parent's home in McMinnville this week by an attack of influenza. He went to the city yesterday and was unable to return to this city because of a severe fever.

Board Meeting—Because City Superintendent Hug is out of town, about the only business that will be transacted by the school board at its regular bi-monthly meeting this evening will be action upon bills. There will be one more regular meeting before school opens, September 24.

Editor in Town—H. D. Mars, editor of the Jefferson Review, was a business caller in this city yesterday. For the last eight years Mr. Mars has owned and operated the Review which recently made a forward step by moving into a new building built for the Review and another tenant.

Professor Returns—Professor E. C. Richards of the English department of Willamette university and Mrs. Richards returned Sunday night from a four weeks' trip to southern California. Professor and Mrs. Richards were as far south as the mission San Juan Capistrano, and visited several cities in the southern part of the state.

Pratt in Town—Carol Pratt, manager of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity last year at Willamette university, is in town this week making necessary repairs and arrangements in the fraternity property preparatory to the opening of school next week. Pratt's home is in Portland. He will be senior in Willamette during the next school year.

Taking Vacation—Miss Ella Howard, a member of The New Oregon Statesman advertising department, is on a vacation. Her parents whose home is at Yamhill which she will make with her hill. Miss Howard will be a sophomore at Willamette this year. She has had two years experience in advertising work and has been busy each day since university closed this spring.

Attend Missionary Meet—Several Salem women will go to Portland today to attend a meeting of the executive board of the Women's Home Missionary society at the Oregon conference of the Methodist church. Mrs. John M. Canse of Salem is corresponding secretary of the board. Besides Mrs. Canse, those making the trip will include Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mrs. A. Underhill and Mrs. S. Hisey.

Back From Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baker and family are home after a vacation spent in Washington and Oregon. During the first part of their vacation a trip was made to Mt. Rainier in Washington and upon the return the party ferried across the Columbia at Longview and motored to Seaside from there going down the Roosevelt highway as far as Newport. Mr. Baker up to August 1 was foreman of The World Publishing Co. His plans are not certain for the future although he has several openings he is now considering.

Get Vancouver License—A marriage license has been issued at Vancouver, Wash., to Howard R. Burgess, 21, and Harriet E. Mize, 18, both of Salem.

From McAlpin—James Gilham, clerk of the McAlpin school district, called at the county superintendent's office yesterday for the district's record books.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rigdon—Invite their friends today between the hours of 3 and 5 and 8 and 10 o'clock to their 50th wedding anniversary.

Goodwin Released—H. S. Goodwin, who has been held in the county jail for several days on a charge of writing a check without having sufficient funds in the bank to cover it, was Saturday released on bail.

Kiwians to Report—How they won the 1928 convention against Victoria's spirited opposition, will be told by members of the Salem Kiwanis club who attended the Aberdeen meeting last week, at today's luncheon.

To Leave Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brownlee will leave Salem shortly to make their home in Hastings, Neb. About a year ago Mr. Brownlee disposed of his farm near here for Nebraska property, and it is to look after this that they are leaving.

At Cutler City—Mr. and Mrs. K. Burgard Kugel have been spending a few days at their cottage at Cutler City, on the Silette bay. Mr. Kugel returned to Salem this first of the week, Mrs. Kugel remaining there until after Labor Day.

Bishop Will Visit—Bishop Lowe of the Portland area of the Methodist church will visit the Kimball school at Theology tomorrow. Kimball college is the only theological school in his area. Bishop Lowe will be accompanied by Mrs. Lowe and Miss Jane Lowe.

Must File Credentials—The county superintendent's office calls attention to the fact that all teachers who expect to teach in the Marion county schools this year must file, before their school starts, the required credentials at the county office. There are a number of teachers who have not yet complied with this ruling.

Dr. Warner Honored—Dr. Estella Ford Warner, supervisor of medical service with the county child health demonstration, has received word that she has been appointed a member of the national legislative committee of the Y. W. C. A. The appointment came as a surprise to Dr. Warner. She is the only Oregon representative on the committee, each state having but one member.

Teacher Resigns—The resignation of Miss Audrey McCune, teacher in the fifth grade at Grant school, was received at the city superintendent's office yesterday. Miss McCune had taught here but one year. Her home is in Bend. She stated in her letter asking to be released that she expected to resume her former occupation, accountant. No action will be taken on the resignation at tonight's school board meeting as Superintendent George Hug is out of town.

Group at Oswego Lake—A group, mostly from the clerical staff of the county health center, motored to Portland early Sunday morning to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kehrl at Oswego lake. Those who went were: Miss Lottie Peterson, Miss Mildred Ihrig and her mother, Mrs. G. W. Ihrig of Modesto, Calif., Miss Zella Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, Miss Esther Diefenbach, Miss Hulda Roth, Miss Elaine Schultz, Miss Ethel Milburn and Robert Elstrom.

At Outler City—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox are enjoying an outing at Cutler City.

Recklessness Charged—Wesley A. Klemmka was arrested Sunday night by a city traffic officer on a charge of recklessness driving.

Recorder Officials—Richard B. Armstrong and Melissa Burlingham were married Monday afternoon by City Recorder Poulsen.

Ellis Fined $20—Wesley Ellis, arrested Sunday morning on a charge of drunkenness, was fined $20 in police court Monday.

Claimed Drunk—John Williams whose address was given as the Commercial hotel, was arrested Sunday night on a charge of drunkenness.

Stolen Car Found—The automobile belonging to W. R. Moody of Silverton, reported Saturday night as stolen in Salem, was found on Riverside drive Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rigdon—Invite their friends today between the hours of 3 and 5 and 8 and 10 o'clock to their 50th wedding anniversary.

Teachers in Town—Mrs. Lillian Poyner and Mrs. Mabel G. Boyington, teachers at the Mehama school, were Salem visitors yesterday.

Returns from Yachats—Mrs. Josephine Applegate, 1255 Broadway streets who has been spending a month at Yachats, has returned to her home here.

Moons Here—Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Moon, until recently in the jewelry business in Salem, have returned from a trip south and will spend a few days here. They are stopping at the Senator.

Mrs. Grier at Taft—Mrs. W. T. Grier and two children of West Salem are in Taft, where they are occupying the new cottage which they have just completed on the hill above Taft, overlooking the ocean.

Returns to Demonstration—Miss Elizabeth Freeman returned to duty at the Marion county child health demonstration Monday after spending a month's vacation with friends at various points in Oregon and Washington. She is a member of the nursing staff.

Badorf Fined—Wilfred Badorf of Portland was fined $5 in municipal court Monday for usurping the right of way while driving his automobile on the streets of Salem, a charge on which he was arrested Sunday night.

Prepare School Supplies—The county superintendent's office is busy getting supplies ready to send to the schools of the county. These will be sent immediately and include monthly report blanks, study outlines, calendar cards and other teachers' papers.

Return From Coast—Miss Anona Welch, who acts as clerk of Salem justice court, and her sister Miss Elizabeth Welch, returned Monday from a two weeks' vacation at Newport. Miss Elizabeth Welch is secretary for Carl Pope, local attorney.

Directors Meet—Last night the directors of the Salem playgrounds met at the Y. M. C. A. to discuss plans for the activities of this week. The playground season ends on Friday afternoon. Individual grounds will have no inter-playground program of races, stunts and contests of various sorts.

From Rock Point—Norris Hunt and C. P. Darst, members of the board of directors of the Rock Point school, district No. 29, were in Salem yesterday to confer with County School Superintendent Fulkerson concerning the new school building in their district. Work has already started on the one-room structure. The school will cost approximately $3,400. A Mr. Lambert has the contract.

Pair Taken South—H. M. Turnan, deputy sheriff from Eureka, California, left here Saturday with J. D. Wunderlich, formerly an inmate of the Oregon state insane asylum, and Cecil Hand, who had been held for Turnan at St. Helens. Both were wanted in Eureka to answer bad check charges. Shortly after the trio had left here, however, some $140 was wired to Hand in care of Sheriff Bowers, the amount being enough to cover the bad paper that Hand had passed in Eureka. Bower immediately wired to Eugene and stopped Turnan and his charges there. Upon payment of the money Turnan, Hand was released. Turnan took Wunderlich on south with him.

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT LOCAL OR EASTERN RAILROAD TRIPS PHONE 727 Oregon Electric Ry. Willamette Valley Line

DOG HOTEL Give your dog a vacation too. Leave him with us. Petland Boarding Kennels E. B. FLAKE, Prop. Pacific Highway 1/2 mile North of Salem

$495 FINE TOUGHEST reading lenses. We insure your glasses against breakage. Thompson-Glutz Optical Co. 119 N. Comm' 94

MT. CREST ABBEY MAUSOLEUM VAULT ENTOMBMENT LLOYD T. RIGDON, Mgr.

WHI Visit Footland—J. H. Maden, manager of the F. W. Pettijohn company, will go to Footland today on a business trip.

Swope Here—J. W. Swope, Eugene contractor whose company is constructing the new nurses' home here, is in Salem, registered at the Marion.

At Local Hospital—Charley Riche of Salem route seven and Oscar McAllister of Salem have entered the Deaconess hospital for medical care.

Craven Arrested—L. E. Craven was arrested Monday evening and is being held in the city jail for investigation of the ownership of articles found in his automobile.

Son Born Here—A son, and the second child, was born Sunday noon at the Deaconess to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Linhart, 1785 Berry street.

Boy is Born—A seven and a half pound boy was born Sunday evening at the Bungalow Maternity hospital to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Earle. Earle is one of the South Commercial street barbers.

Dairy Records Name—A certificate of assumed business name was filed with the Marion county clerk yesterday by the Sunshine Dairy Farm, which is being established near the Liberty school south of Salem.

Last Concert Tonight—The final band concert of the season will be held tonight at Willson Park, with an all-request program scheduled, according to Director Steelhammer. Oscar B. Gingrich will sing.

Wed 50 Years—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rigdon have issued an open invitation to all their friends to come between 3 and 5 o'clock this afternoon and 8 and 10 o'clock this evening for their 50th wedding anniversary.

Discharge Recorded—Clay C. Toothach yesterday filed with the Marion county clerk his discharge from the United States Marine Corps. He enlisted January 2, 1918, and served for three years.

Watt Estate $6550—Inventory and appraisal in the matter of the estate of the late Elizabeth P. Watt, filed in probate yesterday, gives the total value of the estate as $6550. Appraisers are W. T. Rigdon, Dave Drager and U. G. Boyer.

Two Marriage Licenses—Wedding licenses were issued to two couples at the office of the Marion county clerk yesterday. Richard B. Armstrong, 29 of 432 Marion street, took out a license to wed Melissa Burlingham, 33, of the same address. The marriage took place yesterday. Harry B. Ford, 25, of Cambridge, Idaho, was given a license to marry Lucille Farrens, 21, of 700 South Water street, Silverton.

Court Business Slack—Less business was transacted in circuit court here yesterday than any day in many years, it was declared by deputies at the county clerk's office. No paper of any kind was filed in circuit court until 4:55 p. m. or five minutes before closing time. A notice of appeal was then brought in in the case of Charles A. Johnson vs. F. O. Johnson. Johnson being now dead, the suit is being carried on in his behalf by Jacob J. Johnson.

Isle From Albany—A. Liale of Albany is a Salem business visitor.

Travels by Proxy—Recorder Poulsen has received an unusual letter from Miss Harriett Gontrom of Baltimore, Md., asking that the Salem official describe this city in a return letter; tell what it looks like, where all the principal points of interest are located, and give a lot of other information. Miss Gontrom would like to travel, she explains, but is unable to do so and therefore is taking this means of gratifying her curiosity about distant places.

FIND IT HERE

Dollar Dinner—Every night 5:30 to 8 at the Marion hotel.

Last Week—Of C. A. Luthy's Jewelry Auction Sale.

Old Time Dance Crystal Garden—Every Wednesday and Saturday night.

Picnic at Riverdale Park—Labor Day. Swimming and diving contests.

Furniture Upholsterers—And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Co.

Why Not Go Out to Woodland—Park—and picnic. The park is beautiful and the water fine.

Doors $1.75 Each—Glass doors $3.50. Sash 50c up. Be Alley-Wise. See Building Supply Co. in alley back of Ladd & Bush Bank. Phone 487.

Lady Without Family—Wanted to manage small hotel. Fair salary; apartment furnished. Address, 4042, Statesman.

Salem Junior Band—Now being organized. All boys between 8 and 12 years who play band instruments and those who would like to play, register with Mr. Sherman at Sherman Clay & Co., 137 S. High St.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT The following is the official publication of the record of claims before the Marion county commissioners court for the August term, 1928, with the amount allowed, bills continued, etc., according to the records in the office of the county clerk.

ROADS AND HIGHWAYS FUND Road District No. 2

Alberts, Elmer R., working with Fresno, $ 47.92

Albers, William F., working with Fresno, 47.92

Braden, Len, working with Fresno, 47.92

Dimmick, Geo., plowing, 47.92

Jackson, J. R., plowing, 56.90

Jones, Clyde, clearing right of way, 7.17

Mignot, Florence A., clearing right of way, 19.14

Mitchell, Jess, powder, 6.00

Moscow, J. C., lumber, 10.00

Newton, C. J., grubbing, etc., 41.47

Newton, Clifford, clearing right of way, 12.78

Platz, James, grubbing, etc., 36.68

Scholl, J. & Son, fuel, etc., 11.00

Scholl, H. P., repairing plow, etc., 9.30

Stoffler, John, clearing right of way, 38.23

Uppendahl, Will, powder, etc., 4.00

Zeek, Geo., grubbing, etc., 22.23

Table listing various contractors and their services, including clearing, grading, and construction work. Includes names like Sturgis, Harry, Hoover, C. A., Punsel, W. F., etc.

BOYS! Here's a Special Vacation-End Surprise Party For Every Boy in Salem, Between 11 and 15 Years of Age. Free Ice Cream and an opportunity for you to earn money and prizes advertising the new clubbing offer of The Oregon Statesman and Portland Telegram. 9 O'Clock Tuesday Morning. Be at the New Building of the Western Dairy Products Co. 920 So. Commercial Street. At 9 A. M. to receive Free Ice Cream. Be On Time.

John J. Rottle 415 State St. Expert Shoe Fitter WALK-OVER AND CANTILEVER FOOTWEAR

HILL Military ACADEMY TRAINS FOR CHARACTER A non-sectarian boarding and day school for boys. High scholastic standard. Home-like atmosphere; aviation; athletics. Send for catalog. Portland, Oregon

Office Phone 125. Res. 2061 Dr. F. Don Baylor Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon. General Surgery and Obstetrics. Offices 304 Oregon Bldg.

ELECTRIC MOTORS Rewound and Repaired, New or Used Motors

VIBBERT & TODD Electrical 181 South High Tel. 2112

LADD & BUSH, Bankers Established 1863 GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

CLOUGH-HUSTON Co. Truly Distinct Finer Service 1200