— a new floor like this! —

...we lay it without bother or upset—

No matter how cleverly you plan this Fall, you can't do much with those rooms that have dull, splintered, lifeless floors.

But why worry when you can hide the old floors with a new floor of gay color and charm? The procedure is simple: Drop in here any day this week. Look around. Take your time. Armstrong's Linoleum, choose from our complete selection of the color and pattern that suit your room.

And then? That's about all. Just tell us when you want the floor laid. Measuring, cutting, fitting—laying over soft builders' felt—we take care of all the details.

And here's a point worth considering. We won't have to turn your house upside down—or keep it in disorder a week—to install your new Armstrong Floors. A n y average-sized room can be laid in one day's time or less. No upsetting, no bother to you. And it's not at all expensive.
