ournament on T. Suffern Tailer's private golf course, ocean links. Von Elm equaled the course scord for nine holes with a 32 d broke the record for 18 holes 10; Los Angeles 2. with a 65.

Because of the rain there was ne play this morning and only 18 medal play and 36 holes will be played tomorrow and 18 Wednesday morning.

Max Marsten scored a 69 while the other scores were: Roland MacKenzie 71; Jess Sweetser 72; D. Clark Corkran 72; Harrison Johnson and Richard A. Jones, Jr. 73; Watts Gunn, Francis Ouimet and Jess Giulford, 74; Estace Storey, 75; Maurice McCarthy, 76; Eddie Driggs, 77; John Anderson and Tommy Tailer, Jr., both 78.

Denny Heenan's timely two bagger in the ninth inning after Olinger had singled, and a perfectly executed squeeze play with Leo Edwards at bat, the winning play that didn't work in a similar situation a week earlier gave the Salem Senators a clean sweep over Albany in the three game series for the first half Willamette Valley league championship here Monday. The Senators won Albany 16 to 11 in a wild slug- and the second, 8 to 2. ging contest.
