Younger Set Guests At Party

ONE of the most delightful affairs given in vacation months for members of the younger set was the charming bridge luncheon for which Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Ellen Hempenway were hostess Friday afternoon at the Elks club.

The dining room and luncheon tables were lovely with asters, gladioli and michaelmas daisies in shades of lavender and rose.

Covers were placed for Miss Marjorie Marcus, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Virginia Page, Miss Esther Wood, Miss Yvonne Smith, Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Eleanor Wright, Miss Margaret Wagner, Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Gretchen Thielson, Miss Julia Creech, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Isobel George, Miss Virginia Berger, Miss Blaine Cuyper, Miss Margaret Engle, Miss Katherine Laughridge, Miss Katherine Goulet, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss Virginia Sisson, Miss Gertrude Winslow, Miss Bertha Habcock, Miss Catherine Corey, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, Miss Rutheda Hoffnall, Miss Evelyn Ross, Miss Helen Darby, and the hostesses, Miss Moore and Miss Hempenway.

Bridge was enjoyed for several hours following the luncheon. Miss Katherine Laughridge won the first prize for high score honors and Miss Isobel George received the second award.

Eastern Wedding Of Interest Here

SALEM friends will be interested in the marriage of Miss Miriam Beesley of Del Rey, Illinois and Mr. Harold De Vries of Salem, Oregon which took place Wednesday, August 29, at the Del Rey Methodist church, with the Rev. John T. Killip, officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Charles Beesley, wore a white satin gown and carried a shower of bride's roses.

Miss Lucille Curphey of Onarga, Illinois was the bride's only attendant. Chancy Earl Beesley acted as best man.

Mrs. DeVries is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beesley of Del Rey, Illinois. She attended the Del Rey schools and is a graduate of Oregon Normal School, Moamouth.

Guests in attendance at the wedding included Mr. Jack Sauter of Chicago, Illinois; Mr. Dan B. Schoff of Salem, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. William Scott and Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of St. Cloud, Minnesota; and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Flanigan, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. De Vries left after the service for Salem, Oregon where they will make their future home.

Christmas Gifts to Be Sent to Soldiers

Miss Jane Doyle, executive secretary of the Portland chapter of the American Red Cross association, has asked Salem War Mothers to make up bags of Christmas gifts for our soldiers and sailors in foreign countries.

Knives, pocket combs, shaving cream, razors, pencils, or any other small articles will be welcomed as contributions. The articles will be packed by the local Mothers and sent to the Portland headquarters.

Those wishing to make contributions may leave them at the Gray Belle, the Spa, or with Mrs. J. A. Bernardi, 458 South High street.

Miss Alice Brown Returning to East

Miss Alice Brown who has spent the greater part of the summer in Salem as the house guest of Miss Sallie Bush and the Misses Eugenia and Charlotte Zieher is leaving tomorrow for her home in Westfield Massachusetts.

MRS. HENRY CLEAVER, an attractive bride of the late summer season. Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver, formerly Miss Martha Toeves, have returned from a wedding trip to British Columbia and are now residing in Salem.

MRS. W. CONNELL DYER, prominent Salem matron, who assisted with the elaborate garden party which took place August 30 at the attractive country home of Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, north of town.

HARRY GORDON ROBERTSON, son of Mrs. Marie Robertson, 325 North High street, who will spend the winter in Montana. Harry Gordon is four years of age. Mrs. Robertson is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary quartet.

Mrs. Roberts Entertains Guests

MRS. T. S. ROBERTS, president of Province two of the National Dunning Music Teacher's association, entertained Thursday afternoon in her home at 505 North Summer street with a charmingly-appointed one o'clock luncheon, honoring members of the Portland Dunning club.

The guests were seated at small tables, arranged in the upstairs studio. Zinnias and black-eyed susans in combination with tall tapers in pastel shades formed the attractive centerpiece.

Motoring down from Portland for the affair were Emma Welch Landry, president of the Portland club; Kate Dell Marden and Jean Warren Carrick, the two normal teachers of the northwest; Margaret Keep Long, Amy Warren Baier, Julia C. Kutler, Winifred K. Dyer, Lillian Cashon Ryder, Frances N. Burdick, and Beulah C. Ockwig. Additional guests were Elma Weller and Joy Turner Moses of Salem, who were entered on the roll as new members of the association.

Miss Helen Benner and Miss Georgia Sneed assisted in serving. A brief business session followed the luncheon.

Later in the afternoon, Professor Roberts gave a recital of delightful music on his studio organ. One of the most interesting numbers of the program was "Rhapsody" (Demarest) played by Professor Roberts, organist; and Miss Helen Benner, pianist.

Before leaving in the evening for their home in Portland the group visited the Miles's Linn Mill.

Attractive Affair Compliments Visitor

AN outstanding affair of the past week was the delightful one o'clock luncheon for which Mrs. Louis E. Bean was hostess Thursday afternoon in her home at the Royal Court, complimenting Mrs. Josephine Parrish Stewart who will leave shortly for Eugene to resume her duties as house mother at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house.

Dahlia, in the rich autumn shades, combined with golden glow, black-eyed susans and gold-rod, decorated the dining table and living rooms.

Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. John Albert tied for high score honors. Mrs. Seymour Jones received the second award and Mrs. Stewart received a guest prize.

SONG OF THE ROAD'S END

Dust that was jade,
Dust that was rose,
Yesterday's sunset,
Whither—who knows?

Music of lips,
Music of eyes,
Passion of lyric,
Haunting the skies.
