New York Moundsman Holds Browns Scoreless Until Ninth Inning

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17-(AP)-The Yankees gained a half game on the idle Athletics today by swamping the Browns under a 12 to 2 score. Waite Hoyt pitched shutout ball until the ninth inning when Kress hit a home run after Schulte had singled. The New York batters touched four St. Louis pitchers for 16 hits and the Browns committed six errors. The Yankees now hold first place by a one game margin.
