

Salem's Social Activities Chronicled; What the Women are Doing

Lodge Observance Of Rebekahs Success

MORE than 300 Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, including officers of the Grand lodge and Rebekah assembly officers, attended Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1's observance of the 77th anniversary of the founding of Rebekah Odd Fellowship, Monday night at the I. O. O. F. temple.

The lodge room and dining room were decked in a mass of flowers for the occasion and formed a beautiful and pleasing background for the event. Comments were profuse for the huge art basket of flowers set in front of the presiding officer's station, the gift of Mrs. Adams, of the Adams florists. Smaller art baskets also adorned each pedestal.

The careful arrangement of flowers in the lodge room was also evident in the dining room. Pink flowers and decorations were used for the table. Candelsticks fashioned to represent rose petals held pink candles and added to the attractiveness of the tables.

The complete program was as follows:

- America, audience.
- Violin Selections:
- "March of Wooden Soldiers" (Tchaikovsky)
 - "Pizzicato Serenade" (Newry)
- Pupils of Miss Levy: Peggy Wagstaff, Yvonne Pickell, Joyce Phelps, June Director, Norma Greene, Bernice Blakeslee, Henrietta Blakeslee, Arnet Follmer, Hortense Taylor, Margaret Hogk, Mrs. Mollie Hill Styles, accompanist.
- Piano accordion, Miss Roberta Morton.
- Address, Mrs. Fred Meindel, grand master, grand lodge of Oregon.
- Violin solo, Miss Norma Greene. Readings, negro dialect, Mrs. L. Sherrod Reid of Chemawa.
- Cello solo, Mrs. Clyde Cooley of Chemawa, Mrs. Ruthy Turney of Chemawa, accompanist.
- Readings, Italian dialect, Mrs. L. C. Curtis.
- Solo, "I Never Knew," Mrs. L. Sherrod Reid, Mrs. Ruthy Turney accompanist.
- Piano accordion, Miss Roberta Morton.
- Solo, "The Bandolero," Mr. Anton Brown of Stayton. Miss Eugenia Stegmund, accompanist.
- Robert G. Henderson of Chemawa was chairman of the general committee in charge of the observance. Her assistants were Miss Wilda Siegmund, Mrs. Louise Loveland, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Florence Vie Viesko.

Engagement of Miss Lockhart Announced Here

Of interest in university and town circles is announcement of the engagement of Miss Beatrice Lockhart, senior at Willamette university this year, and Mr. David Egbert Thompson, a former Willamette student, which was made known Monday evening at the new Beta Chi sorority home on State street.

The betrothal news was the delightful surprise of refreshments which Miss Lockhart, president of the sorority, had planned as the first get-together of her sorority sisters at the new home. Miss Lockhart is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Lockhart of Hillsboro, where he has the Methodist charge. Miss Lockhart's mother will be remembered as Jeannette Meredith, member of a prominent Salem family. Miss Lockhart has been active in student body affairs during her three years at Willamette and this year is secretary of the student body and a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, as well as president of Beta Chi.

Miss Kurre Bride At Pretty Home Ceremony

INDEPENDENCE, Ore., Sept. 18.—(Special)—At a pretty wedding September 16 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kurre, Miss Evelyn Kurre became the bride of Dallas Cockle, son of Mrs. Debonhoff of Harrington, Wash.

The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church using the ring ceremony. Mrs. Leslie Clemo was maid of honor and Leslie Clemo acted as best man.

Miss Galene Kurre, sister of the bride, and Miss Sadie Cockle, sister of the bridegroom were bridesmaids.

The bride was beautifully gowned in orchid and yellow georgette and taffeta, carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas and yellow and orchid dahlias.

The maid of honor wore a gown of green georgette and the bridesmaids wore yellow georgette. The rooms were beautifully decorated in yellow and orchid dahlias.

A buffet luncheon was served, after which the happy young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Seattle, Spokane and other Washington cities.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chetler and son, Mrs. N. G. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reeves and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Newton and three sons, Miss Dorothy Adams, Mrs. Baver, Mrs. Huldah McPhee and daughters, all of Portland; Mrs. Dehnoff and daughter, Reedport; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Kurre and daughters, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. George Kurre and daughter, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kurre and granddaughter, Elmore Kurre; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kurre and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cockle Independence, and the Rev. and Mrs. Clark, Independence.

The bride has grown from childhood in this community. The bridegroom is one of this city's most promising young business men. The young couple make their home in Portland.

At the Theaters

The Manhattan Players present for the first time here, that rollicking comedy by John Emerson and Anita Loos, in "The Whole Town's Talking," next Thursday. It will be seen for three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday with matinees on Friday and Saturday. Although this engagement is for three days, it would hardly seem enough to accommodate the great many who have heard of this great comedy and wish to see the stage version from which the picture was made. Director Leland claims that the stage play will be found to exceed the picture in entertainment value, as the lines of the comedy are so funny.

In the principal parts, the bulk of the fun making is in the hands of Jack Holt, Helen Saunders, Harry J. Leland, Lonnie Joy, and May Sheldon. William Farris and Milt Lamarr also have important parts.

Although John Emerson and Anita Loos have given the stage and screen many great successes, such as "The Cradle Snatchers," "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," as well as others, "The Whole Town's Talking" is said to be their best effort. The play had a New York run of two years as well as long runs in other large cities. Henry Duffy found the comedy a great money maker for his organization as runs of 15 weeks in San Francisco and Los Angeles will testify. Mr. Duffy's Portland company also made a big hit with it, as did Seattle and Vancouver.

The stage is being set in Portland for the opening of that city's newest amusement rendezvous, to be known as the United Artists theatre, Thursday, September 20. The new theater, standing on the site of the old Majestic at

The association brings to Oregon a distinct departure in theater operation, insofar as the stars of United Artists Corporation, have an active interest in the destinies of the new show house. These stars include such famous cinema celebrities as Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Gloria Swanson, John Barrymore, Norma Tallmadge, Ronald Colman, Charlie Chaplin, Vilma Banky and Dolores Del Rio. The personnel of the corporation also numbers D. W. Griffith, Eric Von Stroheim, Rex Ingram, Joseph M. Schenck, Irving Berlin and Dr. Hugo Reisenfeld.

J. J. Parker, president of the company, has planned to exhibit the first of an imposing line-up of pictures for less than two weeks. The first of "Two Loves" co-starring Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, a tempestuous love drama based on the novel "Leatherface" by Baroness Orczy.
