- ANNUAL STUNT

Willamette Students March Through Salem Streets; Big Rush Today

To the chant of W-I LL A M-E-TT-E, over 100 Willamette freshmen yesterday paraded from the campus down State street and through the business section of Salem. The boys, with trousers and shirts turned inside out, were wearing little green caps for the first time, and the girls were wearing the traditional green ribbons.

Before the march. Raymond Miller, president of the Cub organization, instructed the boys in the customs and traditions of the university, violation of which brings sure punishment by the paddle.

Girls Instructed

On the steps of Lausanne hall the Misses Rosalind Van Winkle and Pauline Findley of the sophomore vigilance committee gave similar instruction to the new girls and tied on their green ribbons. They were assisted in the ceremony by the Misses Sleenor Henderson, Margaret Warnke and other members of the sophomore

At the intersections of State and ligh and State an dLiberty streets he marchers formed circles and ere led in university songs and sils. At length the paraders re led to the courthouse steps, re the boys were deprived of s and shoestrings and were
