Athletics Whip Tigers
DETROIT, Sept. 20.—(AP)— Scoring three runs in the seventh inning and two in the eighth after Haas had tied the score with ? homer in the sixth, the Athletics won the first game of a series from the Tigers today 6 to 1. Old Jack Quinn held the Tigers to six hits and drove in the run that put Philadelphia ahead. The victory enables the Athletics at least to hold their own with the Yankees in the American league race.

Paired with Harry Hopman, another member of the Australian Davis cup team, Crawford carried the brunt of the attack to take the deciding match, the doubles, from Cram and Murray, 7-9, 6-4, 6-3. Murray had previously defeated Hopman in a long drawn out singles contest to even the series.

The unexpected strength of the southerners was largely concealed in the Racquet of Murray, former Tulane university net ace, who ngles victory 6-4, 8-10, 13-11.
