President-General Of Daughters Is Salem Guest

MRS. ALFRED J. BROSEAU of Washington, D. C., president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was the guest of Chemeketa chapter, local group of the D. A. R. at the Oregon state conference of Daughters held yesterday.

William Sherman Walker of Seattle, Wn., vice-president general, was the second distinguished visitor who was feted yesterday.

At the opening session of the conference, which began this morning at 11 o'clock in the house of representatives in the state house, the prominent visitors and members of the conference were welcomed by Mrs. Homer Gouley, regent of Chemeketa chapter, and T. Livesley, mayor of Salem, following the formal entries of the national and state officers of the Daughters.

Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville, state regent, presided at the sessions held both yesterday morning and yesterday afternoon. The morning session opened with the assembly bugle call by Milton Taylor, invocation by Rev. Martin Ferrey, the recitation of the American's Creed and the flag salute led by Mrs. Seymour Jones.

The singing of America led by Mrs. C. C. Clark and the presentation of the conference banner by Mrs. L. E. Watts of Portland, regent of Willamette chapter. Greetings and responses were made by Mrs. J. Apperson, state regent, by Mrs. B. Montgomery, first organizing regent and vice-president general, and by Miss Ann Lang of The Dalles, national vice-chairman of national defense committee and former vice-president general. A beautiful banquet was presented to Mrs. Broseau on behalf of the conference, by Mrs. F. S. Gannett, first state vice-regent.

The high-light of the morning session was Mrs. Broseau's address. She urged the Daughters to study legislative measures, to continue their efforts in scholarship loan work, to become interested in the foreign relations of the United States, and briefly mentioned the sensational boycott list, denying that it had any official status with the national organization of the Daughters.

Miss Elizabeth Levy's violin choir, and solos by Miss Lena Belle Tartar furnished the music for the morning session.

Following a 150-cover luncheon for the Daughters, held at the Marlon hotel this noon, the afternoon session opened with the bugle call by Milton Taylor, and the singing of The Star Spangled Banner.

Mrs. William Sherman Walker, vice-president general, gave the principal speech of the afternoon, stressing the motives of the Daughters and encouraging them in their patriotic efforts. Two-minute periods were given to representatives of each of the chapters in the state for queries. Mrs. L. L. Patterson, state chairman of the Champoeq Memorial committee; Mrs. A. E. Austin, who is securing pioneer relics for Champoeq park, and Mrs. B. L. Stoeves who is securing revolutionary and pioneer period relics for the state capitol, reported briefly on their respective work.

Mrs. Apperson told of the ambitious Oregon Daughters for the year's work upon which they are now engaged.

One of the most interesting events of the afternoon session was placing aside parks for D. A. R. markers, one marker to be placed at the junction of the Deschutes river and the Columbia river; another at a place called Pioneer Springs; and the other marker to be placed at Applegate Point. Mrs. J. C. Compton was appointed custodian of the markers. Mrs. L. L. Patterson was appointed head of a committee to select a building site at historic Champoeq park, when the Daughters will erect a cabin to house the many relics of pioneer times which have been secured by them.

An interesting tea was given at the C. P. Bishop home late in the afternoon for the pleasure of the visiting national officers and the delegates to the conference. In the receiving line were Mrs. Homer Gouley, Mrs. Alfred Broseau, Mrs. E. C. Apperson and Mrs. William Sherman Walker. Assisting about the livingrooms and greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. C. C. Clark, Miss Lillian Applegate, and Mrs. Ross Bidwell. The livingrooms of the Bishop home were attractively decked with dozens of baskets of roses. Autumn flowers were used in the library and dining room. Tea was served in the sunroom. Mrs. Seymour Jones, former state regent, and Miss Ann Lang of The Dalles, former state regent and former vice-president general, poured. The tea table was centered with golden margolds and deep orchid asters in a beautiful silver basket. A group of the younger girls, including the Misses Ruthita Hoffmann, Julia Bell Austin of Woodburn, Margaret Holtzel and Dorothy Ruffalo, assisted in the serving. Mrs. S. L. Minard, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, all of Dallas, were the serving committee.

The banquet at the Marlon hotel in the evening was attended by more than 150 Daughters and special guests. Mrs. Broseau, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Gouley, Governor Patterson and Brigadier General White were the speakers. Musical numbers were given by Miss Nancy Thibsen, soprano; Edward Fisher, baritone; and an instrumental trio of violin, viola and piano, by Dr. R. W. Hans Seltz and Mr. and Mrs. Ruthy Turney of Chemeketa.

Is Bar Head

Mame Dyrande Thevenin of France has been named president of the International Union of Women Lawyers.

The long banquet tables were decked with baskets of margolds, zinnias, asters and bright autumn leaves. At the main table, which was centered with pretty baskets of fall flowers and roses, covers were placed for Mrs. Broseau, Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Apperson, Governor and Mrs. Patterson, Brigadier-General and Mrs. White, Mrs. Gouley, Mrs. F. S. Gannett, Miss Ann Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Francis Cornell, Mrs. Ward Wibeaver, Mrs. E. C. Reynolds, Mrs. W. S. Walker, Mrs. U. G. Smith, Mrs. G. R. McCallip, Mr. and Mrs. F. Delschneider, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Hans Seltz, Mr. and Mrs. Ruthy Turney, Miss Nancy Thibsen and Edward Fisher.

Thirty-six Daughters attended the board meeting held Wednesday evening, preceding the one-day conference. At that time it was decided that the annual state conference of the Oregon Daughters will be held in Medford in March, with the Crater Lake chapter as hostess.

Chapter G Meets At Churchill Home

Mrs. Frank Churchill was hostess Thursday afternoon to members of Chapter G of the P. E. O. Sisterhood. The principal event of the afternoon was the reading of a paper on interior decoration by Mrs. Harold Hughes. The paper was the first of a series to be given to the chapter by Mrs. Hughes, who is preparing the series under the Oregon State College extension service.

Following the paper, Miss Lena Belle Tartar sang "Rockin' In The Deep" (W. H. Neidlinger) and Bartlett's "A Dream." Mrs. Churchill played her accompaniments. Arrangement for the rummage sale which the chapter will sponsor October 5 and 6 were discussed by the group, and committees will be appointed at the next meeting of the chapter, to be held October 4, in the home of Mrs. A. L. Godfrey. Mrs. Hughes' paper on that day will be on wood finishes and wall coverings.

Mrs. Churchill served refreshments in the lovely arbor in her attractive gardens during the social hour. Several members of AB, including Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss May Rauch, Mrs. Mary Rauch and Mrs. Dilmor Smith, were special guests for the afternoon. Chapter G members present yesterday were Mrs. F. J. Kuntz, Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. William Hughes, Mrs. F. W. Lang, Mrs. A. T. Woolpert, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. G. W. Lafair, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. W. M. Smith, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. Fisher and the hostess, Mrs. Churchill.

Charming Tea Is Event Yesterday

One of the most charming social events of the early autumn season was the pretty tea with which Mrs. Josephine Stewart entertained two score Salem maids and matrons yesterday afternoon at the Gray Belle. Dozens of baskets of vivid fall flowers were used about the Chinese room at the Gray Belle, where the tea was served.

Receiving with Mrs. Stewart were Mrs. Edward A. Stevens and Mrs. Mildred Elbright, Mrs. Richard D. Slater, Mrs. William Roughton and Mrs. Breyman Boise assisted in the serving.

Mrs. John Lauterman and Mrs. Louis Bean presided at the tea. The tea table was lovely with a great basket of bright flowers combined with tall green tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Stewart is leaving Sunday for Eugene, where she will spend the winter and spring as house-chaperone at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority on the University of Oregon campus.

Past Matrons Hold Meeting Tonight

The members of the Past Matrons association will hold their first meeting since the summer recess this evening in the home of Mrs. James Godfrey, 501 North Winter street. The session will begin at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, Miss Lella Johnson, and Mrs. Alice Coolidge will be hostesses for the social part of the evening. During the business session, plans for the winter activities of the association will be formulated.

Silverton Girl Is Married Tuesday

At a stately and impressive ceremony in the Emmanuel Lutheran church at Silverton Tuesday at 3 o'clock, Miss Daggy Lindquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindquist of Silverton, became the bride of Charles McDonald Cheeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cheeld, of Vancouver, Washington.

The single ring service was read by the Rev. Souvik, pastor of the church, beneath a floral arch of pastel-shaded asters, bright autumn leaves, and a beautiful wedding veil. The chancel of the church was lovely with dozens of baskets of autumn leaves, asters, gladioli, vivid dahlias and Michaelmas daisies.

Preceding the services, Miss Henrietta Tinseth sang "I Love You Truly." Miss Holman played the wedding march from Lohengrin for the professional and Mendelssohn for recessional marches, and "Mendelssohn's Spring Song" during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a wedding gown of white georgette with cape effect collar, and the full-skirt trimmed with overlapping silk fringe. Her long tulle veil was bound by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of pastel colored sweet peas and bride's roses. Her only ornament was an exquisite bracelet studded with diamonds and sapphires, the gift of the groom.

Miss Charlotte Lindquist, as her sister's maid of honor, was gowned in apricot taffeta, with tight bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of snapdragons, butterfly roses and carnations. Miss Olive Cheeld of Vancouver, Wn., sister of the groom, gowned in beaded green georgette, and Miss Etta Campbell of Portland, in old-rose georgette trimmed with lace. There were two bridesmaids. They both carried arm bouquets of pastel-shaded flowers. Little Lucille Hall of Silverton, in a dainty ruffled gown of apricot flat crepe, was flower girl.

Alan Cheeld, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Following the wedding service, an informal reception for the relatives and intimate friends of the bride was held in the home of the bride's parents near Silverton. Great baskets of white, pink and orchid asters were attractively arranged about the livingrooms of the Lindquist home. A wedding supper was served, with the bride's table centered with an elaborately decorated wedding cake. Miss Mable Lindquist, Miss Thea Sampson and Miss Clara Bjontegard assisted in the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheelds left Tuesday evening for San Francisco where they will make their home. The bride's going-away costume was a shaded tan ensemble suit with small tan felt hat to match.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cheelds are graduates of Oregon State College at Corvallis, where Mrs. Cheelds was a member of Kappa Delta national sorority. Mrs. Cheelds has taught for several years in the high school at Wheeler. Her parents are old-time residents of the Silverton district. Mr. Cheelds is connected with the Pacific Telephone company at San Francisco.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception included Mr. and Mrs. Levi Filiflet of Dallas, Miss Lenore Buro and Miss Etta Campbell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kunke, of Turner, Mrs. J. Filiflet and Miss Palma Filiflet, and Miss Thea Sampson, all of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cheeld, Miss Olive Cheeld, Miss Jessie Cheeld and Alan Cheeld, all of Vancouver, Wn.

Chadwick Chapter Entertains For Past Officers

The beautiful ceremonies marked the meeting of Chadwick Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday evening in the chapter rooms in the Masonic temple. The program, which was primarily devoted to honoring the past matrons and past patrons of the chapter, and the past matrons and patrons affiliated with it, was also enhanced by an unusually impressive floral degree conferred upon Miss Guslie Niles, the present worthy matron of the chapter.

All past matrons and patrons present last evening were received and escorted to special seats, where Miss Niles presented each with a boutonniere made by Mrs. Frank Crawford. During the presentation of the flowers, Mrs. Harry Harms sang a song especially arranged for the occasion, with Belle Brown at the piano. All matrons who served Chadwick chapter before 1922 were presented with past matrons jewels by the chapter, Judge O. P. Oshoshow making the presentation speech.

Past matrons and patrons who are still active in work of the chapter, and the year of their office, are as follows: E. B. Philbrook (1895), Bertha Forstner and Lot L. Pearce (1896), Josie La Fore (1897), Macy Rizer and William Warner (1898), Milton Meyers (1899), Lena Cherrington and Lot L. Pearce (1901), Carrie Savage (1902), Cook M. Jones (correct) and Wm. Savage of Corvallis (1902), Ida M. Babcock (1904), Alice Meyers and W. C. Kantner (1905), Wm. Hall of Portland (1907), Lottie Smith and Wm. Hall (1908), Geo. Brown, (1909), Marion Derby (1912), Josephine Vass and Walter M. Smith (1913), Ida B. Godfrey and Walter M. Smith (1914), Hugh Rodgers (1915), Minnie Moeller (1916), Elizabeth Shafer and Ernest R. Ringo (1917), Faye Wright (1918), Estella Smith (1919), Hazel Bishop and V. E. Kuhn (1920), Monnie Hauser and Mr. Kuhn (1921), Ida L. Niles and Mr. Kuhn (1922), Emma Murphy Brown and David Wright (1923), Addie May Petteys and Dr. C. L. Blodgett (1924), Ross Babcock and Ralph Thompson (1925), Lelia Johnson and Rev. H. D. Chambers (1926), Mabel Minto and Wm. A. Marshall (1927).

Past matrons and patrons present last evening were Mrs. L.

Mrs. Chas. McNary Complimented With Tea

MRS. T. A. LIVESLEY was hostess in her home on Lincoln hill yesterday afternoon at a delightfully informal tea complimenting Mrs. Charles McNary, who is leaving, probably Monday, for Washington, D. C. Other guests of honor were Mrs. F. S. Sargent of San Francisco, who is leaving for her home today, and Mrs. I. Field of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. Sargent has been a house-guest at the Livesley home for a week, and Mrs. Field is a guest at the Portland home of Mrs. F. E. Smith.

Thirty matrons, many from out-of-town, were invited by Mrs. Livesley to bid farewell to Mrs. McNary and Mrs. Livesley. Included among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Field, Mrs. F. E. Smith and Mrs. Charles Stewart of Portland, and Mrs. Young of Albany.

Great bowls of lavender and purple asters were attractively arranged about the livingrooms of the Livesley home. The tea table was charming with a low bowl of pink asters and white snow-berry and tall pink tapers in silver holders. Mrs. William Boot poured, and Miss Dorothy Livesley and Miss Rovena Eyre assisted her in the serving.

Screen Life in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—It appears once the popular appeal of the negro in his musical moments. Heretofore producers have fought shy of descriptions of modern negro life in this country, preferring to go to the polar regions and film the life of the Eskimo, or make an elephant picture in Siam when they wanted something unusual. But the advent of the talking screen has caused them to reconsider; for where is there a tribe of human beings so beautifully adapted to sound-picture treatment as the American negro, with his banjo, his "blues," his spirituals and his dialect?

King Vidor, who for three years has been trying to inculcate producers with his enthusiasm for all-negro pictures, finally won his point because those who were unable to see anything interesting in the flickering of silent negroes on the screen could understand at

Screen Life in Hollywood

By Wade Werner

So the man who made "The Big Parade" will go south soon in search of typical southern negroes and typical southern locations for his new picture, which he says will not be a "negro problem" picture, nor a picture about wealthy and educated negroes, nor anything at all about white people. He will go about picturing the interesting and likeable qualities of the negro just as he would go about filming peasant life in France, or the life of villagers in Sweden, or because music means so much in the life of the negro the picture will be full of song and rhythm.

Actors Rare

Vidor was brought up in Texas, "raised by a negro mammy," he says, "who was like a member of our family until she died." So he insists on having true southern types in his picture, and does not expect to find them in Hollywood.

Herren Clan to Meet At Champoeq Sunday

Descendants of William, John, Levi and Noah Herren, four brothers who crossed the plains from Indiana to Oregon and settled on the Salem prairie in 1845, will gather at Champoeq park Sunday for an all-day reunion. The first Sunday in August was previously set as the reunion day, but it was later postponed to September 23. The reunion will be the first held in several years, as the group did not meet last year.

At least 50 to 60 members of the Herren class from all sections of Oregon are expected to attend the gathering. Mrs. George Bailey, of Tigard, is secretary of the clan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus have returned from Tacoma, Wn., where they were guests of Mrs. Barkus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Deetler, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. E. Summerfield accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Barkus on their return and will spend a week in Salem as their house guests. Mrs. Barkus and Mrs. Summerfield are sisters.

Miss Baker Returns To Eugene Wednesday

Miss Dorothy Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker of this city, left for Eugene Wednesday to start her senior year at the University of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Baker motored to Eugene with their daughter, returning to Salem last evening.

Miss Baker is president of Oregon Alpha chapter, Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism fraternity, and is a member of Mortar Board, national honor sorority, and Alpha Xi Delta, national social sorority. This coming year, Miss Baker will be social editor of the Daily Emerald, student publication, in addition to being associate editor of the Oregonia, university year book, and college year section editor of the Oregonia. Last year Miss Baker was day editor of the Emerald and also a section editor of the Oregonia.

Three Link Club to Meet This Afternoon

The Three Link club will resume their regular meetings after the summer recess with a social afternoon today in the I. O. O. F. club rooms. Sewing and tea will be the diversions. Mrs. Cora Vanbelt is chairman of the hostess committee. Her assistants are Mrs. Dora Hill, Mrs. Morehead, Mrs. Margaret Hammock, and Mrs. Carrie Jennings.

Mrs. Belle Crowther and her daughter, Miss Hope Crowther, are leaving early next week for Seattle, where Miss Crowther will register at the University of Washington for the second quarter of the year.
