Chemawa Squad Hit By Eligibility Rule

The Chemawa Indians got their first taste of ineligibility rules Friday when it was announced that Leander Wilson, quarterback, Dord Franklin, quarterback, Alcezo Hoover, center and Russell and would not be permitted to play against Benson Saturday nor in any game this season. All failed to make the necessary grade at the close of the last school term.

This ruling hits the Redskins in a vital spot, that of quarter. Buck Smith, the third candidate for that position, has not reported for practice since the Washington High game on account of ankle trouble and it is doubtful whether he will be able to enter the game today. If Smith is not able to call the numbers it will mean someone will have to fill that most important post without practice or experience. The strange thing about it is there is more gloom hovering over the student boys because of the ruling than there is among the players themselves.

Dark Horses Pitch Sunday

"Dark horse" pitchers will be rife at Eugene Sunday when the Salem Senators and Bend Eagles play their final game for the Willamette valley league championship. It became evident Friday.

Manager G. B. Everett of Bend mentioned in a telephone conversation with Leo Edwards of the Senators that Fulton, said to be a resident of Bend, would be on the mound for the Eagles. Fans here do not recall having heard of this man Fulton, but are willing to bet that he'll be good.

Salem's pitcher isn't exactly a dark horse, as he is a resident of Portland who pitched in the Senators last Sunday.

He is Curtis... no relief Johnny Beck in the eighth and then, after being nicked for the hits that put Bend far in the lead, lammed out one himself that missed being a home run by three feet and started the Solons' winning rally.

But Davis is a dark horse to the extent that he hasn't been playing with the Utah team all year.
