Committees Made At A. A. U. W. Luncheon

STANDING committees for the coming year's work, and committees for the state meeting of the American Association of University Women to be held in Salem October 19 and 20, were appointed by Mrs. W. W. Baum, president of the Salem branch, at the luncheon held Saturday in the Gray Ball.

The following women were appointed to head the standing committees for the club's new year: Membership, Miss Beryl Holt; education, Mrs. Roy Klein; publicity, Mrs. Roy M. Gaitke; letter-writing, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen. The program committee will be composed of members of the study section of the branch for one meeting, and members of the branch will be grouped by their colleges to serve on the program committees for the remaining monthly sessions of the year.

The Salem branch is making interesting plans for the entertainment of the state association of University Women, at their meeting here in October. On the arrangement committee for the state meeting are Mrs. E. C. Richards, chairman, Mrs. George Hagg, and Miss Olive Dahl. Mrs. A. C. F. Perry is chairman of the banquet and luncheon committee, to be assisted by Mrs. Lynn F. Cronemiller, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen, and Mrs. V. E. McIntyre.

The reception committee appointed by Mrs. Baum for greeting the delegates to the state session, includes Mrs. C. F. Chambers, chairman, Mrs. George Hagg, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. Sterling Smith, Miss Lelia Johnson, and Mrs. J. M. Canse.

The program for the state session of the A. A. U. W. includes a banquet the evening of October 19, and luncheon the next noon. A business meeting will be held in the forenoon of October 20, and round-table discussions will be held in the afternoon. Mrs. L. T. Merwin of Portland, state president, will preside.

At the luncheon Saturday, Professor J. C. Nelson, principal of the Salem high school, spoke entertainingly on the value of the influence of foreign literature. Two high school girls, the Misses Doris Clarke and Lucille Cummings, gave several vocal numbers, with Miss Lois Plummer playing their accompaniments. Fifty association members were present for the luncheon.

Mrs. J. J. Karst Hostess Saturday

A delightful affair Saturday afternoon was the pretty tea for which Mrs. J. J. Karst was hostess in her home on North Winter street. Attractive autumn blooms were used effectively about the livingrooms and around the tea tables. Miss Flo. Karst assisted her mother during the afternoon.

Four tables of bridge were in play Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. D. Johnson winning the high score prize. The second prize went to Miss Margaret Lebold. Mrs. Karst's guests were Mrs. P. J. Meaney, Mrs. S. Dougherty, Mrs. D. Johnson, Mrs. Thomas Windishar, Mrs. J. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Phoebe, Miss Margaret Lebold, Mrs. Quackenbush, Mrs. G. Patterson, Mrs. R. Allen, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. Adam Engel, Mrs. W. Lee, Mrs. E. Schmoker and Miss Geraldine Schmoker.

Mrs. Edna C. Steeves and E. Ward Fanning, both of Gervais, were married at a quiet ceremony in the home of Dr. W. C. Kaptner, 853 North Commercial street, at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning. Dr. Kaptner officiated. Miss Genevieve Longen and Theodore Steeves were the bride couple's attendants.

Theta Nu of Delta Delta Delta entertained a group of girls entering Oregon State College this fall with a line party at the Elsinore followed by supper at the Spa on Friday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Roen Is G. K. P. Club Hostess

G. K. P. club members were entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Thomas Roen in her home on Court street. Special guests for the evening were Mrs. R. W. Travis of Eugene and Mrs. Bana McNamar of Dallas. The livingrooms of the Roen home, and the dining table, where refreshments were served at a late hour, were attractively decorated with baskets of vivid dahlias, zinnias, and other autumn flowers.

Club members, all of whom were present, are Mrs. Will Foster, Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. Harry Harms, Mrs. Katherine Middleton, Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mrs. C. K. Haynes, Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mrs. B. E. Sisson, Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Mrs. J. F. Billeter, Mrs. J. B. Taylor, and the hostess, Mrs. Roen.

Prominent Salem Folk to Return

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. B. Galloway will return from Pendleton, where they have been attending the annual Round-Up, on Sunday evening. While in Pendleton, the group were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rice.

W. R. C. Ladies' Aid Observes Birthdays

All members of the Ladies' Aid of the Woman's Relief Corps, whose birthday anniversaries occur between January 1 and October 1 were presented with a small gift from the organization at the regular meeting of the aid held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bertha Loveland. Special honor was paid to Mrs. Newby, who celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary, an elaborately decorated birthday cake with lighted candles being presented to her at the tea hour.

Thirty members of the aid were present for the afternoon, with Mrs. J. H. Botta, Mrs. Brad, and Mrs. Fred C. Peterson and her four children as special guests.

The entertainment committee for the afternoon included Mesdames Peterson, Writz, Loudon, Clearwater, Bliss and Loveland. Alford Nolan, Jr., was complimented on his seventh birthday anniversary Thursday, when his grandmother, Mrs. Hugh Fisher, entertained in her home on Ferry street. Clever favors were presented to the small group of neighborhood children who were guests at the informal affair. At the table the prettily-appointed table was decked with pink and white flowers and favors, and centered with the elaborately decorated birthday cake.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle will return to Salem Sunday evening, after spending several days in Portland.

Guests at Laflar Home For Fair Week

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harper of Portland will spend the coming week as house-guests in the G. W. Laflar home. Mr. and Mrs. Harper come to Salem annually for the Oregon State Fair. Other guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laflar, late in the week, will be Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Eichelberger and daughters Ruth and Edna, of Portland, and Miss Selma Shepherd of Walla Walla.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Laflar entertained with a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Eichelberger and their daughters, for Miss Shepherd and for Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Smith.

Miss Helen Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Adams of Hubbard, became the bride of Vernon Carruthers of Woodburn, at a pretty service read in the Woodburn Presbyterian church Wednesday by the Rev. A. T. Hansen. Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers are now on their honeymoon at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Griffith are leaving the early part of next week for Eugene, where they will make their home for the coming winter and spring at No. 755 Lawrence street. Mr. Griffith has a teaching fellowship in the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker will entertain Mrs. W. R. Northrup of Portland during the coming week.

University Epworth League Has Meeting

On Sunday evening, September 16, the University of Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church sponsored a fellowship hour preceding a devotional service led by Frank Van Dyke. Both meetings were well attended. Miss Emily Brown and Miss Virginia Slusser served on the fellowship committee.

The officers of the League for this year are: president, Miss Elma White; first vice-president, Miss Emily Brown; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank Van Dyke; third vice-president, Miss Margaret Schreiber; treasurer, Lois Nelson; secretary, Miss Roberta Vance.

Mrs. William C. Knighton and Mrs. Willis Dunlavy of Portland motored to Salem Thursday afternoon to be guests at the charming tea with which Mrs. Josephine Stewart entertained several score of matrons. Both Mrs. Knighton and Mrs. Dunlavy are socially prominent here.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClintock, of Roseburg, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Pickens during the Oregon State Fair season. Mrs. McClintock is a sister to Mrs. Pickens. Mr. McClintock is manager of the Standard Oil company at Roseburg.

Mrs. Lusetta Williams of McDonald, Kansas, is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Miller. Mrs. Williams is an aunt of Dr. Miller's.
