

KELLY TO HEAD IDAHO SCHOOL

University of Idaho Inaugurates New President With Ceremony

MOSCOW, Ida., Sept. 25.—(AP)—With the vision of a unified educational system which will serve Idaho better and more fully, and which may become a piece of experimental work which will draw to Idaho the eyes of students of pedagogy, Dr. Frederick J. Kelly today became president of the University of Idaho.

Three questions were discussed by Doctor Kelly in his inaugural address. These, he declared, are necessary of solution for education to continue to be "father of democracy." He declared that states must place their universities upon equal planes with endowed institutions if a stratification of class is not to be fostered; that half of the number of students who now enroll in college and quit by the end of their second year must leave college not with the idea that they are failures but with the sense of having completed a given course of study; a "junior college course" and that education must get back to fundamentals, decentralization and departmentalization, inculcating the spirit of learning instead of the spirit of having learned.

The inaugural itself was simple. An academic procession preceded the ceremonies. The board of education, president of the university of Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Minnesota, with Governor N. C. Baldrige occupying the platform. W. D. Vincent, Idaho commissioner of education introduced Doctor Kelly.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. M. Irwin, who died in a Salem hospital early Monday morning following a Caesarian section, will be held at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Clough-Huston chapel here, the Rev. O. Taylor of Portland officiating.

Mrs. Irwin had been prominent in Salem social circles since coming here seven years ago following her marriage to Clifton M. Irwin of this city and her death came as a severe shock to her friends. The baby, a boy, died six hours after his mother.

Mrs. Irwin was Marjorie Cameron, member of a well-known Portland family, before her marriage. She was born in Racine, Wisconsin, October 26, 1896, coming with her parents to Portland when she was still a tot. She received her education at the old Portland academy, later working in the government war relief at San Antonio, Texas.

Besides Mr. Irwin, she is survived by Mrs. W. C. Cameron, her mother, Miss Eleanor Cameron, a sister, Mrs. James Cameron, an aunt, Mrs. Loder, a cousin, all of Portland and will be here for the funeral. Mr. Irwin's mother, Mrs. Laura Minto Irwin, and grandmother, Mrs. John W. Minto, both of Portland, will also be here. Another sister, Mrs. William Schender of San Francisco, also survives.

Portland Seeking New Incinerator

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—(AP)—Voters of Portland will be asked to vote $200,000 on November 6 to build a new garbage incinerator here. Commissioner Bigelow today asked the city council to submit a bond issue proposal at the November election. The present city incinerator, Bigelow said, can handle about 150 tons of garbage a day. The city's daily yield of garbage is 300 tons, and this is said to be growing rapidly.

NASH PLANTS HIT CAPACITY

All Four Factories Kept at Top Speed to Meet Growing Demand

KENOSHA, Wis., Sept. 25.—(Spe)—Manufacturing facilities in the four great Wisconsin plants of the Nash Motors company will be increased by $2,000,000 in new buildings and equipment as a result of the overwhelming public demand for the new "400" Series cars, it was announced today.

This extensive expansion program, which will be pushed as rapidly as possible through the fall and winter, is designed not only to increase quality motor car production in the various Nash plants, but also to more nearly balance output in the four manufacturing divisions, according to company officials. The improvements are equally divided between the Special Six and Sedan Body corporation plants in Milwaukee, the Standard Six plant in Racine, and the Advanced Six plant in Kenosha.

Run At Capacity "Since the introduction of the Nash '400' series models in June," Hugh Maden, manager for the F. W. Pettyjohn company, said today in commenting on company plans, "all four manufacturing divisions have been operating at capacity in an endeavor to meet the flood of new car orders which has far exceeded all expectations. Night shifts have been employed, and the maximum production has been achieved from the famous Nash production lines, which were augmented last spring by an investment of approximately $1,500,000 in new machinery, jig and die. This careful speeding up has increased Nash production by nearly thirty per cent and has set new high records week by week for Nash shipments; but it has still fallen far short of meeting the '400' demand in the United States and abroad.

"August was the biggest production month in the annals of the Nash Motors company, and September, although affording less working time, is expected to equal the August daily record. "With the completion of this expansion program, we will be in a position to more nearly meet our heavy sales demands and at the same time maintain the high standards of precision work which have been factors of vital importance in the success of the new cars."

The purchase of new motor vehicles of American design in markets outside of the United States during the past year was equivalent to the sales in twenty states of this country namely: Vermont, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon.

TWO FACE CHARGE MARKET BURGLARY

Two men giving the names John Levine and Jack Porter were lodged in the Marion county jail late Monday for robbing the McDowell meat Market on South Commercial street before daylight. The order was issued committing them to jail after they had been bound over to the grand jury by Justice of the Peace Small, and they had failed to furnish bail in the sum of $3000 each.

was obtained from the meat market, according to accounts given the officers.

Officers Winterstein and Fisher first arrested Levine, after a report had been made by a milk truck driver who stated he had seen a suspicious looking character in the vicinity of the meat market. After Levine was taken he led the two officers to a room in a local hotel, where they found Porter. Levine is quoted as saying that the two of them robbed the market.

One of the pair is believed to have gained entrance to the establishment by crawling through a small ventilator hole and opening the rear door from inside.

Today he swung into an early lead, made all the pace and won from every time by a head in a driving finish. Zest was third, a length back. The race was worth $2,725 and Chantry ran the five furlongs in 1:00 5/8.

SEEK TO MUZZLE MRS. WILLEBRANDT

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The Chicago Tribune in its morning edition prints a letter from Benjamin Frelman, a member of the republican Wisconsin state central committee, addressed to James W. Good, western manager for Herbert Hoover which says "unless Mrs. Willebrandt is muzzled, Mr. Hoover is sure to go down to defeat."

The letter was prompted by the reports of strength of the democratic candidate, Governor Smith in Wisconsin. The letter continues:

"Political observers in this state, if they are fair, will tell you Governor Smith would carry this state if the election were held now. He is getting stronger since Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt has taken the stump. This state is opposed to prohibition tactics as practised by Mrs. Willebrandt and it is also opposed to the kind of campaigning she is doing."

"Unless Mrs. Willebrandt is muzzled Mr. Hoover is sure to go down to defeat. It is not enough for republican managers to disclaim responsibility for Mrs. Willebrandt's activities. They should demand that she refrain from all further participation in the campaign."
