

LEAGUE FAVORS DISARMAMENT

Formal Resolution Adopted by Assembly at Geneva; Haste Urged

GENEVA, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Further steps toward disarmament must be accomplished with a minimum delay said a resolution adopted by the assembly of the league of nations today. The solemn pronouncement urged the great naval powers to find solutions, in a spirit of conciliation and international solidarity, for the difficulties which they have encountered.

The resolution, which was framed by the disarmament commission of the league, called for the convocation of the preparatory disarmament commission by the beginning of 1929.

Warning Sounded
Joseph Paul-Boncour, French delegate, warned the assembly that if this commission failed to draw up an acceptable draft convention at that time, the result would be a catastrophe to league prestige and hopes.

"The league would be as a goddess despoiled of her crown," was the way he phrased the idea.

A "general act" designed to give force to the Kellogg Pact for the renunciation of war was submitted by Nicholas Politis, noted Greek jurist. The act would provide Pacific settlement of all disputes by pledging its signatories to use conciliation, judicial procedure or arbitration in accordance with the needs of each case. All states would be invited to subscribe to this instrument.

Present Pact Incomplete
M. Politis told the assembly that the Kellogg Pact was an incomplete instrument in that it failed to provide for arbitration of mutual assistance among its signatories.

His "general act" was accompanied by model treaties of conciliation, arbitration, non-aggression and mutual assistance. All states were urged to negotiate and sign agreements of this nature.

High Honor Paid G. E. Chamberlain

A memorial prepared by the state bar association relating to the life and achievements of the late George E. Chamberlain was presented to the state supreme court here Tuesday. It was ordered spread on the minutes of the court. Mr. Chamberlain served as governor of Oregon and later was elected United States senator from this state. He served in this capacity for many years. During the few years prior to his death he was a member of the federal shipping board. At the time of his death he was practicing law in Washington.

Freshman Class Is Photographed

This week members of the freshman class at Willamette university are having their photographs made for the college annual, the Wallabah. George Poor, editor of the book, announced yesterday that photos of members of the upper classes will be taken in regular order following the freshmen, and that the work will be done as soon as possible. Early completion of the photographs will enable the publication staff to work untramped for time in mounting, and will assure more prompt service from engravers and printers.

Home Protective League In Salem

A Salem branch of The Home Protective League has been organized with an office over the Doughton and Sherwin store at 286 North Commercial, according to announcement yesterday. The league maintains a reading and rest room at the office and mothers may leave their children there while on shopping tours. The league has as an aim the truthful education of adolescents. Evangelistic and prayer meetings are conducted on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock and there is a 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon devotion hour. Among those who spoke at the organization were the Rev. W. N. Blodgett and Dr. A. C. Eaton.

In the far northern villages of Alaska, there are few radio receivers. The lucky set owner always has an audience when conditions are right for good reception, and to notify his neighbors that American stations are coming in with a "bang," he hangs a lantern at his door.

WRUF, Gainesville, Fla., new state owned station on the campus of the University of Florida, is to begin operation about October 1.

Notice to Contractors
The bricklayers' union of Salem decided at the last meeting to raise the scale of wages to twelve dollars a day and establish a five day work week beginning with Jan. 1st, 1929.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
In response to many inquiries made of me as to why the Rosa L. Browning Amusement Company is not at the Oregon State Fair this year, I beg to say that it is through no fault of the company, but due to the unfair treatment of the Board. My manager called on numerous occasions to arrange for space and contract, but each time was advised the secretary was ill and could not give matter attention. Later we telegraphed for old space and secretary of the Board advised by letter that old space not available but other space had been allotted by the Board. Believing the Board would treat me fairly I relied upon the assurance of the letter of its secretary until I received a further letter from her advising the Board had sold the space set aside for me. My manager has endeavored to arrange an adjustment but without success and to my serious damage.
