Hoover Hears Two Sides To Question of Support Shorey, In Northwest Farm Belt

By W. B. RAGSDALE decidedly unfavorable report in that state. of the political situation in the northwestern wheat belt was Flordia and is associated with the brought to Herbert Hoover here epublican organization in that by Senator Lynn J. Frazier, of state, said that "the sentiment for Houghton North Dakota, after the republi- Herbert Hoover throughout the can presidential candidate had received encouraging news from such widely separated states as Wyoming and Florida.

Frazier, a republican member of the Progressive group in the senate who has endorsed Hoover's candidacy, said that the situation in North Dakota was far from satisfactory and that there was much imports from Mexico, South Amerdiscontent among the farmers. Protest Vote Large "There is likely to be a big pro test vote in my state," he said after his conference with the "The republicans have been promising farm relief for years and with my people farm relief is synonymous with the Mc-Nary-Haugen bill."

"I cannot believe that Governor Smith will carry the state, but pletes the address. there is much discontent with wheat prices low. Some say the democratic nominee has a good chance in Montana, South Dakota and Minnesota as well as in my state. I do not know." Frank W. Mondell, a former representative from Wyoming. who called upon the candidate during the day, expressed the belief that Governor Smith had lost more votes than he had gained by his sally into the west. Much Support Lost

"If we concede that a considerable number of votes in the west were in doubt when the democratic candidate started his tour, and the winning of those votes was the object of his trip," Mondell said. "we are forced to conclude by reports from the west that he has not profited any from his speech-

"His arguments were not convincing enough to win those who were in doubt," he added, "and the word I receive is that many of the people who were considering giving their support to Smith were so disappointed in his failure to take a definite stand on the real issues that they have now decided to vote for Hoover."

Mondell expressed confidence that Wyoming would cast her electoral vote for Hoover and Cur-

Florida to go G. O. P. Belief that Florida would desert the normally democratic solid south was reflected in the views of J. Leonard Replogie, of New York, and E. T. Stotesburty
