

ROBINSON ASKS MISSOURI VOTE

Tammany Presidential Candidate Lauded by Bourbon Nominee

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 27. (AP)—Raising the democratic national standard over Missouri soil, Senator Joe Robinson tonight opened a three-day drive to win the state's 18 electoral votes and at the same time fired the first gun on one of the most extensive campaign tours ever undertaken by a vice-presidential candidate in the west.

While advised here, as he was on his southern trip, that religion was an issue that must be met, the senator chose to begin his appeal to the west with an extensive review of Governor Smith's record on legislation affecting women and children. He argued that it excelled that of "any living statesman."

Record Reviewed
Speaking in the same hall where Senator Charles Curtis, rival for the vice-presidency, preached a republican doctrine last night, Senator Robinson said that as Governor of New York Smith had "taken the lead in securing legislative and administrative reforms of benefit to them."

"A desperate effort is being made to induce women voters," he declared in a prepared speech, "to oppose the democratic nominee on the theory that the republican candidate, Mr. Herbert Hoover, has in many cases supported causes in which women are known to be concerned, and that Governor Smith has never been identified with measures in which women are particularly interested."

Leadership Claimed
"The correctness of this conclusion is challenged. Quite the contrary is true, an examination of the record discloses that Governor Smith has taken the lead."

The senator enumerated measures which he argued Smith had put through in New York state and declared that Mr. Hoover's public services have been confined to his position as secretary of commerce, and to the supervision of relief work.

"The latter were of great importance," he went on, "but have little relation to the subject in which Governor Smith has proved his efficiency—subjects which disclose his profound sympathy with women and children who both deserve and need the protection and aid of government."

NOMINATIONS MADE FOR S. H. S. OFFICES

Registration at the Salem high school had reached 960 at the close of school Thursday, with more students expected to enroll today. J. G. Nelson, principal, said Mr. Nelson expects an increase of 50 on Monday.

Thursday morning the first student body assembly of the new year was held, at which the principal introduced the new bandmaster, O. P. Thayer, and the new debate coach, Norborne Berkeley, Jr., who outlined the plans for their respective positions.

At the first business session candidates were nominated for the 11 positions on the student council. These are distributed with five, one holdover and four regular, to the seniors; one holdover and three regular to the juniors and two to the sophomore class.

Nominations resulted as follows:
Senior holdover: Wesley Heise, Phil Bell, Maxine Myers and Donald Siegmund, Senior regular: Gerald Simpson, Homer Smith, Ronald Hewitt, Virginia Sisson, Claudia Buntin and Wayne Blaco.

Junior holdover: Phyllis Day and Winford Giese. Junior regulars: Sibylla Phelps, Joe King, Ruth Fick, Jim Emmett and Dorothy Moore. Sophomores: Truston Foreman, Helen Childs and Leon Perry.

The elections will be held some day next week.
Barney Cameron is president of the student body.

Papils May See Blowers—Miss Grace Howell, of Howell's Bohemian Glass Blowers, who have been traveling on the coast since the first of the year, was in Salem Thursday and conferred with Superintendent George W. Hug about bringing her company here. The group, a family affair, appears mostly before school audiences and there is a possibility that appearance of the Bohemian Glass Blowers here will meet with the approval of local school principals.
