Semi-Annual County Convention to be Held at Jefferson Thursday

JEFFERSON, Ore., Oct. 13.—(Special)—The semi-annual meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs will be held in the Christian church here Thursday, October 18.

The morning session, opening at 10 o'clock, will be taken up with business, after which luncheon will be served in the dining room of the church.

A program will be given which will include a vocal solo by Genevieve Weld; an address by Grace Chamberlain, president of the first district of Federated Clubs of Southern Oregon; a talk by Dr. F. G. Franklin of Willamette university on his recent trip abroad; and an instrumental duet by Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle and Mary Louise Fontaine.

Plans Discussed

Jefferson Women's club held its first meeting of the year this week in the library. It was decided that the study of art will be taken up this year.

Plans for entertaining the county federation meeting next Thursday, the Talbott Sydney and Jefferson clubs will be joint hosts.

After the business meeting luncheon was served at the Elite, with Mrs. D. H. Looney and Mrs. H. D. Mars as hostesses.

NORMAL DEFEATS LINFIELD ELEVEN

MONMOUTH, Ore., Oct. 13.—(Special)—In a fast, snappy game here today Monmouth defeated Linfield college on the gridiron 29 to 0. Monmouth made its first score in the first period and after blocking a Linfield punt.

Four touchdowns were made by the local eleven, Clouinger scoring two, Senn one, and Campbell one. Barney Senn was the bright individual star of the contest.

Coaches Wolf and Earl of Monmouth were much gratified by the game played by their team both on offense and defense. The locals held Linfield twice on the five yard line in the last period, averting the threat of scores.

West Salem Man's Son Crash Victim

W. J. Kibbee of the Kingwood service station on Edgewater and Kingwood avenues has received a telegram telling of the death of his son Edward in an accident. Mr. Kibbee at this time has received no further particulars. Edward was the youngest of Mr. Kibbee's three sons being 18 years of age. He had been working in a newspaper office and doing very well. The sad news comes as a complete surprise and is a difficult thing for Mr. Kibbee to realize. The boy was killed in Canandaigua, New York, and is to be buried in Johnston, New York, by his mother. Mr. Kibbee's many friends in West Salem are most sympathetic with him in his sorrow.

West Salem is pleased and proud of W. R. Peterson on Edgewater street who is a member of the Salem American Legion drum corp and who went with them to San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Peterson's return Tuesday is eagerly awaited by the townspeople who want to let him know how happy they are in his success.

Three Eligible For R. N. Award

SILVERTON, Ore., Oct. 13.—(Special)—Meadames Bert Green, Clyde Ramey, C. A. Nesheim, and I. Metcalf, are members of the Royal Neighbors of Silvertown who are eligible to attend the luncheon given in Salem on Tuesday in the Fraternal temple for all members who have secured new policies of $1000 or more. Mrs. Laura Peterson is to be hostess.

DOLL NAMED HEAD OF POST; DECLINES

STAYTON, Ore., Oct. 13.—(Spl.)—D. M. Doll was elected commander of the Stayton post of the American Legion at this week's meeting, but since he is now a resident of Salem, declined the election. The vacancy will be filled at the next meeting.

Other officers elected were: Glen E. Fox, vice commander; George R. Duncan, adjutant; W.

JUNIOR MIX HELD WITH MANY STUNTS

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Ore., Oct. 13.—(Spl.)—Members of the junior class of Oregon Normal school enjoyed the first junior "mix" of the season Thursday evening. Mrs. Beulah Thornton was mistress of ceremonies and started the events with a grand march which promoted a friendly atmosphere.

Stunts were presented by groups from four divisions of the state: Willamette valley district southern district, Eastern Oregon, and Multnomah-lower Columbia district.

The Pendleton round-up and rose festival stunts were especially entertaining and original. Alphabetical groups gave other impressive stunts pertaining to the seasons of the year.

Mrs. Thornton introduced Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Bell and Mr. Santee, the junior advisory committee. After the serving of light refreshments all joined in singing community songs led by Marian Worth.

Now! on an ATWATER KENT, Model 40 and the Jensen DYNAMIC Speaker in exclusive Sherman, Clay & Co. Console only $164 Complete

SHERMAN, CLAY & Co. offers the greater Atwater Kent and the aristocrat of speakers, the Jensen DYNAMIC, in an attractive console cabinet—for the nominal sum of $164. This is an unprecedented opportunity.

Atwater Kent, Model 40, marks a decided radio advance: greater sensitivity; finer reproduction of the higher register; new power pack of the most approved type; increased volume.

This set, combined with the Jensen DYNAMIC Speaker, affords remarkable truthness, clarity, and brilliance of reproduction. Each instrument keeps its proper place. Heavy brasses do not leap into the front row, drowning out more delicate instruments. The Jensen Audio transformer is the connecting link between the famous Jensen DYNAMIC Speaker and Atwater Kent's most popular radio set.

You owe it to yourself to hear this wonderful combination, obtainable only at Sherman, Clay & Co.—Atwater Kent, Model 40, and the Jensen DYNAMIC Speaker.
