BUT SLIGHT DAMAGE

SEATTLE, Oct., 15.-(AP)-Damage to the British steamer Trojanstar of the Blue Star line was reported as slight at the local offices of the American mail line, Seattle agents for the vessel. Word received by them from her captain, G. A. Griffin, indicated the vessel was proceeding on her way to Vancouver with power from three of her four boilers. The fire was reported to have damaged only one fire room.

The members of the crew injured by flames and steam were said to be recovering favorably and none was reported in serious condition. The men injured were: Second engineer, Houston; assistant Engineer Wallace and Firemen Shipley Irving, James Collins, Everett Gray and J. Foster. Fireman Tennison who was fatally injured during the battle with the fire was buried at sea this morning, the report said.
