

SOCIETY : RUTH MAE LAWRENCE Society Editor : HOME INTERESTS : TELEPHONE—ALL DEPARTMENTS 600 : CLUBS :

Turner Girl Bride At Ceremony Sunday

MISS DORRIS BARNETT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Barnett, became the bride of Ray Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Baker, at a pretty ceremony in the home of the bride's parents Sunday at high noon. The Rev. C. W. Pague of Yamhill, Oregon, officiated in the presence of a few immediate relatives and intimate friends of the bride couple.

The impressive single ring ceremony was read under an arch of autumn leaves. Miss Ethel Given played the wedding march as the bride couple took their places. Miss Eleanor Moore sang "I Love You." Autumn leaves, a red and white crepe paper were used effectively about the living rooms of the Barnett home.

The bride was gowned in a dainty frock of light rose silk crepe moire and she carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair ferns. Her only attendant, Miss Thelma Barnett, wore orchid georgette crepe and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

Ernest Baker, brother of the groom served as best man. An informal reception followed the ceremony. The wedding cake was cut by the bride. After a buffet dinner Mr. and Mrs. Baker left immediately for a wedding trip.

Miss Baker is a graduate of Turner high school and has been employed by the Oregon grain company of Portland. Mr. Baker is employed also by the Oregon Grain Company, as manager of the Aumsville store. Just before the wedding ceremony he was transferred to Portland after several years in Aumsville.

The young couple will be at home to their many friends after the sixteenth of October in their new home, 567 1/2 Linn avenue, Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Moll Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moll have been entertaining as their houseguests their daughter and grandson, Mrs. John C. Ferguson and son, Junior, of Newport, Mrs. Ferguson, Junior, of Newport, and Mrs. Pennington and Mrs. Sherwood of Toledo, motored to Salem Friday to attend the Neighbors of Woodcraft meeting; the three women being district officers of the organization. While in Salem, Mrs. Pennington and Mrs. Sherwood were guests of Mrs. Blackburn of Newport Tuesday afternoon, after Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Pennington had inspected the Newberg lodge Monday night.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Moll entertained with a family dinner, complimenting their daughter and grandson, and Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Erickson, of Newport, who motored to Salem for the day.

Card Party For Unitarian Women

Five tables of bridge were in play at the Lloyd LeGarde home on Court street Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. LeGarde and Mrs. George Trott entertained the women of the Unitarian church with their monthly card party. Mrs. W. A. Laidlaw won the high score prize. The second prize went to Mrs. J. H. Pollock and Mrs. C. A. Heigbo received the third prize. Mrs. Trott and Mrs. LeGarde served at the tea hour.

In the group were Mrs. Kenneth Fitzgerald, Mrs. C. A. Heigbo, Mrs. Clara McClure, Mrs. Keith Harris, Mrs. Myrtle Bradley, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. W. E. Feldman, Mrs. Martin Ferrey, Mrs. Thurma Guston, Mrs. G. H. Littlefield, Mrs. M. R. McDonald, Mrs. J. P. Pollock, Mrs. W. A. Laidlaw, Mrs. E. M. Heigbo, Mrs. Richard Saye, Mrs. Elizabeth Steiner, Mrs. M. B. Warstaff and Mrs. Trott and Mrs. LeGarde.

Reservations to Be Made Today

Reservations for the banquet and luncheon Friday night and Saturday noon at the Marion hotel when the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women will be hostess to the fifth annual conference of the Oregon state division of the association, should be made immediately with Mrs. A. C. F. Fry at 1539 W. with Mrs. L. G. Crommiller at 1435 M., or with Mrs. Milo Rasmussen at 2809 J, according to a request made by Mrs. W. W. Baum, president of the Salem branch.

They make it famous for comfort. Glaciously service adds to the hospitality you enjoy at this beautiful hotel... Hotel Fielding, 1539 W. MASON ST. SAN FRANCISCO

Youthful pianist, whose recital will open the series of Friday night concerts at the Y. M. C. A.

Gwendolyn Jarman - Kennel-Elis photo.

Recital Series To Start At "Y" Friday

THE first of the popular Friday night program series in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium will be held this Friday, October 19, beginning at 8:15 o'clock, with Miss Gwendolyn Jarman as the artist. Miss Jarman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman, is an accomplished pianist and is studying with Ruth Bradley Keiser of Portland and also at the Catlin school.

Farce Given at Chapter Meeting

Members of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were entertained with a one-act farce following their business meeting in the Masonic temple Tuesday evening. The play, entitled "What Fools We Mortals Be," was directed by Mrs. Susan Varty. Members of cast were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Niles, Mrs. Harriet Mercer, Mrs. B. B. Flack, Mrs. Frank Crawford, Mrs. C. C. Gabriel, Mrs. Addie Curtis, Mrs. L. M. Flagg, Mrs. William Merritt, Miss Edna McElhaney and Miss Jayne Wyatt.

Junior Guild Postpones Tea

Due to the sudden death of Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, the tea which the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church had arranged for Wednesday afternoon at the home of the guild president, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, was postponed to Wednesday, November 14. The date is the regular meeting day for the Junior Guild, and a business session will be held from 2:30 to 3 o'clock, with the tea, to which new members and old members and friends of the church are invited, to be held from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner was one of the original charter members of the Junior Guild group 39 years ago. Two other members of the charter group, who are living, are Mrs. Homer Smith and Miss Mary Chadwick.

Miss Ruth Clark entertained in her home Tuesday night with a dinner followed by a line party at the Capitol theater. Clever Halloween favors marked covers for Miss Helen Monahan, James Clark, Lee King of McMinville, and the hostess, Miss Clark.

You May Eat What you like and When you like it If you use Schaefer's Dispepsin Tablets Box 50c Schaefer's DRUG STORE 135 North Commercial St. Phone 197 Pnsalar Agency

Synodical Women Here For Three Day Session

APPROXIMATELY 200 women from the five Presbyteries in Oregon will attend the tenth annual meeting of the national and foreign Woman's Synodical of the Oregon Presbyterian Synod in Salem today, Friday and Saturday. The sessions to be held at the First Presbyterian church. The Salem Presbyterian missionary society, of which Mrs. E. G. Ford is president, has made general arrangements for the entertainment.

Sessions will be held throughout the forenoon, afternoon and evening of each day, with the main social feature of the conference a tea this afternoon in the C. P. Bishop home on Court street. In the receiving line will be Mrs. Norman Kendall Tully, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. L. M. Purvine, Mrs. Walter Pugh, Mrs. W. A. Schults and Mrs. Max Buren.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. George Pearce will pour, and Mrs. Ross Bidwell, Mrs. Cecil Swope, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. F. Tibbets and Mrs. Sam Probert will assist. Musical numbers will be given by pupils of Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Delegates are being entertained in Salem homes, and lunch and dinner are being served at low cost in the church dining room by women of the Court street Christian church, to allow Presbyterian women to be free for the sessions.

Musical numbers have been added to the afternoon and evening programs. Mrs. R. H. Robertson and Mrs. Henry J. Millie singing Thursday night, and William Wright Thursday afternoon and Friday afternoon. Miss Lena Belle Tartar will sing Friday night, accompanied by Leonard Chadwick on the violin and Mrs. Bernice Clarke-East on the organ. Dr. Barriek's male quartet will also sing.

Dinner Sunday at Sigma Tau House

Dinner guests at the Sigma Tau fraternity on Oak street Sunday afternoon included the Misses Elizabeth S. Gatte, Helen Pybus, Marjorie Mosier, Marjorie Miller, Evelyn High, Bernice Nelson, Marian Bretz, and Dr. Robert M. Gatte, Marshall Hartley, Eric Anderson, Raymond Miller, Francis DeHarport, Stearns Cushing, W. Mumford, Reeve Betts, Ian McIver, Sam Bowe, Olven Bowe, Paul Chalmers and Ruskin Blachford.

Fascinating—the ORIENT. Strange streets... strange costumes... strange customs... Canadian Pacific. 340 COURT ST.

Musical Program At Guest Day Luncheon

ELABORATE plans are being made for the musical study hour which will follow the guest day luncheon of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church, to be held Friday at 1 o'clock in the Emerson room of the church. Mrs. W. J. Minkiewicz, who has arranged the program numbers, will give a preview of the tone pictures contained in the compositions to be given during the afternoon.

- The program is as follows: Piano—Hungarian Rhapsody... Victor record... Ballade in A... Vocal Solos... St. Paul's Guild... Ladies of the G. A. R. social afternoon... Hayessville Community Club... Writers Are Guests Of Mrs. McIntyre

P. L. E. F. Club at Greenwood Home

Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. Peter Hansen and Mrs. Heintz are the hostesses to the P. L. E. F. club Tuesday afternoon in the Greenwood home. A brief business session was held, with the hostesses serving at the tea hour. Members present included Mrs. Alfred Erickson, Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. Irene St. Helens, Mrs. D. T. Dunston, Mrs. William Faulkner, Mrs. Ed. Knighton, Mrs. L. W. Follis, Miss Gertrude Thornton, Miss Lorraine Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Raffety, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis, Gibson Follis, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Follis.

Mr. and Mrs. Follis Are Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Follis entertained with a charming dinner party followed by several hours of cards in their home on Fairmont hill Tuesday night, honoring Mrs. Will Follis on her birthday anniversary. Mrs. C. D. Ruby of Sheldon, Iowa, Mrs. Ruby has just arrived in Salem to be a guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis.

Covers were placed at the dining table, which was decked with vivid autumn flowers and an elaborately decorated birthday cake, for Mrs. C. D. Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. Will Follis, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Follis, Miss Gertrude Thornton, Miss Lorraine Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Laird, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Raffety, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis, Gibson Follis, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Follis.

- WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES Thursday... United Artisan open meeting... Center street, 8 o'clock... Auburn Women's club... St. Paul's Guild... Ladies of the G. A. R. social afternoon... Hayessville Community Club... Writers Are Guests Of Mrs. McIntyre

Writers Are Guests Of Mrs. McIntyre

Members of the Writers Section of the Salem Arts League were guests of Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre in her home on Court street Tuesday night. Mrs. John Reid and Mrs. R. Prescott were additional guests. Mrs. B. L. Steeves read a clever essay, entitled "Alling." Dr. J. M. Canse reviewed the work he has been doing for the Oregon Historical quarterly, and read excerpts from his recent article in the Christian Advocate. Mrs. W. J. Franklin read an article on Albert Bigelow Paine and a poem by Mary Austin. Mrs. Blanche M. Jones read her original poem, "October," and Mrs. G. J. Lisle told of incidents which occurred on her recent trip to Idaho. Dr. Mary Rowland displayed new block prints. In addition to those who participated in the program, members present included Dr. F. C. Franklin, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus. Mrs. Steeves will entertain the writers in a fortnight.

At the Theaters

Coming to the Oregon Theatre today is the newest Tiffany-Stahl production, "Ladies of the Night Club," enacted by cast including Ricardo Cortez, Barbara Leonard, Lee Moran, Clary Fitzgerald and Douglas Gerrard. Directed by George Archainbaud from the story and scenario by Ben Grauman Kohn, "Ladies of the Night Club" tells of the rise to fame of the singing and dancing teams of Raggs and Revere. Joe Raggs has taught Dimples Revere all the steps he knows and therefore thinks he's the biggest half of the team, but it is Dimples who is offered a night club engagement and Joe who is tolerated in the act only because Dimples won't leave him. Everybody likes Dimples at the Bubble Over Cafe—Bossy Hart, the jolly hostess, Cyril Bathstowe, the "Mammy" singer, and George Merrill, their best customer. George "falls" for Dimples at first sight and falls in love, with her at first slap—for he finds she isn't the gold-digging kind and he can go and peddle his too-ready kisses elsewhere, for all she cares. How George and Joe court their Lady of the Night Club makes a story that is said to provide laughter and fun.

We Feature Style, Quality, Selection and Moderate Prices. KAY'S 460 State

Once more George Bancroft is playing the virile too fisted type of role so dear to his heart. In "The Drag Net," a sensational crook melodrama, now showing at the Elsinore theatre, Bancroft plays the part of a man who walks in constant peril and mocks at danger.

It was such a role in "Underworld" which transformed the dynamic Bancroft from the "smiling villain" of the screen to one of the foremost dramatic stars in motion pictures. It was another such part in "The Showdown" which again demonstrated Bancroft's great dramatic abilities. In "The Drag Net" Bancroft was directed by Josef von Sternberg, the man who directed him in "Underworld." Evelyn Brent and Fred Kohler, two other outstanding members of the "Underworld" cast are playing in the new picture as is William Powell, one of filmdom's outstanding villains. The Manhattan Players present "Johnny Get Your Gun," in conjunction with "The Dragnet."

War Mothers Meet At-Reigelman's

Salem War Mothers were entertained Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. G. Reigelman with an informal program of national patriotic songs, a talk on people and conditions in Washington, D. C., by Mrs. W. C. Hawley, a brief comment on the results of the war by Mrs. Flora Abbott, and a reading of an original poem by her son, Perry, by Mrs. Reigelman.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Reigelman was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. W. Beechler and Mrs. J. F. Humphreys. Flags and baskets of yellow chrysanthemums were arranged about the rooms and decked the tea table.

Miss Catherine Best was a special guest. Members present were Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, Mrs. Mark Skiff, Mrs. W. C. Hawley, Mrs. C. W. Beechler, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, Mrs. L. E. Bradford, Mrs. Carl Meyer, Mrs. O. A. Hoopes, Mrs. W. F. George, Mrs. J. F. Humphreys, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Mary Watson, Mrs. Jessie Crossan, Mrs. Minnedel Baker, Mrs. Flora Abbott, and the hostess, Mrs. Reigelman.

Subscription Offer For Old and New Subscriptions to The Oregon Statesman Daily & Sunday For a full year MAILED to any address in Marion, Polk, Linn, or Yamhill Counties. This Offer Good Only Until October 31 by Mail Only TODAY'S PAPER TODAY Before Oregon the NEW paper in the NEW day. Yes, before Oregon was a state—when there were Indians and gold rushes (and thing) the Statesman was being read in the capital of the territory and throughout the great Oregon country. Today, although it is 78 years old, the Statesman is younger than ever. Read it through. We'll be happy to have you take note of every feature of the New Statesman. Yet the Statesman is not old! Men may age, but newspapers possess a fountain of perpetual youth. Theirs is the dynamic of a great undertaking... each day life starts anew... there are new hopes to be fulfilled, fresh news to be told, yesterday's obligation well filled is supplanted by the newer, larger task of the present. Just so with the NEW Oregon Statesman. Proud of its past, conscious of the high responsibility such years of service entail, yet it must be For New or Renewal THE NEW OREGON STATESMAN SALEM, OREGON Please have the New Oregon Statesman sent to me by mail for one year in payment for which I enclose $3.25 in check, money order or currency. This special offer is for the Bargain Day Period only. Please check: New Subscriber [] Name... Renewal [] Address... Good only during Bargain period