Pictures Needed Principal Urges

Miss Bessie Shin, principal of the West Salem schools, spoke before the Community club Monday night on the lack of sufficient pictures for the new school, and the way to remedy the deficiency. An art exhibit, including good copies of the old masters suitable for school use, can be rented from the printers on certain dates. Miss Shin suggested that the exhibit be free, followed by a program given by the school children for which a small admission would be charged. The Community club met the tentative plan with enthusiasm and pledged their support. It is expected that the pictures will arrive near the middle of November.

Miss Anne Englehorn, of Third street, who works for the Roth Grocery company in Salem, left Sunday for Portland where she will spend part of her vacation.

Only one building permit was issued last week, according to Mrs. Maude Miller, city recorder, which was to G. H. Tracey for a $150 garage.

The painting of the Willamette river bridge is nearing completion. The wood work on the Polk county side is being done now, and that will finish the job.

WORKING WOMEN SELDOM LOSE A DAY'S PAY NOW

Strengthened by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

me to take it. I got one bottle and that helped me so much that I took one after another until I had taken nine in all. But now I just get a bottle when I begin to feel badly, for I must say the medicine sure helps me and women have been comforted every day. I will answer any questions anyone asks me, for I think your medicines are fine."—Mrs. R. C. HAZLETT, Station G., R. No. 3, Columbus, Ohio. Recommends the Compound Los Angeles, Cal.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was working in a factory and I was always on my feet, being the supervisor there. This caused my health to fall and I really was run-down very badly as I had no appetite at all and could not eat enough. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and also the Pills for Constipation. I have recommended them for several years and am safe in saying that probably 25 women have been helped through taking my advice. I am glad for you to use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. E. A. FRANKET, 1261 Cypress Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

Makes Life Sweeter

Children's stomachs sour, and need an anti-acid. Keep their systems sweet with Phillips Milk of Magnesia!

When tongue or breath tells of acid condition, correct it with a spoonful of Phillips. Most men and women have been comforted by this universal sweetener—more mothers should invoke its aid for their children. It is a pleasant thing to take, yet neutralizes more acid than the harsher things too often employed for the purpose. No household should be without it. Phillips is the genuine, prescription product physicians endorse for general use; the name is important. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. registered trademark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.
