Huskies and Webfooters All Primed for Today's Gridiron Classic

NORTHERN GRID TEAM WHIPPED

Southerners Tear Holes in Invaders' Line; First Period Scoreless

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19. (AP)—A mighty Stanford eleven, juggernauting down the trail toward the goal of the coast conference championship passed and pounded its way to a stunning 47-0 victory today over Idaho's husky Vandals.

Idaho's feeble efforts were crushed beneath a savage offensive that started with the opening kickoff. Before the crushing drive, the Vandal defense willed in the first quarter, sagged sharply in the second, and crumbled completely as the teams took the field for the second half.

Its line ripped to shreds and reeling under a dazzling aerial attack and a mystifying succession of reverses and fake reverses, the big team from the north, heaviest on the coast, fell a victim to the most disastrous rout a conference eleven has suffered in years.

Crowd Numbers 15,000
About 15,000 persons braved the chilly weather to see two of the teams that tied with Southern California for last year's conference title, dedicate the new Kezar stadium, recently enlarged to accommodate 60,000. When the crowd started trailing out before the last period was over, the Cardinals were still cleaving through the Vandals' ranks for touchdowns.

Six times Cardinal cleats made their mark in Idaho scoring ground. As many more times, the boys from Stanford failed where in sight of the rival goal line. On three of those occasions, the Vandals braced up in desperate rallies to stave off the Stanford rush and recover the ball on downs. Failure to complete passes within the shadow of the goal posts cost the redshirts three other touchdowns.

Idaho Far Outclassed
Stanford failed to score in the first period but had Idaho backed into its own territory throughout. In the second quarter, Idaho gave way before the powerful drives of the Cardinal backfielders and the first touchdown was chalked up. Lewis, substituting at right half crossed over for the first score. Before the game was over he had tallied three more items and made four tries for point after touchdown.

Coming on the field for the third quarter, the redshirts opened an offensive that brooked no opposition. Less than five minutes after play started they scored a touchdown. Lewis went over and also kicked goal. Chuch Smaling, who had replaced Fleishacker at quarterback, added six more points in the same period. Score by periods: 1 2 3 4 Fin. Stanford 0 7 13 27-47. Idaho 0 0 0 0-0

Out After Revenge

Peter PUND
CAPTAIN AND CENTER OF GEORGIA TECH'S "GOLDEN TORNADO."

By QUIN HALL
ONE of the first of the inter-sectional struggles which comes under the heading of being important occurs this Saturday when Knute Rockne leads his Irishmen to Atlanta, Georgia, to play Georgia Tech.

These inter-sectional clashes are becoming as popular as the fellow who evaded the custom officers on the Canadian border and came through with a whole carful. It's getting so that some of the teams play little else but inter-sectional games, but it creates interest in the gridiron pastime and makes tickets even more difficult to obtain—if that situation can be made worse.

Anyway, this classic between the Irish and the Golden Tornado is always looking forward to and this year, as usual, it will give the fans an early line on the strength of the two squads. Rockne has already been quoted as saying that he doesn't anticipate that the Irish will knock down the opposition as easily as they have been accustomed to doing, but then Rockne seldom brags. And for that matter what coach does? Georgia Tech, under the captaincy of Peter Pund, will make a valiant attempt to prove to Mr. Rockne that he wasn't far wrong in his predicting, come Saturday. Tech, it will be recalled, suffered its only defeat of last season at the hands of the Irish and it's no secret in Atlanta—even in parts of Atlanta away from the campus—that the Golden Tornado will be out for revenge in a big way.

It is pretty generally conceded that Georgia Tech will have the best team in the Southern Inter-collegiate Conference, and when it is realized that this particular Conference is made up of twenty colleges, such a concession is no small honor. She had an unusually strong team in 1927, and despite the loss of Captain Crowley and Hood, who made a name for himself as a tackle, it would seem that the experts have good ground for their prediction.

Last year's team was made up largely of sophomore material, and most of them are back in the moleskins this season. Pund, this year's captain, made quite a reputation for himself as a center last year and reports say that Tech will have an exceptionally strong line. In the backfield Coach Alexander will have at least two hard-driving backs who will be new to the circuit. These fellows, Lumpkin and Dunlap, were outstanding performers on the 1927 freshman team and they both possess speed and power.

Coach Alexander has Flueher, an especially good line coach, and Miller, a graduate from the noted Four Horsemen, to aid him in his work at Georgia Tech. This should assure the Atlanta school of a sound system of play.

While Georgia Tech, has a long schedule ahead of her and while Saturday's struggle with the Irish from South Bend will not count in the final standings of the teams in the Southern Intercollegiate Conference, the game, nevertheless, is one of the most important on the schedule of the Golden Tornado. A victory over the Rockne coached team will give Georgia Tech an added reputation not only in the South, but all over the country as well.

Last year Georgia Tech with seven victories and one tie game had but one touchdown scored against her in the games played against other Conference teams. The Tech defense was one of the outstanding features of play in the South and while four teams—Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Vanderbilt and North Carolina—finished their Conference games undefeated, Georgia Tech led the whole group in Conference victories—seven—while Tennessee and North Carolina were credited with five each and North Carolina won but four against Conference rivals.

The Golden Tornado always plays a hard game and under Pund great things are expected from the Atlanta school.

MEDFORD GAME ON BILL TODAY

Salem High Squad Arrives; Callison's Men Have Edge in Experience

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 19. (Special)—The Salem and Medford football teams will line up at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the high school gridiron here. The Salem team arrived here this afternoon.

The Medford team is in good shape with the exception of two backfield men. Melvin, quarter, and Harrell, half. Melvin will start the game despite injuries received in scrimmage practice Wednesday, but Harrell will be replaced by Garnett, an exceptional pass receiver.

Local followers of the game are confident that Medford will win, principally on the basis of greater experience. The teams are believed to be evenly matched in weight.

Record attendance is in prospect, fans planning to come from all parts of southern Oregon for a game on the result of which the state championship may be claimed.

AGGIE ROCKS BEAT ST. MARTINS TEAM

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 19. (AP)—The Oregon State college freshmen won their second game of the season here today when they downed the scrappy St. Martins college team of Lacey, Wash., 13 to 6.

All scoring took place in the first half, and in the later periods, neither team was able to make consistent gains. In the final period the visitors blocked a punt and uncorked a passing offense which kept the rocks worried until the final gun.

Venable scored in the first period for the freshmen after St. Martins had fumbled. Henderson missed for the point. Rockshot passed to McLaughlin over the line, evening the count after St. Martins had got the ball on a short punt.

In the second period Head scored for the rocks after a steady drive. Gordon converted.

Bucky Harris Signed Up as Detroit Tigers' Manager

DETROIT, Oct. 19. (AP)—Stanley (Bucky) Harris, former pilot of the Washington baseball club, signed as manager of the Detroit Tigers today, and his first act in assuming his new duties was to announce the acquisition of Roy C. Johnson, star outfielder of the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league.

The Detroit club is reported to have given $75,000 for Johnson who ranked as one of the leading players of the coast, where he played with the Seals during the last three seasons. A right handed thrower, Johnson bats left handed and finished the season with an average of .359. He also stole 25 bases and was rated as a fine fielder. He is 24 years old and weighs 175 pounds.

Announcement of the signing of Harris came two days after George Moriarty turned in his resignation as pilot of the club. Moriarty, Tiger third baseman, goes to Washington in the Harris deal.

Information as to the length of Harris' contract and its financial terms was withheld.

Harris, who led the Washington club to two pennants and a world's championship, was relieved of his managerial duties with the Senators at the close of the baseball season this year.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT CHEMAWA 20 TO 7

CHEMAWA, Ore., Oct. 19. (Special)—The Willamette university freshmen defeated the Chemawa football eleven by a count of 20 to 7 in a hard fought game here this afternoon. Ellis fullback for the yearlings, was an outstanding star of the game, with Clifford Meacham and Wilder, Indian halves, and Hoover, Indian center, doing the heavy work for the redskins.

Both sides made long gains by the overhead route, several passes being intercepted by each team. The freshmen made the first score of the game in the first ten minutes of play, receiving the ball from kickoff and carrying it down the field by a series of line plunges interspersed with forward passes. They made their other two scores in the third frame.

The redskins did their scoring in the third quarter, making a thrust from mid-field. The fresh made a determined stand on their own three yard line, but were edged after holding twice, and let the Indians through for the score. The redskins added one point by kicking goal.

In the next revolution down the field the rebels will probably throw away their guns, don head-gears and make an end run for the capitol.

RECORD CROWD WILL SEE GAME

Touch of Ptomaine Poisoning Not to Affect Play—ers, Says Baggy

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19. (AP)—Two football machines will be locked in high gear and started toward a head-on crash when the Washington and Oregon teams meet here on Multnomah civic stadium field tomorrow. Both head coaches completed tightening component parts late today.

John J. McEwan, Webfoot coach, sent his Oregon candidates through a short and speedy signal drill on the stadium field today and when the session terminated he said the boys were good.

Enoch Bagshaw, Husky coach, took his players on the field late in the afternoon. His charges ran and passed for a half-hour period and the preparations were completed.

Tomorrow marks the annual "big game" for both elevens, and it constitutes the 23d meeting since athletic relations were established, the Huskies hold an 11-0-8 victory advantage, with three games tied. An Oregon team has failed to win or tie since 1924.

Bagshaw arrived today with 25 players. Fifteen of this group were not quite physically fit because of a slight touch of ptomaine poisoning, caused Wednesday when they were affected by something eaten at training table. Charles Carroll, stellar halfback, and leading conference scorer in 1927, and Chester McGraw, substitute guard, were affected the most seriously. Bagshaw, however, refuted reports that the men would be handicapped seriously by this condition. All will be ready by game time.

Men Show Up Well
Carroll and McGraw reported for the final workout and, though slowed up to some extent, proved Bagshaw's report. Effects of the poisoning should be entirely gone by game time, the coach says.

Thurle Thornton, halfback, who was left at Seattle because of injury, reported to Bagshaw tonight. He is not scheduled to start, but may be used in an emergency.

Coach McEwan brought 44 of his players to the city and announced but one shift in the regular starting lineup. Charles Williams will go in at half instead of Bob Robinson.

Four hunters were fined from $50 to $100 each Wednesday at Ashland and Medford when found guilty of killing fawn deer and hunting at night.

Sixty tons of lime from the state lime plant has been ordered by County Agent McWhorter for delivery to farmers of Washington county.

OREGON GRIDIRON SQUAD IS HOPEFUL

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 19. (Special).—Oregon footballers have not been daunted by the increasing reports of Washington's strength, and the slightly practices on Hayward field have been marked by a silent determination to defeat Washington in the Multnomah stadium at Portland Saturday. Oregon is more equal to Washington this year than it has been for several seasons and the possibilities for a victory are bright.

Several changes in lineup are likely. John Donohue has been moved out of the line into the backfield, a change which adds further uncertainty to the starting backfield position. Donohue played halfback on last year's freshman team but was shifted to guard at the first of the season.

Ted Fope, regular end of last year, has moved up to a regular wing position, replacing Harry Wood. Woodward Archer has secured a permanent job on the other end and Marshall Shiede has fought his way into the varsity, and probably will get the call over McCutchan as guard next Saturday.
