

G. O. P. VICTORY HELD ASSURED

Greatest Landslide in History Predicted by Sen. Curtis in Talk

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 24.—(AP)—The "greatest republican victory in history" was predicted here by Senator Curtis, the party's vice presidential nominee, at a republican rally in Governor Smith's official home town.

Introduced at the noon meeting in the Odd Fellows hall, Senator Curtis spoke briefly in response to a noisy demonstration. The hall was filled and many stood outside to hear the speeches over loud speakers.

"Here in your capital and in the official home of your governor," Senator Curtis said, "I want to say I was greatly pleased to hear the 'Star Spangled Banner' played at our meeting instead of 'The Side Walks of New York.'"

"I have been in 30 states, including two southern states and it is my judgment that two weeks from today, the republican ticket will receive the greatest electoral vote ever given in the history of the country. I greatly appreciate the reception given me here and if it were not for my long standing rule of not speaking in the home of an opponent I would be tempted to talk politics today."

James H. MacLafferty, former assistant secretary of commerce, who has been traveling with the senator did the speaking duties, leaving the records of Herbert Hoover and the vice presidential nominee. The crowd stood and cheered for some time when the party entered the building and the senator a lusty hand when he was introduced.

300 YOUNG VISITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 24.—(AP)—Approximately 300 boys and girls, each an expert in scientific agriculture, home economics, or livestock raising, from Montana, Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, will be guests of the port of Portland and the commission of public docks, on a two-hour excursion of the Portland harbor Tuesday afternoon, November 6.

Through co-operation of J. H. Polhemus, general manager of the port of Portland, and Ira F. Powers, of the dock commission, with the stock show management, arrangements have been completed for this educational excursion as part of the program of hospitality that will be extended during stock show week, to the star members of "Four H" clubs from six states who will come to the Pacific International event to compete for nearly $6000 in premiums to be awarded in the numerous classes of the boys and girls' clubs division of the big diversified stock show.

BOURBON OLD GUARD RESENTS MR. BORAH

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 24.—(AP)—U. S. Senator Borah's political appearance in Texas was attacked in a statement here by Governor Dan Moody.

"I don't believe we need this kind of spell-binder to arbitrate the family difference that exists among democrats in this state," the governor said of Borah, who spoke under anti-Smith auspices in favor of Hoover for president.

"Last week I said I regretted the importation of an enemy of Woodrow Wilson to disseminate republican propaganda in this state, which had so loyally supported President Wilson and his policies. I notice that Senator Borah says that he has been misunderstood and that he was not an enemy of Wilson. When Senator Borah made his speech in April of 1917, condemning the selective service act and terming it Prussianism, militarism and contrary to the fundamentals of free country, he did not talk or act like a friend of Wilson, then the undisputed leader of a mighty nation."

The St. Louis Cardinals seem to be to world series baseball what the Portland team is to the Pacific Coast league. A post-season series between St. Louis and Portland to determine which can outboob the other might be nice carnivals, was found in a melancholy way.—Eugene Register.
