Ashford Magee Dies At Salem Daughter's Home
Ashford H. Magee, 84, died Saturday night at 6:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. G. Keck, 1507 State street, following a stroke which he suffered shortly after arriving in Salem Saturday. Mr. Magee had made occasional visits to the home of his daughter here, and Saturday morning started by himself as usual, making the trip by stage. He had come as far as Eugene, where he changed stages, when he felt the stroke, but came on to Salem, even walking to the Keck home where he died later.

Mr. Magee was a native of Peoria, Ill., and a Civil war veteran. Funeral services will be held at the Rigdon mortuary at 1:30 o'clock, Wednesday, Rev. F. C. Taylor officiating. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Keck and Mrs. J. M. Burk of Berkeley, Calif., one grandson, Wendell M. Keck of Salem; and the following brothers and sisters: Noah Magee, Boise, Ida; G. E. Magee, Los Angeles; Mrs. G. W. Fisher, Los Angeles; Mary Magee, Beatrice, Nebraska; and Mrs. Maynard Spink.

NUMERAL CLUB HAS ITS FIRST MEETING
The girls' numeral club of the Salem high school, with a membership of 65 50-point holders and four who have the big "O" for accumulating 100 points for athletic work, held the first meeting of the year during the activity period Monday morning. Nominations for head of major sports were made and other business discussed, including selection of a suitable name for the club and the year's project to find some way in which the girls may have towels furnished for showers following each class. As it is at present, the girls bring their own towels which does not work satisfactorily. With 400 girls taking gymnasium classes twice a week, it was pointed out that cost of laundering the towels reached $40 a week. Della Carter is president of the group; Gertrude Winslow, secretary; Beryl Hulsey, sergeant at arms and Volma May, treasurer. Mrs. Grace Wolgamott and Mrs. LeVerne Lapham of the girls' physical education department met with the club.

OFFICIALS STOP DIAMOND "RUSH"

With the arrival of postal officials, a diamond "rush," which followed the abandonment of the wrecked mail plane in which William C. Hopson lost his life near Polk, Pa., came to an end. More than 70 diamonds of various sizes are believed to have been recovered from the plane, which was bound for Cleveland from New York. Photo shows workers searching for diamonds at the spot where the plane fell.

Birthday Party At Elliott Home Given Saturday

MONMOUTH, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. R. D. Elliott entertained a group of children Saturday afternoon at a birthday party for Betty Lou Elliott who was six years old that day. Miss Ida Mae Smith, critic teacher and Miss Juanita York, student teacher, were invited with these smaller guests: Louise Hamar, Barbara Ann Cornell, Edna and Clara May Haller, Florence and Jean Ayres, Dorcas Pollan, Beverly Morlan, Wanda Ross, Constance Riddell, Virginia Craven, Margaret Gentle, Marjorie Chambers, Betty Jean Petrie and Dorothy May Arnold. Out of door games were played, and birthday cake served in a thrilly atmosphere of witches and goblins made the occasion a hilarious one.

Pheasant Hunt Draws Portland Folk For Visit

MONMOUTH, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith came especially to hunt pheasants, stating that for the past quarter of a century he has secured enough birds in this section, annually, for a pheasant feed at the home of the Misses Butler, and the occasion is one to which he looks forward with enthusiasm. For nine years Mr. Smith was cashier of the First National bank at Monmouth. At present he is a Portland representative of the Universal Mortgage company.

Quitter? No!

For when State Senator Joe Dunne discovered that his Motor Vehicle License Reduction bill was unfavorable to the small-car owner, extremely favorable to owners of expensive cars, and certain types of commercial vehicles, had halted much needed highway construction, and threatened a $4,500,000 loss of Revenue, He Repudiated It!

Art Exhibition Date Announced

Miss Beanie Shinn, principal of the West Salem schools has announced the date for the showing of 150 beautiful reproductions of art masterpieces from all over the world as November 20 to 23. They will be hung in the Community club hall in the basement of the Ford Memorial Methodist church. On the night of the 23rd a program will be given by the school children and each room is now working on their number or numbers. It is planned to have the art exhibit between 7 and 8 and the program between 8 and 9:30. Candy will be sold and admission to the program charged in order to raise money to buy pictures for the West Salem schools. A description of each picture accompanies the exhibit and Miss Shinn is having each room study from 10 to 20 pictures a day until the exhibit so the children can better understand and appreciate them when they are here.

The Halloween circus given Friday night at the Community hall by the Epworth league furnished exciting amusement to the large crowd that attended. From the time the door was entered, where stood a person warning all to keep smiling until the last hot dog was eaten, the crowd kept on the move. There were side shows, booths for advice, palm reading and fortune telling, stands where coffee, doughnuts, pies, elder and candy could be bought. In the corner curtained off was the ring where boxing and wrestling matches were held by the younger boys in West Salem. Wendell Sellon was the referee. This was Followed by a pie eating contest which was won by Enoch Maerz. The circus was a benefit and the proceeds went towards the new carpet for the church.

The Ford Memorial Methodist church of West Salem organized a choir Wednesday night. Dr. H. C. Eppley of Salem helped the Rev. M. A. Groves in his first meeting. Mrs. Ralph Sebern acted as organist. Many people attended and a great deal of interest was shown.

GYMNASIUM CLASS DATE IS CHANGED

WOODBURN, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special)—Women's gymnasium classes being held every Thursday night from 8 to 9 in Forrester's Hall will be held this Thursday night as usual because of Halloween, but after October 31, the class will be advanced to the same time on Wednesday evening. The change has been made in co-operation with the churches of Woodburn who hold meetings on Thursday evenings. The change also applies to the women's clog dancing class which will be held from 7 to 8 o'clock on Wednesday night after Halloween. About 20 women have taken advantage of the gymnasium classes, some coming in from Monitor to attend. The majority of these also take clog dancing which precedes the gym work. Mrs. Ray O. Wolf, instructor has classes in natural dancing, ballroom and clog dancing for children and adults.

The handsome sum of $377,300, proceeds of the sale of Indian lands to private parties, will be distributed this fall by the government to the 1258 Indians on the Klamath reservation.

E. L. Skog of Empire and H. F. Hermanson and Elmer Pederson of Marshfield have filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk at Coquille for the Coos Bay Pilots, with capital stock of $5.

Crowd greets million-dollar censurer on his return home. They must have thought he still had some of the money.—Dayton News.
