

BEARS TAKE LONE TOUCHDOWN FROM HUSKIES

Huskies Fight Hard But Lose on Forward Pass In Last Period of Game

Associated Press Sports Writer
By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
STADIUM, Seattle, Wash., Nov. 10.—(AP)—On the short pass that flipped through the gathering dusk as the minutes cut into the final quarter, rode a California victory today and the Bears romped off the field, conquerors of Washington Huskies 6 to 0.

Nine yards to go and one down to make it, Stanley Barr, left half back, tossed the ball into the waiting arms of Eilsan, and the little quarterback, diving under a Husky tackler, slid into scoring ground.

Thus California crushed another rival in the tremendous drive that has carried it through a great season, undefeated and tied for the coast conference title. Only one barrier remains, Stanford two weeks from today, and the Bears can complete the year on at least seven terms with Southern California.

Trapped in the mud of his own trap, the Husky forward pass was left before a California Bear. He had outplayed and outgained for two periods and much of the third quarter. In the closing minutes of the third, the Bears got their chance and seized it. A recovered fumble, when Chuck Carroll, Washington half back, dropped Barr's kick, paved the way. It gave California the ball on its rival's 42 yard line, and from that point the squad from the south went into action.

Pass Is Last Resort
Straight line plunges brought the oval to the 20 yard line and a first down as the period ended. The Husky wall stiffened momentarily and three times the Bears battered at it for but one yard gain. Barr's effective pass followed and Washington was on the losing end of a great battle. The try for point failed but it mattered not. Six points proved enough to win on a field made slippery and treacherous by heavy rain that fell throughout the first half.

The fifteenth annual clash between these traditional rivals of the north and south sections of the coast, was as bitterly contested as any since they first came together in 1904.

It brought out a band of Washington Huskies rejuvenated overnight. Ingridiously trounced in two previous starts, the Washington team that lined up against the Bears today was one of unmeasured power — so powerful that California's surprised warriors were left gasping at the end of the half.

Muskie Show More Power
In yardage gained, Washington far outclassed its foe. Exactly 130 yards were posted by the northerners while California's passes and plunges at the line resulted in 89 yards. Carroll, premier Husky half with 91 yards, alone gained more than the entire opposing eleven. Stombaugh, running mate of Carroll, was not far behind with 60 yards. The Husky offensive ripped off ten first downs compared to six for California.

Some 20,000 persons huddled in the stands to receive a drenching in the first half of the game. Lineup and summary:
Washington California
Snider I. E. Avery
Jessup I. T. Gil
Hubba I. G. H. G.
Kraets C. C. Riegels
Greger R. G. Schwartz
Westworth R. T. Bancroft
Squire R. P. Philips
McCann Q. B. Eliss
Carroll L. L. Newman
Stombaugh R. H. Barr
Daiguest F. B. Schmidt
Washington 0 0 0 0 0
California 0 0 0 6 6
California scoring: Touchdown, Eilsan.

MICHIGAN AND NAVY BATTLE TO 6-6 TIE

By BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE STADIUM, Baltimore, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The game between Michigan and Navy to reach a decision in their football games, so the affair was called a six to six draw. Neither the Midwestern nor the Wolverines had a place kick in their bag of tricks, and an extra point was to be had for the asking and a well directed boot.

The crowd of 35,000 was bored by the first two periods but got its money's worth in the second half.
Navy got a bit more of a run for its money than the visitors, for its trying for the big point that would have won the game got as far as the posts but well to one side. The Michigan kick was smothered by a flock of angry midshipmen before it could get straightened out and on its way. Each team was trying to win any way it could and when the touchdowns proved scarce they resorted to attempted field goals but Michigan's one effort and two for Navy were merely kicked for exercise.

Scientists Meet On Wednesday

Wednesday evening meetings of First Church of Christ, Scientists of Salem which is located at the corner of Liberty and Chelamketa streets, are held at 8 o'clock and include testimonies of healing, experiences and remarks on Christian Science. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Speaking of farm relief, it is always notice able when the city comes start for home.—Providence Journal.

Californians No Match For Vicious Cougar Eleven

SPORTS Oregon Statesman EVENTS

CADETS BEATEN BY NOTRE DAME

Army Team Loses Hard Fought Game 12-6 to Fighting Irish Eleven

By ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
YANKEE STADIUM, New York, Nov. 10.—(AP)—They may not call them the Four Horsemen this year, but the Roaming Riders of Notre Dame, playing with all the dash and skill of their famous predecessors, dealt death and destruction today to the championship hopes of the vaunted West Point eleven.

In one of the most thrilling and dramatic finishes any gridiron grapple has witnessed this season, the Hoosiers uncorked a smashing attack that beat the Cadets, 12 to 6, in a sensation upset.

One of the greatest crowds in eastern football history, a jam of 85,000 spectators, roared from the vast stretches of the big ball park as Knute Rockne's warriors outplayed, outgained and outgeneralled the soldiers in unexpected decisive fashion.

Pass Wins Game
Notre Dame won the game with a spectacular 45 yard forward pass, thrown by Johnny Niemiec to Jack O'Brien in a desperate thrust at the army goal in the final quarter but it took all the defensive ability of the Hoosiers, as well as the final whistle, to prevent the Cadets from tying the score in the last minute of play.

The thrills that were packed into the last half came to a climax as Red Cagle, the army's great ball-carrying ace, raced 55 yards up the field from kickoff. He evaded the sound end to the Hoosier ten yard line. Here the famous redhead, who had engineered army's first and only score, was withdrawn and the best his successor, Hutchinson, could do was work his way to the one yard line before the game ended.

Another few seconds and the army might have tied the count and had a chance to win, by booting the extra point, but this hope was blasted, just as the Hoosiers had previously frustrated most of the army's attacks.

Close as the cadets came to making it a draw, they nevertheless, taking the game as a whole, were outplayed by a wide margin to the confusion of critics and astonishment of most of the crowd. The greatest thing they reached this season, got the jump on the soldiers from the start, kept them on the defensive throughout the scoreless first half and displayed an attack that was superior in nearly every department.

Cagle was the one bright star in the otherwise total eclipse of this powerful army army as it was repeatedly battered back, and Cagle, while he had comparatively few chances to get loose, flitted across the gridiron brilliantly enough to demonstrate his All-American class.

It was Cagle, with a 20-yard dash off tackle and a sensational 41-yard pass thrown to Messinger, that paved the way for Johnny Hurrell to plunge over for the first touchdown of the game in the third period. It was Cagle who repeatedly brought down Hoosier ball-carriers after they had punctured the wobbling Cadet line. And it was Cagle who almost single-handedly pulled the game out of the fire with his thrilling dash in the closing moments of the game.

Job Too Big, Though
But Red couldn't do it all by himself. The Hoosiers had too much punch and drive for the Cadets to stop consistently. They came back, after army had scored, with a smashing 37-yard march, begun after being benefited by a 15-yard penalty that culminated in the tying touchdown in the third quarter. Jack Chevigny took the ball over on fourth down from the one yard line after three rushes had been stopped.

It was a similar crisis, fourth down and this time, 25 yards to go, when Notre Dame scored its second and deciding touchdown in the fourth period. The Hoosiers had driven to the Cadet 16-yard mark but Jack Chevigny, plunging half back, fumbled a bad pass and had to be carried from the field after the scramble in which he recovered it for a 16 yard loss.

Making a desperate gamble, Niemiec dropped back to his 45 yard line and hurled the ball toward the goal line and a racing substitute end, Jack O'Brien leaped high just as he reached the goal line, juggled the pigskin for a moment, then clutching it firmly as he plunged across the last chalk mark with a swarm of army tacklers on him.

The army forward wall that had withstood all previous shocks in helping to pile up six straight victories was consistently outcharged and Fred Polls, plunging full back, repeatedly whirled and dashed through gaping holes for substantial gains.

Notre Dame rolled up 14 first downs by rushing to five for the Cadets.

The body of Edward H. Stebbins, 69-year-old bachelor, as found a few days ago near his house at the head of Cottonwood creek in Umatilla county, where he had operated a small farm for several years.

If fleet-footedness is an asset in football then Owen Rowe, above, halfback, of Brigham Young college, Provo, Utah, ought to be a star. Rowe is called the fastest sprinter in the Rocky mountain region, and is doing his speed stuff on the gridiron.

HEADLINE BOWLERS IN DECISIVE GAME

Leaders in the City bowling league, the Capital City Bedding company and Elks teams, which are separated by only one game in the percentage column, will meet in a particularly decisive match at the Winter Garden alleys Tuesday night. The City league will bowl at 7 o'clock Tuesday night instead of Monday night on account of the Armistice day celebration.

Present standings in the bowling leagues and the schedules for this week are:

City League
	W. L.	Pct.
C. C. Bedding Co.	16	8 .667
Elks	15	9 .633
O'Leary's	12	12 .500
Reo Flying Clouds	10	14 .417
Man's Shop	10	14 .417
Schell's	9	15 .375
Tuesday night, 7 p. m.
O'Leary's Legionnaires vs. Schell's Men's Wear, Reo Flying Clouds vs. Man's Shop, Elks vs. Capital City Bedding company.

Club League
	W. L.	Pct.
Elks Cubs	12	3 .800
Associated Oil	7	5 .583
Nelson Druggists	5	7 .417
Lions	7	8 .466
Wolverines	6	9 .400
Western Auto	5	10 .333
Wednesday night, 8 p. m.
Supply vs. Lions; Wolverine vs. Associated Oil; Nelson Druggists vs. Elks Cubs.

Commercial League
	W. L.	Pct.
Barr Plumbers	13	2 .866
C. C. Bedding Cubs	11	4 .733
Valley Motor	6	6 .500
Chevrolet	6	9 .400
Weed's Auto Co.	6	9 .400
General Oil	0	15 .000
Tuesday night, 8:30 p. m.
Wood's Auto company vs. Barr Plumbers; C. C. Bedding Cubs vs. Chevrolet; Valley Motor vs. General Oil.

Business Men's League
	W. L.	Pct.
New Statesman	11	4 .733
Sanitary Dairy	9	6 .600
Roth's Grocery	9	6 .600
Stiff's Furniture	8	7 .533
Fairmount Dairy	6	9 .400
Montgomery Ward	2	13 .103
Thursday night, 8 p. m.
New Statesman vs. Montgomery Ward; Roth's Grocery vs. Sanitary Dairy; Fairmount Dairy vs. Stiff's Furniture.

Bankers' League
	W. L.	Pct.
Capitol Theatre	5	1 .333
Ladd & Bush	3	3 .500
Headquarters	3	3 .500
Western Paper	1	5 .167
Friday night—Ladd & Bush vs. Headquarters Battery; Capitol Theatre vs. Western Paper; Converting company.

Oklahoma Falls Victim Of Hard Nebraska Drive

OWEN FIELD, NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Nebraska's juggernaut crushed the Oklahoma Sooners in their homecoming football game here today 44 to 6. The mighty huskers kept the pigskin in the enemy area the greater part of the time and scored almost at will.

BOISE BATTLE LURE TO TEAM

Keene Takes 22 Men Into Enemy Camp to Avenge 1927 Defeat

The Willamette university football squad, 22 players and Coach "Spec" Keene, left Salem Saturday forenoon, witnessed the W. S. C. L. A. game in Portland that afternoon, and boarded the train last night headed for Boise, where it will meet College of Idaho Monday afternoon.

With a badly crippled and battered squad which has too many hard games behind it to be at its best for this one unless the long trip performs a miracle such as journeys of this kind have accomplished for other football teams in the past—Willamette's chances of victory are not rosy.

A year ago in Salem, College of Idaho defeated Willamette 6 to 0. Breaks figured in the result to some extent, but it was the one game in which Willamette was really outplayed. College of Idaho won the championship, without suffering a conference defeat.

This year College of Idaho has already been defeated by College of Puget Sound, which in turn lost to Willamette. That would indicate Bearcat supremacy, but the differential of distance and altitude must be taken into consideration along with the condition of the rival elevens. College of Puget Sound was pointed to beat College of Idaho; Willamette was pointed to beat College of Puget Sound; Idaho undoubtedly has been pointed to beat Willamette.

Both Sharkey and Ercel Kay, president of the club, are entered in the Oregon open tournament at Portland this week. While they expect to arrange for the appearance on the new course here of some of the world famous stars who are entered in the open competition.

The 14 veterans in the College of Idaho squad number among them Gilling, all conference center, the Capital City Bedding company and Elks teams, which are separated by only one game in the percentage column, will meet in a particularly decisive match at the Winter Garden alleys Tuesday night. The City league will bowl at 7 o'clock Tuesday night instead of Monday night on account of the Armistice day celebration.

Present standings in the bowling leagues and the schedules for this week are:

City League
	W. L.	Pct.
C. C. Bedding Co.	16	8 .667
Elks	15	9 .633
O'Leary's	12	12 .500
Reo Flying Clouds	10	14 .417
Man's Shop	10	14 .417
Schell's	9	15 .375
Tuesday night, 7 p. m.
O'Leary's Legionnaires vs. Schell's Men's Wear, Reo Flying Clouds vs. Man's Shop, Elks vs. Capital City Bedding company.

STANFORD ELEVEN WHIPS SANTA CLARA

STANFORD STADIUM, Cal., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Flashing a brilliant assortment of long, short and lateral passes, Stanford today brushed aside the Broncoes of Santa Clara by a score of 31 to 0. A crowd of 15,000 including President-elect and Mrs. Herbert Hoover, watched the game.

The Cardinals found it difficult to make a yard through the husky Santa Clara line. Two drives were stopped deep in Santa Clara territory before Smalling whisked through right guard for 16 yards and a touchdown to clinch a Stanford march from mid-field in the second period.

Hoffman made the only conversion of the game, with a place kick. A moment later Santa Clara had her only opportunity to score. W. O'Daniels recovered a Stanford pass from Earl to Husky but the half ended.

Pittsburgh Wins By 25 To 0 Count

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 10.—(AP)—In a battle waged amid snow flurries and on a soggy gridiron, the University of Pittsburgh overwhelmed its traditional enemy, Washington and Jefferson, at Pitt stadium, 25 to 0, one of the smallest crowds of the season, 15,000 fans, saw the contest.

The public has developed such a liking for Lindbergh stories that it is manufacturing them.

"Fight" Promised Factor In Salem-Eugene Mixup; Good Crowd Is Expected

Sunshine filtered through between the clouds Saturday to brighten the scenery around Salem and was reflected from the smiling faces of Coach Louis Anderson and his Salem high school players as they faced the prospect of playing Eugene high Monday on a field which might not, after all, be a swordless one. The game starts at 2:30 p. m.

The crowd which attended the Salem-Albany game two weeks ago is expected to be eclipsed Monday, the game's attractions being two-fold. For one thing, it is the annual Salem-Eugene high tussle, always the big game of the season because it involves the two largest high schools in the Willamette valley. This appeal is heightened this year because there wasn't any game a year ago; Salem high partisans claimed it was because Eugene didn't have much of a team and wouldn't court certain defeat.

Then again it is the feature attraction of Salem's Armistice day celebration, and thus becomes an all-Salem affair, an occasion when Salem folk find a special reason for supporting their high school eleven, or, in the alternate year, the Willamette university eleven.

The American legion drum corps will parade and give a concert before the game opens and between halves.

On the basis of Salem's victory over Albany high, which held Eugene to a tie, the local team is considered to have an edge on the visitors, but advance predictions have never carried much weight in Salem-Eugene football games, because the keen rivalry converts the contests into a battle in which "fight" rather than science is the principal factor.

Stolen Bonds Are Found In Effects Of Dead Gambler

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The Evening World says today that in the estate of Arnold Rothstein, slain gambler and presumably included among the assets are the plunder of world famous burglaries and robberies.

In several safe deposit boxes, the World says were found "A great part of the $5,000,000 in bonds stolen in wholesale robberies of Wall street messengers and jewelers supposed to be loot from one of the Long Island millionaire country homes robbed in the same period.

When rain descended upon the Salem Golf club's newly completed course steadily for two days last week, members of the club were about convinced that they were through playing golf for this year. But Graham Sharkey, club professional, went out Saturday to look over the course and discovered that the rain had merely helped the course; there were no soft or muddy spots and the course will be ready for play today and Monday.

An Armistice day team tournament has been arranged, the players to be matched as they arrive at the course, Sharkey announces.

Both Sharkey and Ercel Kay, president of the club, are entered in the Oregon open tournament at Portland this week. While they expect to arrange for the appearance on the new course here of some of the world famous stars who are entered in the open competition.

RAIN FAILS TO PUT CRIMP IN GOLFERS

When rain descended upon the Salem Golf club's newly completed course steadily for two days last week, members of the club were about convinced that they were through playing golf for this year. But Graham Sharkey, club professional, went out Saturday to look over the course and discovered that the rain had merely helped the course; there were no soft or muddy spots and the course will be ready for play today and Monday.

An Armistice day team tournament has been arranged, the players to be matched as they arrive at the course, Sharkey announces.

Both Sharkey and Ercel Kay, president of the club, are entered in the Oregon open tournament at Portland this week. While they expect to arrange for the appearance on the new course here of some of the world famous stars who are entered in the open competition.

YALE IS TROUNCED BY MARYLAND 6-0

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Yale's supposedly powerful eleven was routed by a light but fast and wide awake Maryland team today by the score of 6 to 0. The Yale defense being one of the most unexpected upsets of the day anywhere in the country. Maryland had not been given a chance against Yale because of its poor early season showing, but the Southerners today completely outplayed and outgained the Blue eleven which appeared stale, slow and overrated.

The only touchdown was made in the third period. Snyder, full-back, and Madigan, center, were the stars of the victory for the southern eleven which turned back Yale's favored team, just as it did two years ago. Snyder scored the touchdown, and Madigan paved the way when he recovered the ball for Maryland after Haven had fumbled a Maryland punt on Yale's 12 yard line.

Stanford Babes Beat California Yearling Eleven

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—(AP)—A successful try for points by Grey, Cardinal tackle, after a touchdown in the first quarter was the margin of victory today and gave the Stanford freshman football team a 7 to 6 victory over the California Babes in the "little big game."

Stanford's victory gave the southern California yearlings the inter-collegiate championship of California.

A crowd of about 15,000 witnessed the game.

The public has developed such a liking for Lindbergh stories that it is manufacturing them.

COAST ALL CLEAR NINE IS CHOSEN

San Francisco Club Places Five on Mythical Western Aggregation

By VICTOR G. SIDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Tremendous drive in power, a real flash of speed here and there and an airtight infield; of such is the mythical aggregation of eleven stars who have been enrolled in the Pacific Coast league's baseball hall of fame as the most outstanding players in the circuit during the 1928 season.

The league's all-star team for 1928, selected by 21 sports writers of the Pacific coast at the invitation of President Harry A. Williams, follows:

Player	Position	Team
Johnny Bassler	P	Hollywood
Earl Sholes	C	San Francisco
Johnny Kerr	SS	Hollywood
Max McGaughlin	TH	Sacramento
Ken Lary	SS	Oakland
Dudley Lee	SS	Hollywood
Ray Johnson	IF	San Francisco
Earl Averill	IF	San Francisco
Sneed Jones	OF	San Francisco
Holtz Thurston	OF	San Francisco

Football Data

PACIFIC COAST
California 0; Washington 0.
Washington State 35; U. C. L. A. 0.
Southern California 75; Arizona 7.
Columbia State 14; Wyoming 2.
Stanford 31; Santa Clara 0.
Pacific University 19; Albany College 0.
Stanford Fresh 7; California Fresh 6.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN
Colorado College 28; Colorado Mines 6.
Montana State 14; Wyoming 2.
Denver University 29; Colorado each 11.
Utah Aggies 35; Western State Teachers 0.

MIDDLE WEST
Iowa 14; Ohio 7.
Duke Motors 28; Columbia 6.
South Dakota State 20; North Dakota State 0.
Illinois 14; Butler 0.
Drake 20; Washington 0.
U. of Detroit 29; Michigan State College 0.

WISCONSIN 25; Chicago 0.
Minnesota 11; Indiana 12.
Miami 18; Oberlin 0.
Creighton 7; Utah 7 (tie).
North Dakota 6; South Dakota 0.
Grinnell 9; Iowa State Teachers 0 (tie).
Nebraska 44; Oklahoma 6.

EAST
Navy 6; Michigan 6 (tie).
Brown 14; Dartmouth 0.
Duke Motors 28; Columbia 6.
Notre Dame 12; Army 6.
Columbia 14; Johns Hopkins 13.
Penn 7; Harvard 0.
Carnegie Tech 13; Georgetown 0.
Amherst 34; Trinity 0.
Pittsburgh 29; Washington Jefferson 0.
West Virginia 32; Oklahoma Aggies 0.
Princeton 25; W. & L. 12.
Maryland 6; Yale 0.
Penn State 50; George Washington 0.
Holy Cross 15; Boston University 0.

LOVELL 20; Haskell 0.
Louisiana State 19; Mississippi 6.
Texas 6; Baylor 0.
Alabama 14; Kentucky 0.

Score by periods:
Washington State 6 13 0 19—38
U. C. L. A. 0 0 0 0—0
Scoring Touchdowns: for Washington State: Horan 2; Jones (sub for Horan) 1; Smith (sub for L. Horan); Linden (sub for Rohrer).
Try for point after touchdown: Washington State: Maskell, MacDonald (sub for Lainhart) by end run.

Officials: Referee, Sam Dolan. Corvallis; umpire, Bobby Morris. Seattle; lineman, H. Badenoch. Portland; Field judge, Shy Huntington, Eugene.

Georgia Tech 11 Whips Vanderbilt

GRANT FIELD, ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Georgia Tech blighted Vanderbilt's southern conference football championship hopes here this afternoon by administering a decisive 19-7 defeat to the Commodores. Vanderbilt scored its only touchdown in the final period on a sensational 85 yard run by Brown, a line-man.

Officials: Referee, Sam Dolan. Corvallis; umpire, Bobby Morris. Seattle; lineman, H. Badenoch. Portland; Field judge, Shy Huntington, Eugene.

Stanford Babes Beat California Yearling Eleven

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Nov. 10.—(AP)—A successful try for points by Grey, Cardinal tackle, after a touchdown in the first quarter was the margin of victory today and gave the Stanford freshman football team a 7 to 6 victory over the California Babes in the "little big game."

Stanford's victory gave the southern California yearlings the inter-collegiate championship of California.

A crowd of about 15,000 witnessed the game.

The public has developed such a liking for Lindbergh stories that it is manufacturing them.

On the basis of Salem's victory over Albany high, which held Eugene to a tie, the local team is considered to have an edge on the visitors, but advance predictions have never carried much weight in Salem-Eugene football games, because the keen rivalry converts the contests into a battle in which "fight" rather than science is the principal factor.

W.S.C. DEFEATS UCLAS 38 TO 0

Washington Aggregation Picks Holes at Will in Opponents' Line

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10.—(AP)—An advance of Cougar power, a real flash of speed here and there and an airtight infield; of such is the mythical aggregation of eleven stars who have been enrolled in the Pacific Coast league's baseball hall of fame as the most outstanding players in the circuit during the 1928 season.

The league's all-star team for 1928, selected by 21 sports writers of the Pacific coast at the invitation of President Harry A. Williams, follows:

When rain descended upon the Salem Golf club's newly completed course steadily for two days last week, members of the club were about convinced that they were through playing golf for this year. But Graham Sharkey, club professional, went out Saturday to look over the course and discovered that the rain had merely helped the course; there were no soft or muddy spots and the course will be ready for play today and Monday.

An Armistice day team tournament has been arranged, the players to be matched as they arrive at the course, Sharkey announces.

Both Sharkey and Ercel Kay, president of the club, are entered in the Oregon open tournament at Portland this week. While they expect to arrange for the appearance on the new course here of some of the world famous stars who are entered in the open competition.

The Cardinals found it difficult to make a yard through the husky Santa Clara line. Two drives were stopped deep in Santa Clara territory before Smalling whisked through right guard for 16 yards and a touchdown to clinch a Stanford march from mid-field in the second period.

Hoffman made the only conversion of the game, with a place kick. A moment later Santa Clara had her only opportunity to score. W. O'Daniels recovered a Stanford pass from Earl to Husky but the half ended.

Pittsburgh Wins By 25 To 0 Count

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 10.—(AP)—In a battle waged amid snow flurries and on a soggy gridiron, the University of Pittsburgh overwhelmed its traditional enemy, Washington and Jefferson, at Pitt stadium, 25 to 0, one of the smallest crowds of the season, 15,000 fans, saw the contest.

The public has developed such a liking for Lindbergh stories that it is manufacturing them.

On the basis of Salem's victory over Albany high, which held Eugene to a tie, the local team is considered to have an edge on the visitors, but advance predictions have never carried much weight in Salem-Eugene football games, because the keen rivalry converts the contests into a battle in which "fight" rather than science is the principal factor.

Stanford Babes Beat California Yearling Eleven