WEDDING FAILS TO HALT SPEECHES

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, deputy U. S. attorney general, doesn't permit a wedding to interfere with her political activities. When she went to the Twin Cities to attend the wedding of Miss Laura Volstead, left, above, daughter of the "father of prohibition," Andrew J. Volstead, former congressman from Minnesota, and Carl Lomen, she made talks for the Republican party in St. Paul and Minnesota. Inset is of her daughter, Dorothy, who thoroughly enjoys traveling with her mother during the campaign.
