D'Arcy Awarded $400 Judgment In Rental Suit

P. H. D'Arcy won a $400 verdict against A. B. McKillop on the opening day of the November term of circuit court here Tuesday. D'Arcy was suing for rent which he claimed was due him from McKillop for use of the space in which the Royal cafe-terea was operated. The case had held over from the last term of court due to the fact that some of the chief witnesses were ill at that time and could not appear.

Study Classes to Meet Tonight

Classes in child study sponsored by the American Association of University Women will hold their first study periods tonight. Women interested in the pre-school child study will meet at 7:30 o'clock in the Salem clinic in the First National bank building, with Mrs. P. H. Acton as leader. Those interested in the adolescent child study will meet with Mrs. Roy Klein at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. All women interested, whether previously enrolled or not are invited to meet with the groups at this time.

The south circle of the First Christian church will sponsor a silver tea and apron sale in the church parlors Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock, the affair being open to the public. A program will be given at the tea hour with Mrs. G. W. Egin, Mrs. Otto Hendrick and Mrs. E. W. Macey in charge. Mrs. M. H. Viesko and Mrs. Henry Hobson will preside at the serving urns.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet for their monthly literary-social meeting at a 1 o'clock luncheon Friday in the Emerson room of the church building. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. Anna Tucker and Mrs. George Trotter. A travelogue will be the feature of the afternoon program.

EMANUEL WINS NOD OVER MIKE ARNOLD

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14. — (AP)—Armand Emanuel, San Francisco heavyweight, made a punching bag of big Mike Arnold of Denver, Colo., to take every one of the ten rounds of their bout here tonight and walk off with the decision.

Arnold tried hard to make a fight of it through the last five or six rounds but he was unable to cope with the shifty style of the San Francisco fighter. Emanuel, boxing circles around the lumbering Colorado fighter, hit him with everything he had.

Emanuel, making his first major appearance as a heavyweight, weighed 188 pounds while Arnold weighed 190.
