Thayer as director will also assist in the service and will give a prelude.

Banquet Thursday—Auxiliary Capital No. 11 of the Patriarchs Militant held a 6:30 o'clock banquet in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night. The banquet was followed by a special meeting in which the order was inspected by Major Alta Thibault of Portland. One Jean Burke of Grants Pass, made her official visit. There were also guests from Portland, Corvallis, Harrisburg and Silverton.

Plan Peace Series—The Young People's Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church will hold the first of a series of world studies on the theme of world peace at 6:30 o'clock tonight. Paul Ellis will lead the initial meeting, the topic to be "What Are We Doing to Encourage War?" The young people have invited the two other endeavor groups of the church and the public to meet with them at 5:45 o'clock in a pre-meeting for a home mission lecture and slides.

Legal Troubles Grow—The troubles of E. L. McDougal, Portland attorney, were added to Saturday when W. C. Winslow, Salem lawyer, filed a motion to strike his fourth amended complaint. This is the fifth complaint, including the defendant in the case of Z. G. Riggs vs. the New Jersey Fidelity company. The third amended complaint went to the state supreme court on a demurrer after Circuit Judge Kelly had overruled Winslow's demurrer to it, and Judge Kelly's decision was reversed. The motion filed Saturday recites that the fourth amended complaint is "in substance the same as the third." The suit has to do with Z. G. Riggs' attempt to recover from the insurance company certain sums that were recovered from him as a result of an automobile accident.

The sophomore girls' basketball team at Willamette university won the annual intercollegiate series last week, defeating each of the other classes. They won from the freshmen 23 to 21, from the juniors 14 to 9 and from the seniors 37 to 4.

The freshman team defeated the seniors by the overwhelming score of 63 to 9, and beat the juniors 19 to 12. The seniors won from the juniors in the closest game of the series, 23 to 22.

The tournament aroused more enthusiasm this year than ever before. The teams practiced steadily for five weeks, coached for the most part by Esther Lisle, a senior, and Leah Fanning, a junior. Personnel of the teams was:

Freshmen—B. Brown, Mosier and Moberg, forwards; Young, Fletcher and Bastridge, centers; M. White and McGoughy, guards.

Sophomores—Wechter a n d Pemberton, forwards; Van Winkle and Fugh, centers; Prescott, Edwards, Wagner, Beaver and Warnecke, guards.

Juniors—Fanning, Hutchison and Hildesheim, forwards; Huesman and Beecher, centers; E. Brown, Breithaupt and McGilvra, guards.

Seniors—Liere and J. White, forwards; Volstorff and Tucker, centers; Varley, Lisle, Hisey and Welch, guards.

Esther Arnold, referee, and Margaret Leavenworth, umpire, handled the games capably.

West Salem News

By Helen H. Rodok—Phone 2402-J

The Rev. M. A. Groves of the Ford Memorial Methodist church of West Salem will preach Sunday morning a sermon entitled "Prayer as a spiritual radio." Miss Sarah Bridgeman who lives at the Groves home will sing the solo. In the evening the Rev. George Oliver vice president of Willamette university will speak. Music will be furnished by Miss Ruth Bedford of West Salem.

A silver tea is to be given at the home of Mrs. Jack Gosser on Kingwood avenue Wednesday afternoon. An elaborate program is being planned by Mrs. Guy Nugent and Mrs. Fred Gibson who are in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Jack Gosser, Mrs. J. M. Hanby, and Mrs. Ben Williams are arranging the refreshments. This

In view of the scarcity of manure for heating the old fashioned manure hot bed, various ways have been considered in the past few years to use substitute fuel. Some firms are now manufacturing special small heaters which burn wood or coal to heat frames. The fuel hot bed is cheap and practical and with all probability some Oregon vegetable growers will use these modern methods, leaving manure when available to maintain soil fertility.—O.A.C.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—(AP)—The youthful German-American team of Jimmy Walthour of New York and Franz Ruelberg of Hamburg tonight won Chicago's twentieth international six-day race.

Makes Fat People Slim
New York Physician Perfects Simple and Easy Method of Reducing Weight
Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician, of 286 Fifth Ave., New York, announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the Doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without unnecessary change of diet or burdensome exercise. He also says that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief from the reduction of their superfluous flesh. The Doctor has offered to send, without charge, to anyone who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R.—adv.
