Capital City Observes Thanksgiving Most Informally

THANKSGIVING, that holiday of solemn joy and prayerful remembrance of blessings which comes to us with the tradition of being inaugurated three hundred years ago by our Pilgrim forefathers, will be observed with fitting solemnity in many Salem homes today. Innumerable family dinners are being held, with many out-of-town guests invited for the day. Informality and friendliness will characterize the festivities.

For the younger set, the football game this afternoon between Willamette university and Whitman college, will be the one exciting event. Friday night, the gay dance at the Castilian hall when members of the Mrs. R. L. White's ballet classes will entertain, will be outstanding for the entertainment of the many university students who are home for the week-end.

Mrs. J. C. Griffith is hostess in her home today for a slumber party. Bessie and her sons, Eugene and Evan, as guests, will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. E. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Soren and daughter, Suzanne, all of Portland; and for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoff, Miss Josephine Albert, Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith and children, Lora Kate and John Spaulding, and for the hosts, Mrs. Griffith.

Mrs. Reuben P. Boise are entertaining quietly with Mrs. Breyman Boise and their sons, Eugene and Evan, as guests. The family group being entertained at the Walter L. Spaulding home today includes Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, their children, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

An interesting dinner will be the one with which Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolz, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall, Miss Nina McNary and Richard Stolz, who is home from the University of Washington at Seattle for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford are hosts not only to their children but to a number of friends. Their guests include Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Gillette of Forest Grove, Miss Mildred Mill of Marshfield, Miss Evangelina Heinich of Yakima, Washington, Paul Chalmers, Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, and their sons, Roderick Blatchford of Rydewood, Washington, and Huskin Blatchford, who is a senior at the North Pacific Dental College at Portland.

At the T. B. Kay home, Mr. and Mrs. Kay have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Erceel Kay, and Mrs. T. B. Kay's father, C. A. Wallace, who is 80 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins will be hosts at Thanksgiving dinner to Mrs. Hawkins' mother, Mrs. A. M. Hawkins of Albany, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert McMurray and son, Bobby, of Portland, Mrs. McMurray and Mrs. Hawkins are sisters.

Another attractive affair will be the family dinner at the Fritz Slade home on Oak street, when Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Miss Mildred Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Crandall Watson, and Bill Slade will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade.

Among the prominent Salem people who are guests at out-of-town Thanksgiving festivities are Mr. and Mrs. P. Bishop who motored to Portland to be guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton are spending the day at the home of Mrs. Hamilton's aunt, Miss Cathie Stump, at Monmouth. Other guests in the group will include Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell and child of Portland.

Bethel Dorcas Club Meets Recently
Mrs. A. Nichols entertained members of the Bethel Dorcas club last week at their regular meeting. 15 members were present.

Plans were made for the Christmas meeting to be held December at the home of Mrs. Harry Boise. Club members voted to donate to the club the amount usually spent for individual gifts. This is to be used to purchase silver. A social was given recently, the proceeds of which were used to purchase additional china for the club.

Mrs. Stewart Is Guest of Relatives
Mrs. Josephine Parrish Stewart of Eugene will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in Salem as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward A. Stevens, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater. Mrs. Stewart is house chaperon at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the University of Oregon.

What! No Grass?

Those who went to the docks in Los Angeles, Cal., to welcome the girl reputed to be Hawaii's greatest native hula dancer were disappointed when Agnes Leihlehu Auld appeared, dressed in the approved continental style instead of grass. However, she may perform in her native attire before she returns to her home.

Dinner at Home of Mayor and Mrs. Livesley

Quite the most interesting evening affair of the week was the 22 cover dinner with which Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Livesley entertained in their home on Lincoln hill Tuesday night. The long dining table was charmingly centered with yellow pom pom chrysanthemums and bright cotoneaster combined with tall green tapers in silver holders. Thanksgiving novelties marked covers for Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Locke, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. David Byre, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, and the hosts, Mayor and Mrs. Livesley.

An evening of bridge followed the dinner with Mrs. Fry and Dr. Slade winning the high score prizes for the five tables in play. Mrs. Joy Turner Moses and a group of her pupils will offer the program at the meeting of the Mountain View Parent-Teacher meeting at the Mountain View school house Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Benton a sister of J. R. Benton who has been a house guest at the Benton home on Edgewater street, will leave Thanksgiving day for Portland where she will visit her brother, W. B. Benton. From there she will go to Spokane to visit her sister, Mrs. Harlow H. Dean. Miss Benton has just returned from China where she has been a missionary for the past five years. She is now on a year and a half furlough, six months of which is to be spent in resting and recuperating. Miss Benton witnessed war and many of the horrible things that have been happening in China in the past few years. Miss Benton at the end of her rest period will go about the country telling of her experiences and making a plea for help in that field. She was sent there by the national Holiness association which is a denominational, sending people from all churches for foreign service. The Charles Ruge cherry orchard on Edgewater street has recently been pruned.

Miss Claudine Gerth who is teaching in Lostine, in Willows county this year will be home for Thanksgiving. She will remain until Sunday night at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerth.

Ed Brock still continues in the same state of health and is able to sit up some of the time.

Sixth street between Kingwood and Gerth avenue, and Gerth avenue between Fifth and Sixth streets, and Seventh street between McNary and Patterson avenues have been graded and gravelled. Monday afternoon work was being done on Third street in front of the school house to drain the pond of water that is there.

E. C. Stewart is building two residences on the corner of Ruge and McNary avenues, which are to face on McNary. Mr. Stewart came to West Salem about a year ago and during that time has built eight houses. He has located his family here, and they are living on Third street just below Kingwood avenue.

C. C. Sloper is building a house on Kingwood avenue. He has started work on the basement already.

It was thought that work in the West Salem branch of the northwest cannery would be finished by Saturday, but the latest reports show that there is still too much fruit on hand and work will continue on into the next week.

The Southern Pacific have put in a switch leading to the Tracey Fuel yard in West Salem. It is to be used for the fuel for the mill.

Heirloom Quilt Shown to Guests At Bridge Party

ZENA, Ore., Nov. 28.—(Special)—Mrs. C. M. Purvine entertained Wednesday with a bridge party at her home. Chrysanthemums from her lovely fall gardens were prettily arranged about the rooms. Two tables of bridge were played. Mrs. Purvine exhibited a quilt which had been in the family since 1854. The quilting was exquisitely done and was much admired. In 1918 a "Society for the Prevention of Pauperism and Crime" was organized in New York.

"We buy a Piece at a Time"

THIS is the new plan in furnishings: one handsome piece of the kind you really want at the time you can afford it.

The true home is never ready-made. It grows at its own deliberate pace. That is one reason why a piece at a time is such a natural and successful plan. There is no expediency about furniture bought in this way. It really expresses your own personal taste, and the result is harmony and individual charm.

You will find in our showrooms many a beautiful piece to set off your present furnishings or make the nucleus of a charming room. Real craftsmanship goes into the making of our fine furniture, yet our prices are invariably moderate. Why not begin at once? Let us show you our selection in all its variety and beauty.
