IOWA TORNADO DEVASTATES FARMS

A tornado which struck parts of three counties in Iowa, causing the death of one woman, injury to at least nine persons and heavy property damage, leveled this house at Troy Mills, Ia. Although this was the only town in the path of the tornado many farm buildings were wrecked and livestock killed. Corn still in the fields was badly damaged.

"Wolves' Shack" Is Name Given Confectionery

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Ore., Nov. 28.—(Special)—"The Wolves' Shack," is the name selected for the new Smith & Arnold confectionery opposite the normal campus. This name was proposed by Miss Orva McFrederick, a student from eastern Oregon who lives at Arnold Arms. As a prize she received $5 worth of merchandise from the store. Excitement ran high all the first part of the week as the name and the winner were unknown until issuance of the Lamron Tuesday noon.

VISITS WITH SON

HUBBARD, Ore., Nov. 28.—(Special)—Mrs. Susan Ott of Hubbard, is visiting her son, Mr. D. Ott of Salem. Mrs. Ott is living with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Painter. Mr. Ott is at present interested in the Health Ore mines of Tillamook county, although he has several other mining projects under development.

RURAL EDUCATION HEAD MAKES TRIP

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, Ore., Nov. 28.—(Special)—Mrs. Inez Miller, who heads the department of rural education at Oregon Normal school, returned Tuesday from an observation tour of California rural schools conducted by the state rural supervisor of California, Miss Helen Heffernan.

Other Oregon parsons included in the tour were: J. W. Crites of the state department of education of Oregon; Mrs. C. E. Mulkey, superintendent of Coos county schools, also two city superintendents and two one-room rural teachers of Coos county; Mrs. Samuel Harries, superintendent of Curry county schools; Mrs. Susanne Holmes Carter, superintendent of Jackson county schools, and one city superintendent and one rural teacher of Jackson county.

Convening at Redding, Cal., the party was taken by automobile to San Francisco, visiting demonstration one-room rural schools at Old Shasta, Union and Wyandotte; a five-room rural school at Woodbridge; and a nine-room rural school at Escalon. Individual socialized programs characterized the work observed in these schools. Another place of interest visited was the State Teachers' college at San Francisco, where teachers receive specific training in this type of work.

Mrs. Miller states that the trip was highly profitable from every angle and that the work being done at Fairplay and Oak Point, training centers of Oregon Normal school for rural teachers, is very like that which is in progress in the California rural schools she visited.

MENU HINTS

Pork Chops with Sweet Potatoes and Apples

Nut Muffins

Lemon Crumb Pie

Wouldn't you call this menu a little out of the ordinary? Try it on the family some day. If your family numbers four, two guests may also be fed with the recipes, if you provide plenty of chops.

Today's Recipes

Pork Chops With Sweet Potatoes and Apples—Arrange pork chops in deep baking dish and bake 30 minutes in a hot oven (450 degrees Fahrenheit). At the end of that time arrange around the chop alternate slices of sweet potato and cored apples. Cook 15 to 20 minutes more until they are slightly brown and the apples are tender. Baste once during the time.

Nut Muffins—One cup graham flour, one cup white flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one egg, four tablespoons brown sugar, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one cup milk, four tablespoons shortening, one-half cup chopped walnuts or pecans. Mix dry ingredients. Beat egg, add milk and melted shortening. Add to dry ingredients, add chopped nuts. Bake for 25 minutes in a moderate oven (400 degrees Fahrenheit).

Lemon Crumb Pie—Three-fourths cup soft bread crumbs, one cup cold water, one cup sugar, two egg yolks, one tablespoon melted butter, juice of one lemon, grated rind of one lemon, plain pastry. Soak bread crumbs in cold water until soft. Beat egg yolks and mix with sugar, add melted butter, lemon juice and rind to soft bread crumbs. Stir all together thoroughly and pile into a pan lined with plain pastry. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees Fahrenheit) for over 10 minutes, then at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.
