

THANKSGIVING DAY OBSERVED

Prayers Offered for King George and All Others Who Are Not Well

Kimberly, inspected the ship's mess. The crew's menu showed olives, sweet pickles, soup, cracklings, roast turkey, sage dressing, spiced ham, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes, buttered peas, oranges, apples, mince pie, pumpkin pie, mixed nuts, cigarettes, cigars and coffee.

The menu at the Hoover table listed anchovies on toast, Scotch soup, salted almonds, celery, olives, roast turkey, cranberry dressing, giblet gravy, chest-nut sauce creamed asparagus tips, glazed sweet potatoes, macedone salads, cheese, crackers, bran muffins, chocolate ice cream, sponge cake, and coffee.

Mr. Hoover let it be known today that he was anticipating with the greatest pleasure his visits to South American cities, the first of which will be made Saturday at Guayaquil. A number of invitations once acted upon, are being renewed and accepted at the Maryland. Notable among these is one to stop at Arica, Chile, but it is unknown whether it will be possible to include this halt in the trip.

The abundant spirit of friendship and welcome manifested in Central America has given rise to the hope of substantial realization of good will in the South American republics also.

Mrs. Hoover was particularly interested in feeling manifested in the Nicaragua canal. Central American observers seemed to think that the time inevitably would come when the United States must give serious study to such a project.

MONTANA DEFEATS GONZAGA BY 7-0

SPOKANE, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Captain Chinske of Montana fought his team to lucky break here today, took advantage of it, and beat the stronger Bulldogs of Gonzaga university, 7 to 0.

A Montana punt which touched a Gonzaga player, was recovered by the lads who kicked it, and Chinske forced the piknik within one inch of the goal in the second period, and Ekergren took it over, Chinske passing for the extra point. Near the end of the third period Ralls crossed the Montana goal on an eight yard left end run, but the play was called back and Gonzaga was penalized 15 yards for holding.

The Grizzlies stiffened every other time Gonzaga came within their 20 yard line, and blocked the bewildered Bulldogs, who did most of the work of the game.

Brown Defeats Colgate Eleven By 16-13 Count

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Brown today ended its row of Thanksgiving day ties with Colgate here by defeating the Maroon eleven 16 to 13. The game was brightened by the line play of Ed Kervorkian, the Bruins' veteran tackle, who was ending his college football career.

On the last three Thanksgiving days, Colgate was able to hold Brown even.

Charlie Murray Fanchon-Marco Star Next Week

The movie actors—they get the breaks and Charlie Murray, famous comedian of stage and screen—is finding new delight in rousting through California as the "faddy of the chorus" with Fanchon and Marco's "Hats" coming to the Elsinore theatre on Tuesday.

Charlie Murray broke into the movies with the Mack Sennett bathing beauties. There was Gloria Swanson, Betty Compson and Phyllis Haver, girls who have done rather well in motion pictures. Now according to Murray, he is starting all over again and again with a group of girls that will go far on the road to stage fame.

Maxine Doyle, of the dimpled knees and laughing eyes, seventeen and already an accepted starlet of Fanchon and Marco, a recognized radio artist, especially to the listeners-in of station KYA in San Francisco.

ROTH BOWLERS TIE STATESMAN IN LEAD

Roth's Grocery moved up into a tie for first place in the Business Men's bowling league Thursday night by defeating the New Oregon Statesman two games out of three.

The Salem Sanitary won two out of three from Stiff's Furniture, and Montgomery Ward won by an equal margin from the Fairmount Dairy.

Myrtle Riggs won the women's turkey shoot conducted during the past week, with a score of 169. She is a member of the Montgomery Ward women's team.

League scores were:

Cloverdale Man Improves After Recent Illness

CLOVERDALE, Ore., Nov. 29.—(Special)—Earl Neer is ill in a hospital at Portland, but is recovering and is expected to return home soon. Mrs. Neer and little son Merle spent Sunday at Corvallis with Mrs. Neer's parents.

Louis Hennessy spent the weekend in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schifferer were shopping in Salem Saturday. Mrs. Caroline Drager and her daughter Pearl were in Salem Saturday.

F. A. Wood of Salem spent Sunday at his ranch here.

A number of Cloverdale folk attended an entertainment at Pleasant View last Friday night.

Santo Domingo Is In Grip of Storm

SANTO DOMINGO, Nov. 29.—(AP)—News from the interior of this country indicates that heavy rains and flooded conditions there have created a condition of great alarm.

The rains are continuing and extensive property damage and possible loss of life is regarded as probable.

STUDENTS PORTRAY ORIGIN OF HOLIDAY

CHEMAWA, Ore., Nov. 29.—(Special)—A dramatization of the Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving proclamation in 1621 was presented by the boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades at the Chemawa Indian school last night.

Bradford, Standish, John Alden and the maiden Priscilla all lived again in the act put on by the young Indian students.

A crayon sketch and a harmonica demonstration by Fred Lobdell, school librarian, were novelties of the program. "The Courtship of Miles Standish" was very cleverly and entertainingly put on in the form of a shadowgraph.

The verbal description of the picture was given by Cleo Plasture.

At noon today the entire student body of several hundred students assembled in the spacious dining room for a well planned and bountiful Thanksgiving dinner.

MEETING WITH GOD IS SERMON TOPIC

"Whatever importance may be involved in other events of human experience, undoubtedly, none can outmeasure the event that must take place in the experience of every human being—meeting with God," declared L. D. Smith, pastor of the Salem Nazarene church last night in the sixth of a series of sermons being conducted at the Missionary Alliance, 655 Ferry street.

Mr. Smith took as his text "Prepare to meet thy God," Amos 4:12. He said further: "Some may lightly consider, or refuse to consider, this momentous question. Some may doubt the existence and authority of God. But the meeting is inevitable. No amount of contrary belief or unbelief; no amount of theorizing or philosophizing; no amount of objection or protestation can ever change this fact. This is one of the unalterable and eternally fixed decrees of an unchanging and unchangeable God.

"The time of the meeting is uncertain. Men are daily stepping out of time into eternity to meet God, prepared or unprepared. How necessary then to heed the prophet's cry, Prepare to meet thy God. The condition of the soul will determine the nature of the meeting. Good standing, good deeds, relationships, attachments, meeting be a propitious one. A meeting be a propitious one a preparation must be made. The meeting will be one of joy or grief, one of blessedness or anguish, one of triumph or defeat, one of salvation or condemnation."

"There is an innate desire in the human heart to meet God in peace, but there is absolutely no hope for any soul that fails to make the required preparation. There can be no happiness without congruity—harmony with environment. There can be no happiness in heaven for the soul that is not prepared to fit into its holy environments.

"The time of the meeting is uncertain. Men are daily stepping out of time into eternity to meet God, prepared or unprepared. How necessary then to heed the prophet's cry, Prepare to meet thy God. The condition of the soul will determine the nature of the meeting. Good standing, good deeds, relationships, attachments, meeting be a propitious one. A meeting be a propitious one a preparation must be made. The meeting will be one of joy or grief, one of blessedness or anguish, one of triumph or defeat, one of salvation or condemnation."

Pittsburgh Whips Penn State Grid Team By 26 To 0

PITT STADIUM, Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 29.—(AP)—The Golden Panther of Pittsburgh accomplished its regular Thanksgiving task of polishing off Penn State here today, making a touchdown a period and ending the game with a 26 to 0 victory.

Today Uanss, Pitt's stepping back, opened festivities by running the initial kickoff back 100 yards for a touchdown. This play seemed to take the pep out of the Nittany lion for with but one exception State never threatened Pitt's goal line. Miller starred for State, with Uanss and Parkinson shining for Pitt.

MANHATTAN SHOW HELD ONE OF BEST

Oh, folks, you should see the way the Manhattan Players are dressed this week! They're back at the Elsinore for the week-end, celebrating the Thanksgiving festivities with a comedy that makes people who like their excitement second-hand glad that they don't live "In Oklahoma." Bright colored kerchiefs wrapped around their respective necks, and fire-arms ostentatiously displayed on numerous occasions—and the characters include a bank robber, hardboiled cowpuncher, an aged mother, pretty girls that swag around in riding clothes—and Jack Holt! Words fail to describe him adequately. So, you can see from that, their offering is a mighty cute show.

Jack Lawrence, who is ye handsome hero this week, looks about ten feet tall in chaps and about ten and a half feet tall without them. He's a man from the great wide open spaces who has grown anything else but wide. And he's impressive—very.

All the women have to do mainly is to look distressed and pathetic. It's a good show for those who believe in the domination of the sterner sex, for the gentler sex is submerged comparatively speaking, although Eunice Richards does get vengeance over hating cow men, and the gray-haired mother does take the broom to Sammy.

West Salem News

West Salem remembered Thanksgiving day with a great many family reunions, gatherings large and small, turkey dinners, wild duck dinners; and throughout the town, with all the good time and visiting, the true meaning of a day for thankfulness was uppermost.

Betty Lou Lemon had as her guest for Thanksgiving dinner, Melba Perkins of Kingwood avenue. This was the only guest present at the Dale Lemon home this year. Betty Lou and Melba are school chums.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Needham on Second street. All of the children were present except Miss Lucy Needham, who is in San Francisco working, and Miss Gertrude Needham, who is attending school in Seaside. A lovely turkey dinner was served at 1 o'clock. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Thurman and children, Rheba, Doris, Opal and Donald; Mrs. Dolly Capps and two sons, Lester and Carl from Mulberry, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Chifford Tongland, Mr. and Mrs. Euell Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Needham, Tom Needham and Charles Needham.

Ed Brock is sufficiently recovered that he is able to sit up and a few guests were invited to the Brock home for Thanksgiving dinner. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick from Brush College, and Mrs. Brock's brother, A. Nichols.

Mrs. George Davis has been ill at her home with influenza for the past few days.

Thursday Miss Barbara Benton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Benton of Edgewater place, became the bride of Roy H. England of Dorena. Only the immediate family were present, the wedding being solemnized in the Benton apartment. The Rev. M. A. Groves officiated at the ceremony. Miss Benton, who has been teaching in Dorena for two years, met Mr. England there. The couple will return to Dorena where Mrs. England will finish out the school year teaching.

Linfield Defeats Albany College; Final Score 19-6

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Linfield college today had something to be really thankful for. After having played the entire 1928 northwest conference football schedule without having scored on their opponents once, the Linfield gridgers today not only made three touchdowns and one successful try for point, but defeated Albany college 19 to 6.

The game broke two records. It marked Linfield's first score of the season, and its first victory. On the campus here tonight, joy reigned with a lavish hand.
