

MISSIONARY GROUP OFFICERS ELECTED
PRESENTS PROGRAM BY ROBERTS CLUB

ZENA, Ore., Nov. 29. (Special)—The Zena Missionary society was sponsor for a program and cafeteria supper at the Zena schoolhouse last Saturday night. The program included:
"America" sung by the audience.
Violin solo, "Cavaller Rusticana," Miss Lorine Walling with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Seymour Wilson.
A history of the Zena Missionary society, Mrs. W. R. Henry.
Vocal solo, "Mighty Like a Rose," Billy Utley with Mrs. Arthur Utley at the piano.
Reading, "Mary Ann" and encore, "Robert Reese," Lucille Hackett.
Vocal duet, "Whispering Hope," Mrs. Arthur Utley and Billy Utley.
Piano solo, "Valse in E Flat," Miss Marjorie Walling.
Vocal duet, "Love Like the Dawn," by Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.
Piano solo, "Barchetta" and encore, "Little Treasure," Marie Flint McCall.
Reading in costume, "Cremation of Sam McGee," and encore a song, "Ragged Vagabond," Mr. McDonald. He responded to a second insistent encore with a poem, "Wealth," written recently by an Oregon forest ranger.
Vocal duet, "Pickinanny Lullaby," Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.
It was announced that the next meeting of the missionary society would be held December 5 at the home of Mrs. Worth Henry, with Mrs. W. N. Crawford and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford assistant hostesses. Husbands of the members are invited to attend the meeting, which is the custom annually at the December meeting.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Muths and son Alan and a daughter, Mrs. Roy Kennedy, were recent visitors in Woodburn and Albany.

ROBERTS, Ore., Nov. 29.—(Special)—Officers of the Roberts community club were elected at the first meeting of the fall season, held Saturday night, as follows: President, George Veall; vice president, Roy Rice; secretary, Mabel Higgins, and treasurer, Mrs. Alice Coolidge.
Plans were made to cooperate with the school in putting on the Christmas program. A committee appointed for this purpose included Mrs. C. D. Query, Mrs. Coolidge, Mrs. Will Pettyjohn, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, and Mrs. Forest Edwards.
After the business meeting a one act play was excellently presented by George Veall, Mrs. Will Pettyjohn, Maxine Pettyjohn and Henry Query. A pot luck supper was served at the close of the program.
Mrs. Charles Ekin, who has been visiting relatives in Idaho for several months, returned home Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bressler of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bressler Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harnsburger have bought a farm in Polk county, not far from Independence.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corley of Portland spent last week and with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Davenport.
Mr. and Mrs. Jay Harnsburger of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. C. Ekin last Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs and daughter Dorothy of Salem were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Clynner last Wednesday night.
John W. Croner, who has been staying in Salem for several weeks is at home for the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. John Orsborn and children went to Independence Sunday to visit friends.
Miss Margaret McAlpin of the Marion county health demonstration visited the school here last week and made arrangements to give toxin anti-toxin to any child who desires it, the first week in December.
Mrs. C. D. Query, Mrs. Roy Rice, Mrs. Will Pettyjohn and Mrs. Alice Coolidge attended the Eastern Star banquet last Tuesday evening in Salem.
Four-H club was organized last week in the school with Mrs. Roy Rice as leader. Twelve pupils have already joined. Officers elected were Dorothy Rice, president; June Edwards, vice-president, and Gladys Pasley, secretary.

BASKET SOCIAL IS NOTABLE SUCCESS

SCOTTS MILLS, Ore., Nov. 29.—(Special)—A Thanksgiving program and basket social was given at the Crooked Finger schoolhouse Friday night, with a capacity audience present. After the program, given by pupils of the school, the baskets were auctioned off by W. T. Hogg. Proceeds of the evening amounted to about $80, which will be used in fixing up the school ground and play equipment.
G. W. Myers was able to carry the mail again Monday, after being ill for ten days.
The masquerade dance given in Myers hall Saturday night by the R. N. A. club, was enjoyed by a good sized crowd.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawrence and son Virgil of Albany visited relatives here on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Haynes visited relatives in Silverton Sunday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hogg visited Mrs. Hogg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Maplethorpe, in Salem Sunday and helping Mr. Maplethorpe celebrate his birthday. Those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Maplethorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Hogg, Loaraine and Doris Hogg, Cecil Shafer and Ross Hill.
A wedding dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shepherd Saturday night in their new house.
Miss Helen Amundson, who is working in Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Amundson, over the week end. Miss Beatrice Amundson who teaches at Stayton also visited her parents over the week end.

Scout Turns In Alarm Of Fire

DALLAS, Nov. 29.—(Special)—Fire at the residence of Mrs. U. L. Yoakum, 219 Oak street, caused the fire company to take out the big truck, but little damage was caused by the blaze.
A boy scout discovered the fire and telephoned to Chief Kelly who with driver Dunn took the equipment and attended to it without sounding the general alarm.
