Benefit Sale for Camp Santaly

Backlogs for the rummage sale to be sponsored next Friday and Saturday by the camp committee of the Salem Y. W. C. A. are requested to be ready for collection not later than Tuesday night, according to Mrs. E. T. Barnes, general chairman of the Y. W. camp committee, and Miss Elizabeth Baker, general secretary of the Salem Y. W. C. A.
The rummage sale is being held for a two-fold purpose—as a piece of social service work, supplying clothing to people much in need of it at a price within their means, and secondly to collect funds to equip the cabin at Camp Santaly.
All people having rummage for the sale are asked to bring the articles to the Y. W. or the Mrs. Barnes' home, or to phone either the Y. W. or Mrs. Barnes and the articles will be called for. Mrs. Otto Headrick is chairman of the collection committee.
Mrs. E. T. Barnes will be assisted on the marking committee by Mrs. L. H. McMahan and Mrs. B. E. Carrier. In addition, Mrs. McMahan will be cashier of the sale.
The selling committee includes Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. N. P. Hoff, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. B. E. Carrier and Mrs. R. C. Aiken.

Prof. Magruder Selected As Speaker

Professor F. A. Magruder, professor of political science at the Oregon State College at Corvallis, will speak on "Friendship or Battleships?" at the Salem Woman's club Saturday afternoon. The club women will hold their only session this month at that time, with a business meeting preceding Professor Magruder's talk, which is scheduled for 3 o'clock.
Mrs. David Wright was in charge of the committee which made arrangements for the speaker after it was found impossible for the scheduled speaker, Dean J. R. Jewell of the school of vocational education at Oregon State College, to come to Salem Saturday.

A Debt To One Is Known To All!

Do you want every business and professional man in this county to know that you owe a bill and have refused or neglected to pay it?

AND NO CHANCE TO PLAY HOOKEY

These co-eds are smiling because they don't have to go to school for six months—at least not on land. As students of a floating university they'll do their studying aboard an ocean liner on the high seas and in foreign ports. They receive a full year's college credit for their work. Fifty men and 50 women are enrolled. This photo was taken when the ship arrived at Los Angeles from New York.

Chorus Concert Arousing Interest

While Salem musical circles are interested in the concert to be given by the Salem MacDowell club chorus Thursday night at the Grand theatre, not only because of their local connections but because of the talent which this fine singing aggregation is showing under the baton of Miss Minnetta Magers, one other which is exciting much interest is the appearance of Miss Ruth Lorraine Close of the Florentine Trio as an assisting artist.

Miss Close has recently returned from a four months European trip, during which she appeared in concert in London and Paris and studied conducting with Andre Bloch and new Harp repertoire with Marcel Grandjany. Of her London concert at Wigmore Hall, on June 23, the London Times said: "Miss Close is a very skillful player. She managed her tone graduation well, her harmonics were clear, and her facility of fingering most dexterous." Other European critics were equally enthusiastic about the young Portland woman, who has created a splendid reputation for herself in musical circles in the Northwest as solo harpist with the Portland Symphony orchestra. Other members of the Florentine Trio are Marie Chapman McDonald, violinist, and Ida Mathews, cellist. Arthur Johnson will be tenor soloist with the chorus.

A number of people from near-by Willamette valley towns are also planning to attend the chorus concert, from word received by Mrs. Arthur Rahn, president of the MacDowell club. Prominent folk from Albany who will be present at the concert Thursday night will include Mrs. Rocky Mason, Mrs. Flora Mason, Mrs. Percy Young, and Ina E. French.

Informal Reception At Roberts' Home

Mrs. John J. Robert will entertain in her home on Court street Thursday night following the MacDowell club chorus Christmas concert at the Grand theatre, with an informal reception honoring the chorus director, Miss Minnetta Magers, the chorus accompanist, Miss Ruth Bedford, members of the chorus, assisting artists, and a number of Salem musicians, Miss Magers and Mrs. Arthur Rahn, president of the MacDowell club, will pour, and a group of the chorus members will assist Mrs. Roberts about the room.

The Queen Esther society of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Epworth hall. Miss Mary Trindle, the newly-elected president, will have charge of the meeting.

Diet and Health

PERIODICAL EXAMINATION IS WISEST OF HEALTH RULES

Boils
"WHAT do you prescribe for boils? Shouldn't a physical examination be given before treatment is undertaken?"
A thorough physical examination at least once a year—or oftener, if there are any symptoms—is one of the wisest of health rules, for then any disease which is just beginning may be aborted, or its course lessened. However, the local treatment of boils should be begun the moment they make an appearance, because sometimes it is possible to abort them.
The technical name for boils is "furuncle." If there is a crop of boils the condition is known as "furunculosis." The physical examination should include a blood and urine examination for sugar. Sometimes there will be a pre-diabetic stage in which the blood sugar is higher than normal, even while it does not appear in the urine. Boils and other skin eruptions are very frequent in those who have a high blood sugar. (These persons are usually excess eaters of starches and sugars.) I'll give you a few methods of treating boils. Others you will find in our articles on the subject. (See directions for obtaining it.)

Local Treatment

1. When the boil is first noticed, painting with equal parts (by weight) of gum camphor and carbolic acid, once or twice a day, may be effective in making it disappear without going on to suppuration. Lacking this remedy, try iodine or mercurochrome or ichtholol.
2. Hot compresses, frequently applied—make them of absorbent cotton or gauze dipped in hot boracic acid solution—one tablespoonful of the powder, or crystals dissolved in a pint of water. Do not use poultices of any kind.

After Treatment

1. After the boil is healed, bathe the parts morning and night with the boracic acid solution. It is also wise to rub the boracic acid solution all over the body.
PRECAUTION: Do not squeeze a boil until it is thoroughly "ripe" and then gently, for squeezing it injures the tissues and makes the boil worse. Never squeeze a boil on the upper lip, on account of the infection's gaining entrance to the nose lymphatics and blood vessels and to the brain.

Annual Bazaar at Knight Memorial

Women of the Knight Memorial church are perfecting plans for their annual bazaar and chicken supper which will be held in the church Tuesday. The bazaar will be an all-day affair, and the supper will be served from 5 o'clock to 8:30 o'clock.
Mrs. E. M. McKey, chairman of the bazaar committee, is being assisted by Mrs. B. E. Edwards, Mrs. Charles Eyre, and Mrs. W. F. Neptune. The dinner committee includes Mrs. J. M. Robert, chairman, Mrs. Harry Ross and Mrs. S. F. Anderson.

Mrs. Miller Is Hostess Saturday

Mrs. E. A. Miller was hostess at a delightfully informal dinner in her home on South High street Saturday night. The dining table, with covers placed for Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Bowman, Mrs. Indian Allen, Miss Doris Allen, Thomas Allen, and the hostess, was attractively centered with roses.
