DEER WANDERS TO TOWN, IS CAUGHT

MILL CITY, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Floyd Bassett and Mrs. Bassett's brother captured a small deer which had either wandered or been driven down from the mountains Tuesday in front of the Hill Top grocery store. It is the first deer that ever wandered into Mill City, and naturally the event caused much excitement.

The boys took the deer to the woods about half a mile from town but it refused to go back to the wilds, so they are taking care of it until they decide what to do with it.

The Misses Catherine and Agnes Brown are at home from Albany to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown.

The Mill City Lodge No. 144, I. O. O. F., entertained the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of Marion county Saturday night. The program included vocal solos, vaudeville selections, story telling, and knot tying. The address of welcome was given by Dr. W. W. Allen, and Past Grand Master Hobson gave a short talk on Odd-fellowship. Refreshments were served after the program and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

The annual Thanksgiving dance was given in Hammond hall Thursday night with a large crowd in attendance.

SHEEP RAISING IS TOPIC AT MEETING

RENA, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—H. A. Lindgren, livestock specialist at O. S. C., and E. Beck, Polk county agent, held a meeting for sheep breeders of this locality Friday afternoon at the Zena school house. Mr. Lindgren gave a talk on the diseases of sheep and their cures. Among those most prevalent here were stomach worm, liver leach, lung worm, foot rot, sore eyes and grub in the head. He gave the approximate cost of each ewe per year and also spoke on how to condition lambs for the market. County Agent Beck gave a brief history of sheep in the Willamette valley and advised against disposing of dairy cattle to invest in sheep. Polk county holds an advantage over other counties in the state because of the fact that there is splendid sheep feed, is better adapted to this soil.

Mr. Beck concluded by stating that other states, among them being Utah and Idaho are coming to Polk county to buy their Romney, Lincoln and Cotswold rams.
