

WOMAN IS HONORED ON 83RD BIRTHDAY

ZENA, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Northington entertained Thursday with a combined Thanksgiving and birthday dinner, the event being the 83rd birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bizer of Lake Labish. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Northington family were: Mrs. Bizer, guest of honor; Mr. and Mrs. M. McClary and five children, Emma, Elmer, Wayne, Fred and Willard of Lake Labish; Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hunt and children Helen and Kenneth.

The Rev. and Mrs. Louis Randle and three children, Lois, Helen and Jack were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry Thanksgiving day. They left Friday to go to their new home at Cottage Grove where the Rev. Randle recently became pastor of the first Baptist church, now being designated as "The Church on the Highway."

R. C. Shepard and children Miss Dorothy, Julia, Ruth, James, Joe and David of Zena were Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Mrs. Shepard's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walden of Portland. Maurice Shepard, oldest son of Mr. Shepard, who is stationed at Vancouver Barracks and Paul, O. S. C. student were also present. Mrs. R. C. Shepard, with her two youngest daughters Muriel and Arden, is in California recuperating from a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry were hosts at a Thanksgiving dinner, Thursday. Covers were placed for nineteen including the Rev. and Mrs. Louis Randle and children, Lois, Helen and Jack of Salem, Mrs. Lottie Randle Crawford of Oregon City and daughter Miss Dorothy and son Randle, and a girl friend from O. S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Crawford and children Hilda and Frank Jr., of Zena; Mrs. Mary B. Crawford, Salem; Mr. G. H. Crawford, Zena and the hosts.

Death Takes Wife Of Commissioner At Sister's Home

Mrs. Edward Ostrander, wife of the commissioner of the Oregon public service commission, died at Quapaw, Oklahoma early Tuesday, according to word received here. Mrs. Ostrander had accompanied her husband to New Orleans, and had stopped off at Quapaw to visit a sister.

TWIN BROTHERS "BATTLE" IN AIR

Mrs. Ostrander leaves her husband, two daughters and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Portland, and Mrs. T. J. Starker, wife of a professor at Oregon State college. The body will arrive in Portland Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Ostrander.

"Booster" Club Will Give Play

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—At the booster club meeting held at Brush Creek school Friday evening the members decided to give another play this winter. The one chosen is "Yonson's Job." John C. Gopfert will direct the play which will be given about the first of February.

The club also decided to purchase an oil stove on which to prepare hot lunches for the school children during the cold weather. Miss Jessie Hartley, the teacher, will have charge of the preparation.

Steen Services Will Be Friday, Trinity Church

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Funeral services for Ole Steen, who died here late Sunday evening, have been set for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Trinity church with the Rev. H. L. Foss officiating. At first the time of the service was set for Thursday morning but later word was received that a son, Albert, was arriving Thursday from Faith, S. D., so the time was changed to Friday afternoon. Another son, Arnold, arrived here yesterday from Torfield, Alberta, Canada.

Mr. Steen was born in Norway. He came to Minnesota while a young man and had been married for 51 years on the day he died, December 2. Beside his wife and two sons, he is survived by four brothers, Hans E. Steen of Silverton, Ore., Iver, and Knute all of Brookings, S. D. The Steens have been residents of the Silverton community for about 30 years. They at first made their home on Howell Prairie where George Stevens now lives. Later they moved into Silverton and have been living on Pine street.

HOLIDAY OBSERVED BY CHURCH, GRANGE

NORTH HOWELL, Dec. 4.—(Special)—Thanksgiving day was appropriately observed here last Thursday at the church and Grange Hall. Devotional services were held all day at the church and the members and their friends enjoyed their dinner and supper in the Grange hall.

The Stenberg family from Tillamook was here to help with the services.

Among the young people from a distance who spent Thanksgiving day with their families were Lorraine Fletcher from The Dalles, Gilbert Oddie from Forest Grove and Paul Rauch and Ronald Stevens from Portland.

Mrs. Florence Oddie and son Harley drove to Eddyville last week-end and visited Mrs. Alice Eagleson.

Mrs. C. A. Sawyer of Gervais spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, and family.

A large number of local young people gave Miss Mabel Drake a surprise party last Saturday night as a birthday treat. Games were played and a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Rutherford.

Last Friday night was the second social night that the Grange has enjoyed this winter.

This time it was a white elephant sale and march.

The march was a huge success as were also the supper, the card games and the program which was given by the junior Grangers. Much credit is due the committee, Mrs. J. S. Coomer, Dimma Cline and Tom Bump.

MOVING TO BEND

SILVERTON, Ore., Dec. 4.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ellis who have been employed at the local J. C. Penney store for some time have been transferred to Bend, Oregon. They will leave today of this week. Mr. Ellis, who has been with the Penney meat company this autumn, has accepted the position at the Penney store.
