

Nine Policemen Wounded Before Negro Shot Down

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Police and officers went to Whitehurst's home on the near north side.

Nine policemen, including a deputy commissioner, were shot and wounded today in a five-hour fight with a crazed negro boy who barricaded himself in his home and defied until fatally wounded, the attempts to dislodge him made by 200 policemen and firemen.

Machine guns, riot guns, pistols, rifles and tear bombs were used by the besiegers and the youth was shot when a police squad, behind steel shields, forced entrance to the three-story brick building and fired 15 bullets into his body as he attempted to train his shot gun on them. Despite his injuries and the fact that a policeman's bullet passed through his skull, the youth lived for two hours.

Three Sisters Near In the apartment with the youth throughout the siege were his three sisters, and two brothers, one of them only a baby. They huddled together in one room and escaped harm from tear gas but when they came out were almost white from the plaster chipped off the ceilings by bullets.

A smashed restaurant window led to the spectacular siege. Ernest Whitehurst, 16, victim of the fight, disliking a restaurant proprietor and last night tossed a brick through the restaurant window. Another negro boy told the

RUN-DOWN WOMEN REGAIN STRENGTH

Find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound A Dependable Medicine

MRS. HELEN SEDIVI

that I gave it a trial. It has certainly done wonders for me. I have praised it to single and to married women and intend to continue it. It seems that taking your medicine has made me a different girl. I also secured Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation and they have helped me wonderfully. Mrs. HELEN SEDIVI, 4039 National Street, Tacoma, Philadelphia, Pa.

A Weak, Nervous Woman Helped
Terre Haute, Ind.—"I have a baby six months old and after he was born I felt so badly I could hardly do my work. I was weak, nervous and run-down. I have taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it. I feel lots better and am able to do my housework. I also take Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation. I would like you to print this letter in some of the papers for I have often heard remarks about your testimonials. They say, 'You never see letters from anyone in this city. It is always somewhere else.'"
MRS. J. E. MORSE, 1801 Blaine Avenue, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Try Texaco Today

DRIVE up to the Texaco Red Star with the Green T. Drain and refill with Texaco Golden Motor Oil. See the evidence of its perfect refining in the clear golden color. Notice the heavy oil body as it pours.

Texaco Golden Motor Oil is free from all the impurities, all the artificial body-building substances, all the paraffin body-building substances, all the paraffin wax and tars that cause break-down in the engine. The full golden body of Texaco is the natural and inevitable result of Texaco refining and Texaco crudes.

That's why Texaco holds its body under highest heat and pressure why it so completely preserves and protects fine engine performances. The steady growth of a great national preference for Texaco Golden Motor Oil has placed the Texaco Red Star with the Green T on every highway from coast to coast.
