

Salem High School Chorus To Give Concert

A Christmas concert that will be wholly non-denominational both in regard to participants and setting will be the annual program given by the music department of the Salem high school in the Grand theater, Sunday afternoon, December 16, at three o'clock.

More than one hundred young people will participate in this concert, in separate groups and in ensemble. The beautiful traditional carols will be sung by a large chorus; this feature alone will be worth coming to hear.

Special numbers on the program will be:

- PART I
- Star Spangled Banner
 - Greeting (Wooler).....Chorus II
 - Eternal Spring (Engelmann).....Orchestra
 - North Wind (Chambers).....Orchestra
 - Il Trovatore (Verdi).....Orchestra
 - Welcome Pretty Primrose (Pinsent).....Chorus II
 - Creole Love Song (Smith).....Chorus II
 - "Meditation" from "Thais" (Mausenet).....Vern Wilson
 - Water-lilies (Luders).....Soprano Quartet
 - Morning Invitation (Vezale).....Chorus I
 - Morning ("Peer Gynt") (Greig).....Chorus I
 - Avril Chorus (Verdi).....Chorus I
 - "Mound Builders" an Indian cantata by Paul Bliss.....Chorus I
- PART II
- The First Noel.....Orchestra
 - Legende (Tschalkowsky).....Chorus II
 - String Accompaniment.....Chorus II
 - Far in the East Combined Chorus.....Holton
 - O'er Lands Afar.....Carols and Hymns.....Combined Choruses
 - Joy to the World.....Angels from the Realms of Glory.....Hark the Herald Angels.....We Three Kings.....Angels We Have Heard On High.....Silent Night.....Accompanists are Doris Ross, Barbara Barham, and Elizabeth Lewis.

Afternoon Bridge Is Attractive Affair

Two of the most attractive bridge parties that have been given for some time took place at the home of Mrs. Karl Becke on North Summer street Wednesday and Thursday afternoon of this week when Mrs. Becke and Mrs. Hixon were joint hostesses to a large group of Salem matrons.

Wednesday afternoon the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry and Mrs. Paul Hendricks. High score for the afternoon went to Mrs. Hollis Huntington and second to Mrs. Clifford Farmer. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Frederick Deckebach and Mrs. E. T. Pierce assisted. High score at the close of playing for the afternoon went to Mrs. E. P. Thom and second to Mrs. Jerald Backstrand.
