PUPILS PREPARING CHRISTMAS EVENT

RICKEY, Ore., Dec. 19.—(Special)—Two brief plays, "The District School" and "Santa Has the Blues", will be given by pupils of the Rickey school Friday evening, December 21. The first will be given by pupils of Mrs. Kelly's room, and the second by the pupils of Miss Perry's room.

This will be the first Christmas program in the new schoolhouse and it promises to be exceptionally good. A large crowd is expected. The public is invited, with a special invitation to former teachers of this school.

The sewing club will have no meetings until after the holidays. The school children are busy selling Christmas seals.

Mrs. D. A. Harris spent Friday in Salem.

L. Dickman has been confined to his home with an attack of lumbago.

Jackie Horner has been seriously ill with influenza but is now able to be up again.

Miss Mildred Magee of Ashland and Mrs. Robert Speaker and daughter Mildred Jean of Salem Heights were guests at the home of their uncle, M. M. Magee, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Frybise were Salem visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Binagat will spend several days in Portland this week, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Van Cleave.

Thomas Lauderback's chicken house was robbed some time ago and another attempt was made recently, but the thieves were frightened away, leaving several sacks behind them.

A crew of convicts is grubbing on the Caplinger farm.

Marion Lady, who had lived in this community for several years, died in Portland last week from heart trouble. He is survived by his widow, three sons and several step children. He was buried at Sheridan.

HOG RAISING PAYS FARMERS DECLARE

LAKE LABISH, Ore., Dec. 19.—(Special)—George Campbell and Frank Matthes, Lake Labish farmers, express the opinion that "hogs are the proper marketing low priced."

Both of these men have some unusually good hogs and are un-dismayed at the present prices for these animals, being confident of a return to normal prices. Frank Matthes is this week enlarging and improving the shelters for his swine.

It has also been noted here that potatoes from outside the state, care-fully graded and put up in fancy sacks, find a brisk sale, to the detriment of the home grown article. It has been suggested that Oregon potato growers ought to invest in a few pretty sacks and use better salesmanship.

PROGRAM WILL BE PRESENTED FRIDAY

CLOVERDALE, Ore., Dec. 19.—(Special)—The Cloverdale school children are preparing a program for Friday afternoon. There will be a Christmas tree for the pupils.

Several of the young women of the community will take part in the program, which will consist of music, marches, recitations and dialogues.

The members of the W. C. T. U. are preparing a Christmas box for the boys' home at Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lambert of Stayton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley and children visited at the Charles Bear home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neer motored to Corvallis Sunday.
