Fans All Hopped Up Over Gordon-Riley Rematch Tonight

Matchmaker's Decision to Trot Pair Out Again Wins Big Applause

TONIGHT'S FIGHT CARD Main Event-Sailor Willie Gordon, Portland, 129, vs. Kewple Riley, Vancouver, 131; ten rounds.

Semi Final-Terry Killeen, Independence, 155, vs. Red Hayes, Stayton, 155; six rounds. Special — Delmer Russell. Salem, 137, vs. Jimmy Woods,

Amity, 139; four rounds. Special-Guy Hickman, Salem, 114, vs. Jackie Watten. berger, Independence, 114; four Immediately following the an-nouncement Wednesday morning that Kewpie Riley of Vancouver, Wash., had been signed up as an emergency opponent for Sailor Willie Gordon of Portland, for tonight's main event at the Oregon theatre, Salem fight fans' tongues began wagging at an accelerated rate and the fight program took on even more significance than it held when Gordon was billed to fight Ted Fox.

The previous Gordon-Riley encounter lasted just long enough to get the customers all 'het up.' and then terminated unsatisfactorily when Gordon unintentionally fouled Riley. The encounter while it lasted proved that the boys were well matched, and their respective styles in the ring were such as to make it a fight plenty of action.

So Mr. Fan was put in the position of the little boy who "won't be happy till he gets it," the desirable objective being a finish to this promising bout. The fans are sorry Ted Fox couldn't go on, but that can wait; what they want to find out now is whether Gordon or Riley is the better man. Opinion here seems evenly divided.

Tom Loutitt will be the third man in the ring; he's the referee who makes them all fight, but he apparently won't have to use his persuasive methods in any of the ger, who is a varsity candidate at cal floor, 16 to 11. For the past two years this game has been won by the alumni, and with a fairly green and untried team representing the school this season, the grads are conceded a good chance to wi again, with such a list of star to draw from.

The advantage on the side o the alumni was increased thi week when Beechler, the high school's most promising center caudidate, became ill.
