

LUCENA FISHER FUNERAL HELD

Resident of Polk County for 43 Years Dies at Independence Monday

INDEPENDENCE, Ore., Dec. 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Lucena Fisher passed away at the family home Monday, December 17, after a lingering illness. She was born in Cedar county, Iowa, March 8, 1853, and was married to George Fisher November 11, 1868. To this union were born one daughter and two sons. She had resided in this city and surrounding vicinity for 43 years. She was a member of the Christian church. Her husband passed away several years ago, and also one son. She leaves to mourn her loss her daughter, Mrs. M. Claire Hart of Salem, a son, Adrian D. Fisher of Independence; three grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Keeney funeral home Thursday, interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

When Senator Hale put his motion to take up the naval bill upon the disposition of the pending business, Senator King, democrat, Utah, countered with a substitute motion to put ahead of it the peace treaty which had been received a few hours earlier from the foreign relations committee. Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, another opponent of the naval measure joined King and served notice that "there is no chance for a vote on this proposition today." A moment later the senate adjourned and Senator Hale gave notice that immediately upon its reconvening tomorrow he would reinstate his move to make the naval bill the unfinished business.

KELLOGG PACT WILL BE PUSHED TO VOTE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Hardly had the Kellogg peace pact been reported formally to the senate Wednesday before a surprise move was initiated to take up for immediate consideration ahead of the long pending naval construction measure. An attempt of Chairman Hale of the naval committee, to put the house bill authorizing construction of $15 new cruisers before the senate in accordance with the program of the republican steering committee, was blocked and a decision on which would get the right of way over until tomorrow.

By the terms of a contract signed by the highway commission and Multnomah county commissioners tonight, the county board will retain control of the Oregon section of the bridge and will continue collecting tolls until such time as the courts decide that the highway departments of

MARION COUNTY YET SEEKING HIGHWAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 20.—(AP)—Tolls will be collected on the interstate bridge connecting Washington and Oregon at Vancouver, until the present litigation is terminated. This means that the bridge will not be toll-free on January 1, as had been hoped, but that fees will be collected for another half year. The state highway commission explained their position at a meeting here Wednesday.

Gene Tunney is going to write a special article on boxing for the next issue of the Encyclopedia Britannica. This ought to be a knockout.

Oregon and Washington have the right to take over and operate the structure free of tolls.

The situation was precipitated by an injunction brought by a resident of Vancouver, Wash., seeking to restrain the transfer of the bridge from Clark county, Wash., to the Washington highway commission, and to prevent the discontinuation of tolls. Attorneys said it may require six months time in which to settle the litigation, and that it may require a longer period if someone in Oregon institutes similar court action.

Marion county today asked for the North Santiam road in the vicinity of Detroit. Lake county wants construction of a section of the Fremont highway from Picture Pass to the forest boundary, and offered cooperation on a six-mile section south of Lakeview toward the California line.

PROGRAM TONIGHT AT SPRING VALLEY

SPRING VALLEY, Ore., Dec. 20.—(Special)—The Spring Valley school presented its Christmas program Thursday night, December 20. A tree and exchange of presents were features of the program. A committee took a collection from the patrons of the district, with which candy and nuts were bought for the children.

Mrs. Seymour Wilson has received word from Laramie, Wyo., of the safe arrival of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Jennings, who left here hurriedly in response to the news that her daughter, Miss Evangeline Jennings was seriously ill. Miss Jennings is now on the road to recovery after an attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Will Robbins of Wenatchee, Wash., have been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Teeple for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins plan to visit at Philomath, McMinnville and Tacoma and other places before returning to their home in February. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins are the owners of large apple orchards in the Wenatchee district.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Stevenson and two daughters, Ruth and Shirley, of Salem Heights, spent Sunday here at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Alderman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davidson and their small son Beryl of Wheatland were Sunday visitors at the Lee Versteeg home. Sign Accidentally Broken—Installation of a large electric sign in front of the Salem Army Goods store will be held up for a number of days due to an accident Wednesday when part of the sign was broken as workmen were raising the new fixture to position.

EASTERN STARS GET DOWN TO BUSINESS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—(AP)—While members of the western team were arriving today, the eastern squad got down to business with a snappy workout in Kezar stadium where east will meet west in the annual charity football game, December 29.

The easterners, all in good condition despite their trip across the country, passed and booted the ball around for an hour. It was a public workout and no signals were run through. Head Coach Andy Kerr said he would give no thought to formations until the players arrive at Stanford, Friday. Another light workout will be held tomorrow. On Friday the players will be taken to Stanford university to train until the day of the game.
